Instant Relief from

Headache

"Hurry Zutoo Tablets. Everybody wants them. They give almost instant relief from headache. All who use them tell me the same story."

The above message was received from a well known merchant of Grantley, Ont.

Flattering to Zutoo Tablets, is it not?

And yet, if you have tried these tablets, you know that the words of that message are true.

If you have not tried them, you have yet to experience how quickly they will cure any kind of headache, and how bright and well they will always leave you feeling.

We will send samples for nothing.

PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Summerside, Fred. Tanton, Manager; and in Alberton, Herbert Clark, Manager.

—Daniel Steele left on a trip to Boston Saturday.

—Miss Pearl Ramsay was a passenger by the Empress to Halifax on Saturday.

—Miss Bernadette Perry left Saturday for Roxbury Mass after spending the summer with friends in Miscouche.

—30 laborers wanted on Summerside Waterworks. Apply to D. R. Morrison, contractor, Summerside. 10-29dr1w.

—Josheph Buote who received injuries by falling from a roof which he was shingling one day last week is still confined to his house. His injuries are internal and he is yet in a serious condition.

—October 27th was Missionary Day on the Bedeque Circuit. Four weeks had been taken in preparation for it. The congregation of Bedeque, Searletown and Cape Traverse, contributed about $180. Other amounts will come in later.

—Friends of The Guardian in Prince County are asking what has happened to some of the correspondents, as there is no news from certain sections. The Guardian cannot have a man everywhere so friends should send in news as often as possible.

—The Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of Bedeque had a Thanksgiving service on the 31st October. It was largely attended. Chas. D. Wright presided. Mrs. J. R. Davison and Mrs. P. Affleck read reports of convention. Rev. H. Johnson gave an address. The collection was liberal.

—A. A. Lefurgey, M. P. will hold public meetings as follows:—Kinkora hall, Tuesday 5th, Cape Traverse hall, Wednesday 6th, Centreville Irish hall, Thursday 7th, Tryon, Lord's hall, Friday 8th; Malpeque Hall, Saturday 9th. The meetings will be held at 7.30 p. m. All are invited to be present. 11-4imth2irtuw2i —On Thanksgiving Day the Baptist and Methodist Churches, Summerside, held a union Thanksgiving Service in the Methodist Church. An eloquent sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Crowell (Baptist minister). He said amongst the many things people in this Province should give thanks for, one was "The Tunnel that is to come". Referring to this a correspondent writes; "When the preachers take hold of the question with faith as Rev. Mr Crowell showed, I think you will yet be able to have a trip through the tunnel before you pass off the stage of action."

—At the residence of William and Mrs. Dennis, Margate, on Oct. 30th the marriage was solemnized of their daughter Florence to Wesley Heaney of Clinton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Gough. George Mayne acted as groomsman and Miss May Dennis, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid. About thirty persons were present, the immediate relatives of bride and groom. A delightful supper was spread for the guests. The bride will be much missed in Margate, where she has a large circle of friends and relatives. Mr. Heaney is one of the industrious and progressive farmers of Clinton and is to be congratulated on his estimable partner.

—The residence of Rev. L. A. McLean 14 Richmond St. John, was the scene of a very pretty but quiet wedding on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 30 at 4.30 p. m. when Robert A. Stavert, Wilmot Valley, P. E. I. was united in marriage to Miss Lucy Alma Moase, Kensington, P. E. I. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, Harcourt, N. B. cousin of the groom. Promptly at the appointed hour the bride came into the room leaning on the arm of her father Robert L. Moase, Kensington. The young couple were unattended. The bride was very becomingly dressed in white marquisette with bridal veil and forget-me-nots. The going away gown was of brown cloth with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Stavert left on Thursday for their future home in Wilmot Valley, P. E. I.

Minard's Liniment Cures Distemper.

"Dusterless Brushes" the greatest sweeping device of the age, get one from Cameron & Co.

—Capt. M. Dunn cleared by the Empress yesterday, going to Boston.

—There were 70 passengers going and 3 returning by the S. S. Empress yesterday

—Full set of band instruments for sale at a bargain. Write to box 257, Summerside. 10-30d10i

—Mrs. T. H. Hacker, will be at home to her friends on Thursday and Friday the 7th and 8th November.

—There was included in the cargo by the Empress yesterday 630 lambs, 300 bags oats, 400 brls oysters, 200 cases eggs.

—Mrs. (Judge) McLeod, and Revs. W. and J. Townsend were passengers from Summerside to Point Du Chene yesterday.

—Kentford and Mrs. Waite, of Wilmot, spent Thanksgiving at Pleasant Valley, the guests of Mrs. Waite's mother, Mrs. Henry Murray.

—Do you need glasses? If so come in and see us. We examine each eye separately and then both together which ensures perfect vision. Every pair of glasses is warranted to give satisfaction—W. W. Crue, Graduate Optician.

—Fred Tanton, law student, Summerside with headquarters for the present in Currie's Bookstore, will be glad to receive news and advertising for "The Prince County Guardian," as well as new and renewal subscriptions for the "Morning Daily" and the "Rural Daily." Telephone connection.

—Owing to the enormous amount of time and expense necessary in bookkeeping and making out small accounts as well as mailing and collecting same, The Guardian has decided that in future all ordinary amounts under one dollar will be accepted on a cash in advance basis and ten per cent discount given, except to those who have a regular advertising account who will still have the privilege of monthly credit.

—Fairyland will present a great big programme this evening, five splendid pictures, of which there is so much that can be said, that space will not permit. Cast Up By The Sea, is the headliner, and a dandy it is too, telling the story of a fisherman and his wife, who bereft suddenly of their first little baby, were inconsolable. At this time as if by a miracle a vessel became wrecked near their little cottage, and among those washed ashore and rescued by the fisherman is a mother and little baby girl. The former does not survive the terrible experience, and the fisherman and his wife, believing it to be a gift from heaven, adopt the little baby girl as their own. Another sea story, though entirely different is Saved From The Wreck, which shows a great ocean liner on the rocks off the West Coast of England. This picture is a revelation to those who have never seen a wreck, and very few have had this painful experience. The comics are fine too, being, The Blindman's Dog, Charlie Paints and Baby Cries. Don't miss this fine programme and a new illustrated song.

HANDKERCHIEFS.

Women's embroidered handkerchiefs. One of the best handkerchief sales we ever held—there are dozens and dozens beautifully embroidered by hand. Indeed, we get these handkerchiefs as a clearance from the importer who found he could not get any more to sell even for the regular prices. They are pure linen, all pretty patterns, many with scalloped edges and some combining dainty machine embroidered with the hand embroidery. 25c, 30c, and 35c, each. James Paton & Co.
