MILLVIEW S. S. PRESENTATION

On Sunday, Dec. 26th the pupils of the Millview Sunday School waited on Mr. Franklin Jenkins, their Superintendent and presented him with a beautiful ebony canteen and address, which shows the high esteem in which he is held by his pupils.

Following is the address: Dear Mr. Jenkins: As this festive season approaches also the close of Sunday School for the season, we the pupils and teachers of the school feel that we cannot let the occasion pass without in some way expressing our appreciation of your untiring efforts in our behalf.

We feel that we owe you a great debt for your never failing interest in the Sunday School, as both by precept and example you have always been an inspiration to us to do our best, but we know that we fall far short of the example you set for us, however we feel that ship will bring forth good fruit in its time and will have a good effect in our future lives, and we hope that for many years to come that the Master in whose service you are working will give you health and strength to carry on the good work. We would also wish to thank you for taking care of our physical comfort as well, for no page of the weather, you are always here to those healthy conditions without which there can be no comfort for the child, or hope of robust growth.

In conclusion we would ask you to please accept this small gift as terminator.

BANGOR SCHOOL EXAMINATION The semi-annual examination of the Bangor school was held on Thursday, December 23, 1926, with a large number of parents and visitors present. The pupils were examined in the several subjects by their teacher, Jennie Dingwell, assisted by Mr. John McDougal. When the program was completed, different classes were presented with prizes, also prizes awarded for perfect attendance after which the teacher was read an address, and to the pupils and ratepayers of the district. After Santa Claus made his appearance and unloaded his tree, all were treated to candy. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem. (Patriot please copy.)
