Read what Mr. H. Hughes, Little Bras D'Or, N.S., has to say about Buckley's Mixture: "Some weeks ago I had gripe and was too sick to get up or take anything but cold water. I tried several remedies without any benefit. At last I tried Buckley's Mixture and after a few doses could eat something and continued to improve every day. I cannot praise your Mixture too much."

We have thousands of similar unsolicited testimonials on file, telling how quickly Buckley's Mixture stops the cough, softens phlegm, eases breathing, clears the head, helps rid sufferers of coughs and colds. Don't experiment. Buy Buckley's.

Songs Of War-Time

Melodies to Which the "Boys" May March.

What will be the popular marching song of the present war?

Miss Gracie Fields is one of the first among the sponsors of such songs and her great popularity will ensure a welcome for "Wish Me Luck," which she terms the "national cheer-up song."

The chorus runs as follows:—"Wish me luck, as you wave me good-bye."

Cherrie! Here I go, on my way. Wish me luck, as you wave me good-bye, with a cheer, not a tear, make it gay.

Give me a smile I can keep all the while. In my heart while I'm away. Till we meet once again, you and I. Wish me luck, as you wave me good-bye."

It is doubtful, however, if this or any other soldier's song will achieve the amazing popularity that "Tipperary" attained in the 1914-18 war. It was not that the song had any special lyrical or musical merits.

Sir Philip Gibbs, who was one of the best-known of the correspondents in that war, has related how it reached France in 1914.

Describing the arrival of the British soldiers, he wrote:—"For the first time there rang out in France the foolish ballad 'Tipperary' which has become, by a queer freak, the war song of the British Army."

"A Long, Long Trail"

"Tipperary" soon had rivals, and men who took part in the campaign will remember the gusto which inspired to favourites such as "There's a long, long trail a-winding," "Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag," "Hello, hello, who's your lady friend?" "Who were you with last night?" and "Mademoiselle from Armentieres."

Nowadays "The Girl I Left Behind Me" is hardly known, but it may be noted that it was a popular

Resignation Of Two Teachers Is Demanded

WINNIPEG, Dec. 8.—(CP)—Resignation of Winnipeg's two Communist school teachers, A. Blecki and William Ross, was demanded at a meeting of the school management committee of Winnipeg School Board by T. M. Miller, secretary of the Home and Property Owners Association of Winnipeg.

Miller charged at the meeting last night that articles in the Nov. 26 edition of the Mid-West Clarion, Communist Weekly, contained "scathing indictments against certain trustees." He referred to an article that he said was written by Ross in which the actions of trustee Adam Beck had been criticized.

"Mr. Ross and Mr. Blecki are members of the Communist Party of Canada and are affiliated with the Russian Government," said Miller.

During 1918 a favourite among some of the divisions in France was "Rolling Home," which was frequently heard on the plains of Lombardy. The following verse may be quoted:—

"Rolling home, rolling home. By the light of the silvery moon-o-n. Bon giorno, signorina. With your little concertina. Bon giorno, signorina—com est ta?"

"Bon giorno" meant "Good day" and "Com est ta?" "How are you?"

The National Anthem

In wartime, the National Anthem assumes a special significance and is sung by both soldiers and civilians with an added fervour and sincerity. It may be said that it is the most popular song in the world, for it is familiar to practically all the 490,000,000 or so members of the British Empire.

The United States National Anthem, "My Country, 'tis of Thee" in comparison appeals to only about 122,000,000 Americans and "Hail Dir Im Siegenkrans" to a mere 64,000,000 or so adherents of the German Reich.

Strangely, "God Save the King" has an uncertain authorship. The words and the tune were at one time attributed to Henry Carey, an eighteenth century poet who wrote the ballad "Sally in Our Alley," but the claims for Carey in regard to our National Anthem have been repudiated.

The question of the composer of the tune is also in doubt. It has been attributed to John Bull, a sixteenth-seventeenth century composer who for a time was organist at Hereford Cathedral, but in his case also there is no substantiation.

"God Save the King" has frequently been utilized by composers of repute. Hayden has it in his "Emperor's Hymn." Weber used it in his "Battle and Victory" cantata, and it is in Brahms' "Triumphal" Beethoven introduced it into his "Battle Symphony," commenting, "I must show the English what a blessing they have in 'God Save the King.'"

"Rule Britannia"

"Rule Britannia" also has a dubious authorship. David Mallet, an eighteenth century poet, made a claim for the honour, but it is now more generally accredited to his more famous contemporary, James Thomson.

The words of "Rule Britannia" first appeared in "Alfred," a masque in which Mallet and Thomson were collaborators. The work was written by command of the Prince of Wales of the day, and subsequently His Royal Highness awarded a pension to Thomson.

It is worth noting one line which has aroused controversy was originally written by Thomson as:

"Rule, Britannia, rule the waves;" but Thomas Campbell in introducing the line into his "Ode to the Germans," gives it in its present more popular form:—"Britannia, rule the waves."

Jap Cabinet Approves Huge War Budget

TOKYO, Dec. 8.—(AP)—The cabinet council tonight approved the largest budget in Japan's history in preparation for the fourth year of the war in China, a war which many Japanese had expected to win in six months.

The council approved a 1940-41 general budget of 10,360,000,000 yen (approximately $2,427,657,500) of which 6,767,000,000 yen ($1,583,478,000), or approximately 65 per cent, is for Japan's army and navy.

The new budget, the fifth successive record budget for Japan, is approximately 1,100,000,000 yen (about $257,000,000) over that of last year and calls for new taxation.

New levies include three sen (about one-fourth of a cent) on a cup of coffee costing 2 sen (about 4 1-2 cents) and a 10 per cent tax on meals costing three yen (about 75 cents) and taxes on cats and goldfish.

As high as the allotment was for the fighting forces, the council approved the budget only over the protests of the army, which originally had asked 6,000,000,000 yen ($1,404,000,000) for its China war budget alone.
