CARS AT NEW ANNAN RACES—Cars will be parked free outside the racing oval. Persons insisting on parking at southern end of the inner field will be charged 50 cents. The management prefer that drivers would park on the outside. By careful compact parking six hundred or more cars can be parked between the track and main road. Drivers can assist very much by parking as conveniently close as possible in compact regular lines. According to reports from different sections of P. E. I. and the mainland, the rush at the gates will be heavy. If Providence smiles with bright weather, four thousand people entering in two hours, means 33 people per minute. Cars passing Mooses Store—on the Kensington-Summerside road may buy admission tickets there. There will be three other ticket booths at the entrances to the track. Motor car drivers could quicken admission if they could make the near approach to the gates in two lines. Be sure to start as early as possible and avoid the rush. 21

Captain Humphries and Sister Boher delivered splendid and appealing addresses. At the close of the service the Rev. Canon Malone offered prayer and gave the blessing.

THE TALKING PICTURES—Charlottetown theatre goes had their first opportunity of seeing and hearing the "talkies" at the Prince Edward Theatre last night, and the comment on the show was very favorable. The voices synchronized wonderfully with the picture, and particularly in the case of the mystery picture "The Donovan Affair," added much to the effectiveness of the production. The programme started with a Spanish song and dance number, and here too the voices and music were very effective. While there is still room for improvement in the reproduction of the voice with the film—the ladies sometimes "talked" in anything but elfin tones—last night's exhibition was admittedly an encouraging success.

MR. DANIEL MACNEILL. There passed away at Little Sands, on July 20, 1929, Mr. Daniel MacNeill. Born at Wood Islands, Feb. 1852, he removed to Little Sands, over forty years ago, where he has since resided. For the past few years he has lived in retirement, but previous to that, he was a man who took a great interest in everything that pertained to the welfare of the community. For many years he was in the employ of the Provincial Government, as Road Supervisor for Southern King's County, and in that position, became known to many people, and was highly esteemed for his high sense of honor.

Being a most cheerful and friendly man, he enjoyed a large circle of friends. Two years ago his wife passed away and since then, he had been living alone except for a short time spent with a niece. He loved his home and his last illness being of only four days duration, he was kindly cared for by relatives and friends. He leaves a number of nephews and nieces, besides many friends who will mourn his passing away. His funeral was held on Monday and was largely attended, showing the high esteem in which he was held. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. R. T. Gouge, B. A. During the service the choir sang very sweetly his favorite hymn, "I Shall Know Him." The following were the pall bearers: Messrs. B. Blue, J. A. Gillis, W. D. MacDonal, M. Smith, Ira D. Munn and A. Blue. He was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

Education. Continued from page 1. "Under the pension scheme which has gone into effect, eight per cent of the provincial aid payable to teachers is reserved for the fund, a like amount being contributed out of consolidated revenue. These two yield at present about $70,000. Added to this will be the accruing interest. Teachers are entitled to receive a pension equal to three times the annual amount of their provincial aid at the time of retirement, provided they have taught 35 years or have attained the age of 60 after 30 years' service. A disability clause enables a teacher to retire on pension if he becomes totally incapacitated as a teacher after 15 years' service. Provision is also made for widows and minor children of teachers under certain conditions calling for additional contributions from those wishing to take advantage of such benefits.

"The maximum pension under this is $1,020.00. It should be noted that the amount contributed by the teacher—contribution is compulsory—is less than the increase put through in government grant to the teacher. The whole scheme is administered by the Treasury department, no charge being made for the service.

Helping Teachers. "Still another effort to raise the teaching standard is the appointment of helping teachers. The first two who travel hither and yon as their services are requested have proven so acceptable that this branch will be increased as means become available.

"Dr. Munro also has his eye on the increased provision of high school facilities and in this connection an interesting development is the building and endowing of a school at Pugwash Junction by a Mr. Cyrus S. Eaton, now of millionaire row, Cleveland, both once of Pugwash. The school is planned to be a model rural school and will be built at the cost of $10,800 and endowed with $50,000. One room will be for the district and the other a consolidated rural high school serving the radius around Pugwash. There will be a laboratory and a library.

"Circulating libraries among the schools and a two-hour fortnightly broadcasting programme are two more links in the school programme.

"So the heaven is working all over the province, and with it is retained that interest in special schools, academies and privately controlled universities to which must mainly be given the credit for the distinguished educational record of the Maritimes. But under the "isolated peak" system the Maritimes prepared chiefly for export. Thirty-five per cent, for instance, of the graduates of Acadia University are in the United States. A study made of the Annapolis Valley district showed that of the young people of the North Mountain section 50 per cent. had gone to the States, and from the South Mountain, where the living and other standards are alleged to be much lower, 15 per cent. only had gone. A class of 43 of 15 years ago in one of the schools was surveyed and of the 18 in the higher grades all but two had gone to the States and these two were in Ontario.

"Perhaps the most significant sign of the new day attitude vibrantly noticeable all over the Maritimes is the increased emphasis put upon the public school system. The chief harvest is for another day, but certain definite reactions are here and now and these are all to the good in the building up and firmly establishing public morale upon which any lasting provincial growth must be stayed."

Hog receipts, 1,635; hogs were stronger at $15.25 for those of good quality fed and watered flat; heavy hogs were weighed up at $14.23 for those averaging 270 to 300 pounds; sows were from $10.50 to $11.50.
