Gaynor And Farrell Are Superb In "The Man Who Came Back"

Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell are re-united in the best talking picture roles of their careers in Raoul Walsh's Fox Movietone production of "The Man Who Came Back," which had its opening performance at the Prince Edward Theatre yesterday.

Both young stars rise to heights of histrionic endeavor surpassing their great performances in "7th Heaven." While "The Man Who Came Back" is an entirely different sort of picture, it gives both Miss Gaynor and Farrell even greater opportunity to reveal their flair for dramatic acting.

The story, a modernized version of the famous stage play by Jules Eckert Goodman and John Fleming Wilson, is a powerful one of regeneration. Briefly, it tells of the ruin of the only son of one of New York's richest men, through having too much money to spend and little moral stability.

When he is forced out into the world on his own resources, he rapidly goes down hill until he finally ends in the lowest dive in Shanghai. There he meets a little cabaret singer. A tiny spark of love is kindled into flame, and together they fight their way back to the sunlight.

Miss Gaynor gives an inspired characterization of the cabaret singer whose love, faith and courage bring about the regeneration of Farrell, who plays the role of the ne'er-do-well perfectly.

The direction by Raoul Walsh is as fine as anything he ever has done. He has drained every ounce of drama and romance possible from this great story. William Holden does a brilliant piece of acting as the irascible Wall Street financier, Kenneth MacKenna, as the "menace," reveals unusual ability in his big scenes. Other roles are well handled by Mary Forbes, Ulrich Haupt, William Worthington, Peter Gawthorne and Leslie Fenton.

"The Man Who Came Back" certainly will be on every list of the best pictures of the year.

YES, NEW ACADIA—The still referred to by a correspondent was seized in New Acadia as first printed and not elsewhere, as stated by this writer. It was located about one-half mile North and one-quarter mile East of St. Charles Station in the district known as New Acadia. I understand that no one has been accused of the ownership of this still, as it was found in the woods on property, the owner of which resides in Pennsylvania. The suspected party is a resident of New Acadia.

WELL KNOWN TRAVELER DEAD—The death of A. B. MacLeod, Smith Avenue, Truro, N. S., occurred suddenly at his home on March 6th. He had been ill for a week with an attack of acute indigestion, but had recovered and had packed his grip preparatory to making a trip at the first of the week. He was resting on the lounge in the sitting room, when his wife, who was in the kitchen, heard him make a peculiar noise. She went to his side, reaching him just before he expired. Mr. MacLeod was a native of Prince Edward Island. Besides his wife, he is survived by one daughter, Muriel, who only that morning left for Sydney to do relief work in the hospital; one son, Nelson; one brother left Truro a week ago for British Columbia.—Truro News.

Delightful Drama At The Capitol

Mary Nolan finds an ideal vehicle for her exotic beauty and remarkable dramatic talents in "Young Desire," Universal's colorful romantic drama, which opened at the Capitol Theatre yesterday.

The primary function of motion pictures is to present characters so real and human that the audience is vitally interested in their fates. In addition to its other virtues, "Young Desire" scores pre-eminently on this basis.

"Young Desire" is a poignant romantic drama of an extremely colorful aspect. Much of its action is laid in the bizarre atmosphere of a carnival. It has a dramatic story to tell, and it drives straight ahead to a tremendously powerful conclusion, always increasing in interest and suspense as it proceeds.

Mary Nolan gives a remarkable performance, certain to fortify her position as one of the great dramatic actresses of the screen. Her exotic beauty and her exceptional talents alone would stamp "Young Desire" as a film far above the ordinary. A cast that would add prestige to any picture supports Miss Nolan. Her leading man is William Janney, youthful in years but already a veteran where stage and screen experience are concerned. Janney is ideally cast and gives a splendid portrayal. Mae Busch, in an important part, displays all the ability that made her one of the outstanding stars of the screen. Excellent work also is done by Ralf Harolde, George Irving and Claire McDowell.

KENSINGTON AND VICINITY

The condition of Dr. E. G. Gillis who has been quite ill, is considerably improved, but it will be quite a while before the Dr. will be able to attend to his large practice. Miss Hazel Adams, R.N., has been caring for the Dr. in her usual competent manner.

The many friends of Miss Gertrude Buntain, nurse-in-training at the P. E. I. Hospital who has been ill at her home for several weeks, are pleased to know that she is much better and hope that with the advent of warmer weather she will be quite recovered again.

Mr. Robert Coulson of Charlottetown was a visitor to this town this week. Mr. Coulson purchased a fine property on the Margate Road in October last, and he and Mrs Coulson intend coming there to live sometime during the coming summer.

Miss Lillian Pidgeon, Matron of Prince County Hospital, spent Sunday last here at her home with her parents, Mr and Mrs W. A. Pidgeon. Mr Pidgeon who was ill in the early part of the winter is still confined to the house but his general health is very much improved.

An evening of rare interest and pleasure was enjoyed by those who ventured through the snowdrifts of Thursday evening March 5th to hear the illustrated lecture given by Rev. A. W. Banfield on Missionary work in the Ivory Coast, West Africa. The subject of his lecture was the life and work of William Harris a native African, called of God to go and baptize in His name. Harris went out with nothing but his Bible, travelling great distances on foot and preaching and persuading thousands of people to turn from their idolatry to the worship of the true God. His converts suffered great persecution their churches were burned, and every effort was made to stamp out their religion but they remained faithful. Mr. Banfield in his work for the British and Foreign Bible Society had personal knowledge of many of these Harris converts. Mr. Banfield has been a missionary in Africa for nearly thirty years; he has been Bible Society Secretary and engaged in translation work for the past fourteen years. In spite of living under trying climatic conditions in Western Equatorial Africa for so long he is still in the prime of life and is a vigorous and forceful speaker who held the attention of his audience from start to finish of his address. The lantern slides were made from photographs taken by Mr. Banfield himself. The lecture was held in the Assembly Hall of the United Church. Dr. Saint manipulated the lantern slides and the pictures were beautifully clear. Mr. J. A. Thompson, Pres. of the Kensington Bible Branch acted as chairman. Mr. Banfield while here was the guest of Rev. Mr. and Mrs Spriggs at the Rectory.

Mrs Jessie Jardine was a visitor to Summerside on Friday the guest of Mr and Mrs A. E. MacLean.

Mr and Mrs MacLean passed through here on Saturday morning on their way to Ottawa.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, March 9.—The Canadian Metal Products Company, of Guelph, Ont., affiliated with the Republic Steel Corporation, has been sold to the Burlington Steel Company, Limited, it was learned here today.

The Canadian company was a subsidiary of Steel and Tubes, Inc., which is a subsidiary of Republic. The Guelph plant ceased operations last week and possession was at once taken by the Burlington concern, which plans to move the equipment to its Hamilton, Ont., plant immediately.

Burlington has a rail-steel splitting and rolling mill at Hamilton, Ont., with an annual capacity of 50,000 tons of rounds, flats and squares. It now proposes to add butted and braced hard steel tubing for the bedstead and fence trade.

The change means that a considerable tonnage which heretofore has been rolled in Ohio and finished in Guelph now will be rolled and finished complete in Canada. The change in the Canadian tariff is said to be responsible for the move.

The funeral of the late Michael Keenan which left his residence at Georgetown Royal on Thursday, March 5th was largely attended. Services at the church and cemetery were conducted by Rev. O. Provincial Meet

It is expected that when the full entry list is in hand, upwards of four hundred competitors will have signified their intentions of taking part in the Provincial Interscholastic Indoor Ice Meet, which is being staged at the Forum next Friday night. From now until Friday the Forum will be at the disposal of all competitors who wish to "brush up" in preparation for his or her event. Mr. Arthur Gaudet, at one time Eastern Canada's premier speed skater, has generously consented to be on hand daily to help in the training of aspirants. Mr. Gaudet is well versed in the mysteries of the flashing blades, and all those who can possibly attend the work-outs should not miss this opportunity of being taught the proper way to "take the corners", "getting away fast with the gun", "pace making," etc.

Gillette Pleased

Mr. Bill Gillette, "father" of the idea and promoter of the big Ice Meet, is literally tickled pink over the enthusiasm and wholehearted cooperation manifested by the citizens of Charlottetown. Entries are pouring in by the dozens, stated Bill, and by the time Friday rolls around every event will be filled to capacity.

Afternoon and Evening

In order to assure a successful conclusion to each and every event on the program, it has been decided to start the opening race at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon with the continuation of the program getting away at 7 o'clock.

To say that every event will be hotly contested is putting it mildly. All entrants knowing that winners will be recorded as Island Champions, will no doubt make every effort to win their respective races. A very efficient board of officials will look after all the details in connection with the running of the events, therefore all may rest assured that things will go like clockwork when the big day (Friday) arrives.

Hard Luck, Amherst!

Another hockey upset, so far as goal score is concerned, was registered by the Truro Bears last night in their first playdown with the Ramblers on Amherst ice. The "Cats" minus the services of Jemmett, Shields and their star goals, Sargent, stepped into the "Busy Town" hockeyists to the tune of 4 to nil. This count, coming as it does so soon after the Bathurst-Amherst games, has the fans open-mouthed with surprise and wonderment. Not one person in the province by the sea would have bet a Soviet ruble that Truro would take Amherst by such a score in their home rink. However, these days of upsets and tumbles, anything is likely to happen. Amherst, although still in the running, stand a slim chance of beating Truro five goals in their next and final meeting. They put up a great fight, and deserve every praise and commendation; should they be eliminated, it is likely they will appear here against Abegweit in an exhibition fixture early next week—possibly Tuesday. Should Amherst make the trip, it is a safe bet that the Forum will enjoy its biggest crowd of the season. All season long, local fans have been wondering just how the rejuvenated Abegweits would look against the Amherstians. Perhaps all and sundry will get their chance—and when they do, they will see the greatest local hockey classic of the year.

Be At Forum Early

Tomorrow night—is the night. Prince Street School annual ice sports composed of a bang-up program will get away at 7.30 in one of the biggest and best lists ever offered. There will be a gigantic crowd attending tomorrow night, therefore come early.

The Game Tonight

Borden Nationals and Montague Imperials will arrive in the city this afternoon by special trains accompanied by hundreds of fans from the respective centres to cheer their teams on to victory in a sudden death game which takes place at the Forum tonight. Tonight's game will decide which team meets the Victoria Unions for the intermediate championship of Prince Edward Island and the right to represent the Province in the Maritime play-downs.

In the old days, sport writers nearly always promised a great sheet of ice for an important fixture, but this has ceased to be a conjecture and is now a reality—there's always a perfect sheet of ice at the Forum. So let's all go and watch the "Nats" and "Imps" fight it out.

Trophy to be Presented

Mr. E. W. Robinson, donor of the trophy for the Prince Edward Island and Hockey Championship has informed The Guardian that he will present the trophy to the Crystal Ramblers on Amherst ice, on Friday this year's champions, on Friday at the Crystal rink before the game with the Prince County team. Mr. Robinson regrets the controversy that arose in the press on account of the cup not being available on the night of the Crystal-Amherst banquet. The Abegweit Club had done their part in sending the trophy very carefully packed, on February 22nd but owing to the tie-up on the railway it did not reach Summerside Amherst by such a score in their

Or piles are quickly relieved by Dr. Chase's Ointment

It is a serious matter to have piles and one person in four has them at one time or another. The annoyance and distress is great. It is difficult to obtain lasting relief. So much so that a surgical operation may be considered necessary. That is unless your physician is familiar with Dr. Chase's Ointment for many doctors recommend this treatment to their patients.

For nearly half a century Dr. Chase's Ointment has been the never-failing relief for itching, bleeding and protruding piles. It is now very generally known by the medical profession, and the public generally, as the standard treatment for this torturing ailment.

Ask your friends about Dr. Chase's Ointment for "users are boosters" in this case. Relief comes quickly and you can obtain the ointment at any drug store.
