The sympathy of the friends here of Mr. Fred Arsenaull and family of Piusville is extended to them in the loss of their daughter, Olive, Mrs. Power of Summerside, who died on Monday, April 11th, in Prince County Hospital.

The funeral of Mrs. Lawrence Palmer (nee Olive Arsenaull) of Piusville, was held at St. Anthony's R. C. Church on Wednesday morning and was very well attended. The sympathy of her friends in Howlan is extended to her husband; also her father and family.

Mrs. Urban Pineau and Mrs. Henry Pineau Jr. of Bloomfield Corner were in Howlan on Sunday afternoon. On their return in the evening they were accompanied by little Miss Anita Doiron who will stay with her relatives for some time. Dannie Rogers of Lot 7 was unfortunate the other day while splitting wood he gave himself a very nasty gash on one hand, which necessitated 8 stitches taken by Dr. Dewar. That would be bad enough at any time but right now he should be so busy getting in readiness for the fishing season which will soon be here.

The many friends of Fred MacAusland were glad to welcome him and Mrs. MacAusland back to their home as Mr. MacAusland spent the winter in the Western Hospital while his wife stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Reggie MacAusland at the Mills, Bloomfield. Here's hoping the fine warm weather when it comes will return Mr. MacAusland to his usual health.

Miss Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cooke of Cape Wolfe, on March 31st celebrated her 16th birthday. For this happy occasion 24 of her friends and school mates were present.
