Join the LUX DAILY DIPPER

Don't sneak into yesterday's undies of a morning and hope for the best. You're risking popularity if you do!

Things worn next your skin absorb perspiration. Worn a second day, they develop unpleasant undie odor. Be sure of daintiness by dipping your undies in Lux every night, soon as you take them off. Lux removes every hint of odor. It keeps daintiness safe—keeps delicate fabrics lovely as new. So soak your daily dipping tonight!

Shut Out To Give Alsab Run In Belmont

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK.—Following Alsab's smashing victory in the Withers Mile, Ben James remarked: "I've never seen anything like it on a race track."

That was a fine compliment to prove himself the champion—

Al Sabat gets smack from Alsab—for a change.

coming from Plain Ben James. He is only the trainer of a horse named Whirlaway.

When Alsab ran away from the field in 1:36 1-5, eased up and not pressed the last quarter of a mile, track record and the best time of a 3-year-old championship sowed up.

What were not whipped like Shut Out, Devil Diver and Re-nested were unsovereign like Sun Again.

So it was a great break for Army and Navy Day, June 6, Sabath.

Some of the old-timers contend the Sabath lack dignity the way they whip it up. Following the Good Goods charger's triumph everybody in the vicinity gets a big smack from the entire company track record and the best time of the meeting.

Personally, I like this kind of stuff. Why not enjoy a good horse when you've got one? There isn't nearly enough enthusiasm on the turf. Most of it is caused by commercial or cloaked by athletic dignity.

As I have asked before: Why do they expect Albert Sabath to do with a horse that cost $100 and which has won $197,575?

Lock him in his basement!

ROUVER SHUT OUT IS A WORTHY FOE

Working the rest of the way under Eddie Arcaro, the Kentucky Derby winner completed a triple and a quarter in 2:02 1-5, faster than the time of the winner of the 1941 Suburban.

Shut Out is a rarer, all right and once more Alsab is required.

After the various reports had been heard Rev. Mr. Stricker brought greetings to the convention from the Presbytery. Then he introduced the guest speaker for the evening Rev. W.S. Godfrey from Sackville. Mr. Godfrey is the Merit and Secretary of Religious Education and Home Missions.
