Crushing Crime In Chicago

(Canadian Press)
CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 21.—Chicago's anti-crime campaigners looked back last night on a year of work and pronounced themselves confident that organized crime had been crushed.
To the Chicago crime commission and the "secret six," backed by wealthy and influential citizens was given most of the credit. A vigilant federal government and a militant press were given as the other factors.
Reorganization of the Chicago police force, the conviction of Al Capone on income tax charges, and enactment of legislation directed against gangsters, said Frank J. Loesch, president of the crime commission, has left the criminal begonia.
"Organized law enforcement having a murder charge, and nine ... with organized crime," under police surveillance. Two were said Loesch, "and we have won. The gangster has been conquered."

The "secret six," backed by the vast resources of the Chicago Association of Commerce, agreed with the crime commission that a victory has been won. But, said Alexander G. Jamie, head of the organization, the job is not finished.
"Al Capone is in jail, his brother Ralph is in jail," said Jamie, "and so are Jack Guzik and others. They were the men most capable of leading, but there are others. We can get those remaining into prisons—and we will."
The crime commission pointed with pride to the original list of 28 "public enemies" drawn up near a year ago. Five of them are in prison. Loesch pointed out, two are awaiting sentence, two awaiting sentencing, one awaiting deportation, two involved in deportation proceedings, four fugitives from justice, one facing

Readjustment Of Finances

(Canadian Press)
MONTREAL, Que., Dec. 21.—Negotiations between Sir Percy Thompson, British treasury expert, and Canadian Banks, leading to the rehabilitation of Newfoundland finances, are continuing.

emanating from Newfoundland that the negotiations had been suspended were denied last night by R. J. Magor, who was in Newfoundland with Sir Percy in the interests of the commerce and industry of that country.
Word has reached Montreal that Mr. Penson, Sir Percy's associate in the treasury department, had left Newfoundland on Saturday after consulting with Sir Richard Squires, and was bound for Montreal. Neither Sir Percy Thompson nor Mr. Magor had heard of this move and Mr. Penson's authenticity of the news on the ground that Mr. Penson would have communicated with either Sir Percy or himself before starting for Montreal.
Little man (in restaurant): Excuse me—do you happen to be Clarence Lutt, of Westmount?
Big man: No, I do not.
Little man: Oh, er—well you see I do, and that's his new raincoat you're putting on.

Civil Servants Offer Help

(Canadian Press)
TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 21.—Hon. W. H. Price, acting provincial Premier, last night told the Canadian Press Ontario civil servants had passed a resolution offering to donate portions of their salaries as a contribution to further the government's economy plan.
The scale of contributions proposed by the civil servants would run from two per cent on $1,000 salaries to 24 per cent of the highest salaries in the service.
Col. Price said the proposal would be submitted to Premier George S. Henry. At the same time he praised the civil servants for what he described as a "willing and generous gesture."
The contributions by the provincial employees would extend from the new year to next October, and at the end of the ten months' period their salaries would return to normal. The sum they would turn back to the provincial treasury would amount to a little more than $500,000 of the $5,000,000 to $7,000,000 retrenchment which Hon. William Finlayson's Cabinet Committee on economy recommends.

On his way home from school Tommie looked sad and worried. A sympathetic old lady inquired the cause of his trouble.
"Dyspepsia and rheumatism," explained Tommie.
"O, surely not," said the old lady, "how can that be?"
"Teacher caned me because I couldn't spell them," answered the sad-eyed lad—Texas State Dept of Health.
"But surely you didn't tell him straight out that you loved him?"
"Goodness, no! He had to squeeze it out of me!"
