THE Sydney Post says: At 9 o'clock last evening word was sent to the police station of a fracas on the Bark Aquilla lying at Ingraham's wharf. The mate it was charged was somewhat "over the bay", and was taking charge of things in a manner very discomfiting to his friends. Chief McEachern, accompanied by officers McPhail, McLean and McDonald went to the scene, but Mr. Mate armed himself with a formidable looking broad axe and retreated into his bunk, whence he sent word that he would resist any effort on the part of the police to arrest him. Shortly afterward he peacefully fell asleep, and the police decided that he was no longer dangerous and left in peace for the night.

TELEPHONE GIRL GETS MILLIONS

E. R. Whitney, the Aged Canadian Millionaire, Who Married Miss Bennett a Few Months Ago, is Dead.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—E. R. Whitney, the aged Canadian millionaire, is dead, and Anna Bennett, his 22-year-old wife, who only a few months ago was a telephone "central" at the Grand Union Hotel at a salary of $8 or $10 a week, has today a dower right at least in an estate variously estimated to be worth from $15,000,000 to $50,000,000.

News of the millionaire's death reached here yesterday from the White Mountains, where his wife took him early in July to try to save his life. Mr. Whitney and Miss Bennett were married in St. Cecilia's church, Brooklyn, Sunday, May 7. As a marriage settlement, Mr. Whitney gave his bride $100,000, and, in addition to that $15,000 for her trousseau. A cheque for $500 and a diamond sunburst were her wedding tokens.
