

THE EASTERN GUARDIAN

...IT PAYS to buy in this Province... T. GORDON IVES is Guardian agent in Montague.

...THE MORNING Guardian can be obtained in Souris at M. A. Panquet's.

...GEORGETOWN.— Services will be held in Holy Trinity Church, Georgetown, next Sunday at 11 and 7 p. m.

...MR. CARL McDONALD Guardian representative in Souris, will gladly receive subscriptions and advertising matter at the office of Undertaker Dingwell.

...TO HELP A GOOD CAUSE.— Everyone should attend the concert in the B. I. S. Hall, Souris, on Thursday evening. Good vocal and instrumental music and readings will be given.

...ENJOYABLE BAZAAR.— The Bazaar held by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church, Souris, on Friday evening proved to be an absolute success. Tea was served at five o'clock and at night fancy-work and ice-cream were sold after which the cakes were auctioned in his usual capable manner by Mr. Caleb Carleton. The Bazaar ended about ten thirty.

...LOYAL SOURIS.— An official despatch reached Souris this afternoon (Friday) to the effect that the right half of the 37th Battery of F. A. were to be issued with supplies and were to leave for the front on Wednesday. As Capt. McQuaid is in the Hospital, Lieut. J. Frank Sterns took charge of the Battery with Lieut. J. McEachern next in command. Great enthusiasm is exhibited, especially among certain members of the Bear River contingent who have been there before.

...WEDDING BELLS.— A very pretty wedding took place at St. Margaret's Church, Bear River on Monday July 27th, when Miss Katie MacPhee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil McPhee, Big Pond, became the bride of Mr. Joseph A. McDonald, Harmony Jet. The ceremony was performed by Rev. K. C. MacPherson, P.M., of that place in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride wore a suit of Big Pond's most popular young ladies, was handsomely costumed in a suit of Royal blue broadcloth with trimmings of a contrasting shade, and wore a white picture hat with ostrich plume and was attended by her cousin, Miss Lizzie McAlay, Souris, who also wore a suit in blue with a cream hat. The groom was ably supported by his cousin Mr. Frank Macdonald, Souris. After the marriage ceremony the happy couple and showers of rice and good wishes drove to the McInnis House, Souris, where dinner was served in Mrs. McInnis' usual grand style. About 5 p. m., accompanied by a number of friends and relatives of both bride and groom, they drove to the home of the bride where upwards of one hundred guests awaited them. After changing their costumes for the evening, the bride wearing a gown of white crepe with cream lace trimmings and pink satin girdle, and her maid cream with lace trimmings and blue satin girdle, they partook of a most sumptuous repast. The bride party then entered the dancing room where excellent violin music was furnished by Messrs Anselm and Frank Macdonald, Rock Barra, assisted by Allan McPhee, Elmira and Peter Claisson, Bear River. The bride and groom were the recipients of many useful and handsome presents including some very valuable pieces of silver-ware and cut glass, also some very substantial cheques from friends abroad. The Guardian joins with its many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald many long years of happy wedded life.
