Ladies! Darken Your Gray Hair

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Grandmother made delicious things to eat

FRESH, snappy, brown cookies, Poor Man's Pudding—but it was good enough for a millionaire—rich coffee cake with fruit and spices put in with a generous hand, pumpkin pie with the genuine old-time flavor, and many more. All these good things Grandmother made with brown sugar. Her granddaughters can make them just as successfully to-day if they use

Lantic Old Fashioned Brown Sugar

—three kinds—Light, Brilliant and Dark Yellow—sold by grocers throughout the Dominion. Of these, the Brilliant Yellow is recommended as widely useful for general cooking.

Pure brown sugars give to baking and desserts the characteristic molasses taste which is a great improvement to many dishes. Brown sugar, as well as white, should be kept in the pantry of every household which appreciates old-time goodies. Brown sugar is economical. It costs a little less per pound than other pure sugars and it flavors as well as sweetens.

For fear Grandmother's recipes might be forgotten, we have reprinted a number of the best of them in the booklet illustrated at the top. We will send it to you without charge, if you will fill out the coupon below. We know you will enjoy making these old-time dishes and that your family will enjoy eating them.

Lantic Old-fashioned Brown Sugars are made by the same firm that makes the famous Lantic "fine" granulated.

Lantic Old-fashioned Brown is packed in 100-Pound Bags, from which your grocer will sell you as much or as little as you need. The book tells you how to keep it moist and fresh as well as how to use it.
