

Preserving?

Putting up preserves is a much simpler job when you use an SMP Enamelled Ware Preserving Kit—dippers, cullenders, preserving kettles, ladles, cups, funnels and all. No metal can touch the cooking preserves to cause any injurious chemical action. And SMP Enamelled vessels wash up in a jiffy—just like china. Ask the hardware merchant for

THE NEW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH at Murray's Corner, N. B., in the Congregation of which Rev. Theo. Ross is the Minister, was dedicated and opened last Sunday 19th. There were three services at which there were large gatherings. Rev. Mr. Ross was in charge. Rev. Mr. Fraser of Truro, N. S., was the morning preacher. Rev. Mr. Fisher of Sackville, in the afternoon and Rev. E. S. Weeks, Bayfield, N. B., (Methodist) was the speaker in the evening. The addresses of the day were very much appreciated.

FINE NEW STUDIO.—The music studio of Prof. Fletcher is now situated in the Hartz Memorial Hall, with entrance on Richmond Street, and this situation it is believed will prove very convenient to pupils as well as in connection with his duties as organist of the Methodist Church. The room now occupied by the studio has been considerably enlarged and a splendid new Heintzman Piano has been installed.

POLICE COURT.—At the Police Court yesterday morning one drunk was fined $5.00 or twenty days. A second was dismissed, it being his first offence. A third who did not put in an appearance had his bail bond of $20.00 estreated. An adjourned case against an offender against the Prohibition Act was further adjourned. A second case against another offender was dismissed. A young man for vagrancy was given three months, without the option of a fine.

RESUMES DUTIES.—Mr. Dominick Ryan, Purser of the Car Ferry, who has been enjoying his holidays resumes his duties today. Mr. Ryan has been forty-five years in the steamship service between the Island and the mainland. He began his career in the days of the side wheelers and has continued it ever since. All will agree that Mr. Ryan is an ideal purser. Capable and always courteous, he is widely known to the travelling public and all have a good word to say for the way he discharges his responsible duties. Although so long in the service, Mr. Ryan is still hale and hearty and his hosts of friends everywhere will join with us in the hope that he has many years of usefulness still before him.

FUNERAL NOTICE.—The remains of Mrs. Jas. Callaghan, who died at New Glasgow, N. S., August 26th, will arrive by Borden train Tuesday night. Funeral from the residence of her son E. A. Callaghan, 8 Chestnut Street on Wednesday morning at 8.45 to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to R. C. Cemetery.

The Picture Magnificent!

Carl Lzemmler takes pleasure in presenting

PRISCILLA DEAN

as Cigarette, the Daughter of the Regiment, in the romantic story of adventure and thrill that will live forever—

"Under Two Flags"

From the immortal novel by OUIDA
Directed by TOD BROWNING

THE CAST

Cigarette	PRISCILLA DEAN
Victor	James Kirkwood
Ben Ali Hamed	John Davidson
Marquis de Chateauroux	Stuart Holmes
The Colonel	W. H. Bainbridge
Princess d'Amague	Fred Cavens
7,000 horsemen—3,000 Arabs—4,200 soldiers
The Famous Oriental Ballet
Thousands of extra players, etc.

THE STORY

Victor, a derelict in Algiers, shakes dice with Cigarette, the Daughter of the Regiment, to determine whether he shall fight with France or with her enemies, the Arabs. Cigarette wins and subsequently learns to love the quietly forceful Victor, who is a man of mystery. Princess d'Amague arrives from England at the height of the intrigue against the Chasseurs promoted by the Arab Sheikh Ben Ali Hamed, and it is revealed that Victor is in reality a British nobleman. His favor with the Princess earns him the hatred of his colonel, who conspires to have him shot for treason. Cigarette, apparently accepting the advances of her enemy, the Sheikh, learns of this and riding wildly with a stay of execution, arrives just at the crest of the Arab attack. What follows both in the way of stupendous action and beautiful love scenes helps to make this a picture that will live forever in the memory of all who see it.
