SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON XIII. MARCH 27. REVIEW.

Golden Text: "Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of disease among the people."—Matt 4:23.

POINTED SUGGESTIONS.
By Rev. D. W. Snider.

Jesus, "preaching the gospel of the kingdom." The Golden Text for the quarter is supplemented for today (Easter Sunday, with a lesson on Jesus and the Resurrection. But as other opportunities await the study of that most triumphant of all themes, it will be well to engage ourselves at present in the improving exercise of review. It may be a stimulus to do it with the joyous thought in our minds that Jesus has risen.

Earnestness is a mark of the genuine preacher. John the Baptist, without a doubt, was thoroughly in earnest. And why not? If the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand and men are not ready for it because of their sins, and they are also unmindful of their sins because of their pride, what but desperate earnestness will arouse them with its thrilling command to repent?

Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. But woe to the man who comes to his testing time with a soul unprepared, unguarded, unfortified. Jesus employed nothing in His resistance of temptation which is not always available, and as definitely the property of the consecrated heart as it was of the Master.

Unlike the non-Christian religions of the Orient, the gospel of the kingdom knows no caste and it permits of none. The disciples whom Jesus calls are to go into all the world and to every creature. Early in His gracious ministry it is declared "the people that sat in darkness saw a great light."

Salvation without blessedness could not make a heaven. To be saved though as by fire is not the desire of any true follower of Jesus. Nor does humility bear any relation to such an unworthy aim. The Christian privilege is blessedness, which is far superior to happiness (as commonly conceived), but at the price of being something and doing something worthy of faith.

"I say unto you." Therein is the

THE BEST REMEDY

For Women—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Belleville, Ont.—"I was so weak and worn out from a female weakness that I concluded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took several bottles of it, and I gained strength so rapidly that it seemed to make a new woman of me. I can do as good a day's work as I ever did. I sincerely bless the day that I made up my mind to take your medicine for female weakness, and I am exceedingly grateful to you for your kind letters, as I certainly profited by them. I give you permission to publish this any time you wish."—Mrs. ALBERT WICKERT, Belleville, Ontario, Canada.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will cure female weakness and so successfully carry women through the Change of Life as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

For 30 years it has been curing women from the worst forms of female ills—inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and nervous prostration.

If you want special advice write for it to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

Final authority for the Christian. Not what any other law-giver has said, but what Jesus says. Who but God only may thus speak?

Simplicity is a mark of true devotion. Ostentation betrays the hypocrite. Reward awaits the service that would willingly go unrewarded. But the treasure-houses which are behind love are always the largest.

Ruling the character in righteousness involves looking at things from the other fellow's angle. And measuring one's wealth requires that accounts for two worlds be opened up. A golden rule for conduct and a golden measuring rod for possessions means that they be clipped from the beams of the shining of divine righteousness.

In the sayings of Jesus is found the rock of character. He is the authoritative teacher. What folly to expect to meet the storms of life on any side of the grave without having built the fabric of character out of and upon such rock!

Select the specimens of faith to which Jesus lent His admiration for your example. There is nothing truckling in the centurion's idea of it. Faith with him is sure footed as a peddler.

"Even the devils are subject unto us in Thy name." Luke 10:17. Jesus gives power to His followers to do the things which He does, and even greater. Why should a Christian say, therefore, he has such a hard time with his temper? Cast it out.

Never despair of accomplishing that which is good wherever Jesus is come-at-able if by any means we can get those in trouble to Jesus, blessing is sure to follow.
