

IT WAS STONE IN THE BLADDER

GIN PILLS PASSED IT

"Five years ago, I was taken down with what the doctors called inflammation of the Bladder—intense pains in the back and loins, and difficulty in urinating, and the attacks, which became more frequent, amounted to unbearable agony. I became so weak that I could not walk across the floor. My wife read in the papers about GIN PILLS and sent for a box. From the very first, I felt that GIN PILLS were doing me good. The pain was relieved at once, and the attacks were less frequent.

In six weeks, the Stone in the Bladder came away. When I recall how I suffered and how new I am, healthy and able to work, I cannot express myself strongly enough when I speak of what GIN PILLS have done for me." JOHN HERMAN, Hamilton, Ont.

To Prevent Winter Colds.
When you go out into the cold breathe deeply.
Be sure that your clothing is loose enough to allow of this.
If you don't breathe properly you are immediately subject to colds.
You are liable to colds if you let the system run down.
Eat regularly and don't go for long hours at a time without proper nourishment.
See that the air is pure in the home or your place of business.
By all means take fresh air and a short walk if possible as noontime.
Most of our homes and business places are overheated, and for this reason the outdoor garment should be warm and dresses only of moderate weight.
Girls who wear thin lingerie blouses all winter should see that the chest is well protected against the cold.
Quick friction after a bath in winter is good, and for older persons an alcohol rub after the bath will keep them from catching cold.
Many doctors think that this is the only beneficial way to take alcohol through the pores.
Always bathe the neck and chest in cold water, followed by an alcohol rub, before changing from a high necked dress to a low cut one.
If you catch cold don't ruffle up and sit by the fire. Put on your sweater, open your windows and go through all the bodily exercises you can remember from your school gymnastic lessons. See how the circulation will start.

DANGER PERIOD OF WOMANS' LIFE FROM 45 to 50

Interesting Experience of Two Women—Their Statements Worth Reading.

White Oak, Ont.—"At Change of Life when doctors could do no more and I was given up by my friends, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound came to the front and did wonders for me. I had been having female troubles for years, my head troubled me severely at times, I had bearing down pains and backache and I was very anemic from excessive flowing. I recommend your Compound highly and do all I can to advertise it as a genuine woman's medicine."—Mrs. SYLVESTER MANNING, White Oak, Ontario.

The Case of Mrs. Kirlin.
Circleville, Ohio.—"I can truthfully say that I never had anything do me so much good during Change of Life as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." "Before I had taken one half a bottle of it I began to feel better, and I have continued taking it. My health is better than it has been for several years. If all women would take it they would escape untold pain and misery at this time of life."—Mrs. ALICE KIRLIN, 368 W. Mill St., Circleville, Ohio.

The Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. At such times women may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The Coming Out Party.
A "coming out" party is a trying ordeal, but if the debutante can prevent her smile from becoming set and her manner mechanical she will impress many in her favor. She should pronounce the name of each person distinctly and with a gracious intonation of the voice when presented and not make too great a difference in greeting her old friends from her new acquaintances.
It is a pretty custom today for a debutante to ask several girl friends to assist in receiving and entertaining the guests. They, of course, arrive before the hour appointed in the invitations. If they have about the same set of acquaintances they will know many of the guests, but if they do not know them by name they are privileged to speak to any one, for they are representing the hostess. It is their particular duty to single out for attention any who may seem shy and unacquainted with those present.
The tea is often followed by a little dinner given to the young women who have helped to receive the guests and to other particular friends of the debutante. She is now formally "out," and invitations probably follow.
Upon a debutante should devolve the duty of keeping the account of reception days, seeing that cards are sent, noting any change of residence in the address book, writing notes of invitation, acceptance or regret. On receiving days her mother frequently allows her the privilege of dispensing the tea or offering it, and in all entertaining she is her mother's assistant.

Informal Dinner.
At an informal home dinner the hostess may serve the soup from a tureen, which is placed before her. The fish should be placed before the host and served by him. He also carves and serves the meat. If one has a maid it is best to stand the vegetables on the side table, but they may be placed on the dining table if one prefers to have the dinner served in the old-fashioned simple style. The salad and the dessert should be placed before the hostess, and if coffee is served the coffee dinner coffee set with the small cups, spoon and sugar may be placed before the hostess.

Whirlwind a Good Game.
A good game on the order of "going to Jerusalem," but less familiar, is called in this country "whirlwind," but by our English cousins is known as "caterpillar." When something is wanted to get a crowd of young folks stirred up and fun started just try whirlwind.
Draw up as many chairs as there are players and range them in a ring. All the players sit down but one, the question of who will be left standing being decided by cutting cards or drawing slips of paper. The object of the player who remains standing is to get a seat, but this the other players try to prevent by moving rapidly from seat to seat in such a way as to fill up the vacancy as soon as he is seen to approach it. This causes the whirlwind, a very descriptive name.
When he secures a seat the player on his left becomes chairless. The players may move either to the left or right, as occasion requires, to protect the chairs and prevent the chairless from getting a seat.

Chinese Punk Sticks.
Punk sticks are made in China, and the cheapest grades of the sticks are composed wholly of the elm bark. They give off a heavy acrid smoke not at all pleasing. The better grades are perfumed with a variety of substances, the commonest being sandalwood. The price of the sticks in China, where the children are as fond of them as they are here, but where the elders also regard them with much seriousness, ranges from four bunches for a cent to two sticks for a cent. The prices in this country are just about double those prevailing in China.
The most valuable sticks in China and those which seldom if ever are imported into this country are those in the manufacture of which Tibetan incense is used. These sticks are made almost exclusively for the imperial court, which requires them for all its ceremonies.

A Geographical Question.
"Mother," asked Jennie, "where is Athens?"
"Athens, you mean, I guess."
"No, mother, I mean Athens, because when a person is in a boiler explosion or an earthquake they always say he is blown to Athens."

Harry's Airship.
Harry built an airship.
To sail up in the sky.
He told his little sister
He meant to sail "on high."
He worked all morning on it;
He worked all afternoon.
He said he wished to finish
His wondrous airship soon.

When it was done he climbed in
And cried to sister dear:
"Look out! I think I'm rising!
You mustn't come too near!"
But not an inch budged a ship.
In vain young Harry tried.
He coaxed, he pushed, he lifted;
Then sprang he out and cried:
"Well, just stay there, old airship!
I'd rather play with sister
And not go up today."

"Glad to be back, Fred?"
"You bet I am."
"What are you smoking?"
"Tuckett's."
"Take some with you?"
"Yes, but I ran out. And no wonder. Everybody I met wanted to try one. Over there in Europe, they smoke some punk that smells like joss sticks."
"They weren't all that bad?"
"Oh, no, some were pretty fair, but then they're the kind you pay extra for when imported, and they're no better than Tuckett's, if as good."

Tuckett's Cigarettes

Many men have to learn by experience, while others get wise by observation. If you've watched the fellows who smoke Tuckett's, you'll have noticed that their tastes are not limited by their purses. They smoke Tuckett's because the quality is in the tobacco, not on the box.
