

WEEK'S NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

ACCEPTS F. E. I. CALL - Rev. Arthur Organ, B.A., D.D., minister of the United Church at Jerusalem, Queens County, N. B., has accepted to become, P. E. I., to take effect June 30.

POPULAR HOSTESSES - A delightful bridge party was given by Mrs. John Cameron at her pretty apartment, 1914, before Judge Inman in the County Court Friday at Summerside, when the argument was heard. This is an action for $180.00 for negligent driving of a motor vehicle on the highway opposite the plaintiff's farm at Cascoque, when a mare weighing 1600 lbs. was killed by an automobile driven by the defendant. The judge stated he would give judgment at the first day of the March term at Alberton. Head Strong K.C. for plaintiff, J. Watson McNaught, Kensington, for defendant.

C. F. STAFF CORRESPONDENT - Mr. Ralph Morton, of the Canadian Press, Halifax, is taking over the duties of staff correspondent of the Canadian Press for this Province. His headquarters will be in Charlottetown where he will work in co-operation with the local newspapers. Mr. A. D. Merkel, Atlantic Superintendent of the Canadian Press who accompanied Mr. Morton to Charlottetown, returns to Halifax this morning.

CHARITY BRIDGE - Mrs. Harold Huestis entertained the ladies of St. Paul's Parish on Wednesday evening for twelve tables of bridge and auction. The prizes were won by Mrs. W. J. Sullivan and Mrs. Warren Pope for bridge; Mrs. J. L. Perry and Mrs. Joseph Hickey for auction. A program of music added to the enjoyment of the evening. At the conclusion of play a charity lunch was served. The proceeds were in aid of the poor.

MASQUERADE SKATE - A most successful masquerade skate sponsored by the Nurses' Alumnae of the City Hospital was held at the Arena rink Friday evening. A large number of skaters participated while a large number of promenaders enjoyed the sight of many vari-colored and original costumes and excellent music by the League of the Cross Band. The prize winners were as follows: 1 Miss Margaret Townshend (absent minded professor); 2 Miss Marion Cudmore (squaw and papoose); 3 Miss Gladys Craig (powder puff); 4 Miss Lighthouse (Indian); 5 Miss James Fraser (clown); 6 Mr. Robert Devereaux (Mounted Police). The door prize was won by Miss Mary Walsh.

EXHIBITION COURT - Mr. George M. Matthews, Magistrate for Prince County, held Court in Summerside on Friday. There were several cases before the Court. A man from St. Louis, Mo., was charged with infringement of the Customs Act, was found guilty and fined $50.00 and costs or one month in jail. A man from Palmer Road was tried for an offense under the Excise Act and fined $100.00 and costs or one month in jail. A case brought by the R. C. M. P. against a Summerside man for violation of the Prohibition Act, was dismissed. A case in which a man resident at Malpas was charged with wilfully wasting a tank of gasoline which was the property of the Department of Fisheries and had been left on the wharf, was tried by Mr. Matthews. The accused was alleged to have let the gas leak out. After hearing the evidence, the Magistrate returned a verdict of not guilty. Mr. Thane A. Campbell for the accused and Mr. W. Henry Noonan for the Crown.

F. STERNS, which was held yesterday afternoon, was very largely attended. The former city official at the residence of Mr. G. D. Wright conducted by Rev. Hugh Miller, Rev. J. M. MacLeod and Rev. Innes Fraser, Rector of St. George's Anglican Church, New Glasgow, N. S. At St. James Church the service was conducted by Rev. Innes Fraser, assisted by Rev. Fraser. The mourners were Mr. Ralph Sterns, Mr. Haldane Sterns, Mr. G. D. Wright, Mr. William Brehaut, Rev. Innes Fraser, Mr. Ernest Coffin, Mr. J. E. Sterns, Mr. George MacDonnell, Mr. Edward McKee, Dr. Ledwell, Mr. Harry Sterns, Dr. J. S. Jenkins, Mr. Stephen McMurrer.

PROMINENT FARMER - Many friends in Summerside learned with regret on Monday, Jan. 28th, of the passing of that day about 12.30 noon of Mr. Herbert Irving, a prominent resident and successful farmer of Hills River near Alberton. Mr. Irving had been ill for some time, but it was hoped that he would recover. He had resided all his life in Hills River and was most highly esteemed by all who knew him. There are left to cherish his memory, his widow, formerly Laura Champion; three sons, James, Kenneth and John; one daughter, Eleanor, all residing at home. James had been working in New Brunswick, but was called home on account of his father's illness. He arrived last Thursday. One brother, William of Alberton, and two sisters, Mrs. Elijah Gard and Miss Millicent Irving both of Mill River are also left to mourn. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

MARRIAGE - At Canoe Cove on Saturday evening Jan. 19th, by Rev. D. E. Ross, B.A., Frederick Melbourne MacPhail of Argyle Shore to Sarah Edith MacDonnell daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacDonnell. The marriage was at the hour of 7 o'clock P.M. in the presence of fifty invited guests. The room was charmingly decorated with silver and pink crepe trimmings and the marriage altar and white bells, formed a picture frame of charming beauty. The wedding march was played by Mrs. A. K. MacPhee of Charlottetown. The bride was given away by her father, and was tastefully dressed in silver blue corded crepe satin, with bouquet of pale pink chrysanthemums. The groom was supported by Archie MacDonnell and the bride by Miss Laura MacPhail, sister of the groom. After the solemn ceremony, the marriage certificates were signed, and the best wishes of all the guests were extended to the newly married couple, and all sat down to the marriage feast and to a happy evening of social fellowship. The bride's going away dress was of maroon tulle, with a train of tulle and lace. The happy pair will reside at Assise Shore. May they enjoy their life together.

RECEIVES TELEGRAM - Mr. John E. Holmes of this city received a telegram Friday from his sister Evangelina conveying the sad news of the death of her husband, Reginald R. Bell of Los Gatos, California.

COUSIN COURT - The case of Brenton Hudson vs. Bruce McNaught, tried at Alberton October 20th, was before Judge Inman in the County Court Friday at Summerside, when the argument was heard. This is an action for $180.00 for negligent driving of a motor vehicle on the highway opposite the plaintiff's farm at Cascoque, when a mare weighing 1600 lbs. was killed by an automobile driven by the defendant. The judge stated he would give judgment at the first day of the March term at Alberton. Head Strong K.C. for plaintiff, J. Watson McNaught, Kensington, for defendant.

DEATH OF WM. J. O'LEARY - The death of William J. O'Leary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry O'Leary, Richibucto, well-known in Saint John, occurred recently at his home in Dayton, Ohio, where he was employed as an electrical engineer. He was a brother of Most Rev. Henry J. O'Leary, Archbishop of Edmonton, the late Bishop L. O'Leary of Charlottetown and Fred O'Leary of Campbellton. He was a half brother of the late Richard O'Leary, Richibucto; Mrs. George V. McInerney, Saint John, and Arthur O'Leary, Richibucto. The funeral was held in Dayton. (New Freeman, St. John).

WINS BIRTHDAY CAKE - Mrs. P. Martin, 240 Grafton St., was the lucky winner of Moore & McLeod's Anniversary Cake. Although only one prize was advertised, two additional names were drawn and were awarded consolation prizes. The second prize, a pair of Madeira embroidered napkins, was won by Mrs. Butler, 106 D'Archer St., and the third prize, a ladies' purse, was won by Mrs. Callaghan, 69 Richmond St. The drawing was done by Mrs. Nellie Macdonell, 72 Richmond St. Mr. Arthur Gaudet, of the Patriot, and Mr. Ian Burnett of The Guardian acted as scrutineers. The drawing took place at 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon in the ladies' department on a ground floor. A large number of interested spectators were on hand to witness the drawing. About 3,000 tickets were entered.
