A FAMOUS CAT

Has Been Rat Chasing for a Quarter of a Century
 Interest is centered in the announcement that Tiger, the pet cat of the Great Eastern Railway Company's goods sheds at Peterborough, England, who is reputed to be about twenty-seven years old, was practically retired. Few cats live much beyond fourteen or fifteen years. During her long life Tiger is said to have killed thousands of rats. She is a light tabby, and first visited the sheds for refuge during a fire at a timber yard close by over twenty-six years ago, having been driven from her home in a timber stack by the flames. Tiger has always been wild, and has obtained her own food, consisting almost entirely of rats, of which she would kill as many as fourteen and fifteen in one night. Her custom was to bring all the rats alive to one of the men employed in the sheds, and she would not eat one until she received permission.

"TERROR" AT SIXTEEN

Girl Who Boasts no Home Can Keep Her Longer Than She Cares
 When Alma Simmonds, a domestic servant, was charged at Marylebone with stealing a sovereign belonging to her employer, the Rev. William Davidson Creighton, curate at St. Paul's Church, Harrow road, who resides at Blomfield street, Paddington, Mr. Alfred Kirby, the court missionary, said: "I have spent twenty-three years in police-court missionary work but I have never known a girl of sixteen with such a history."
 Simmonds had been tried in almost every home in London, said the missionary, but not one of them would keep her, she was "such a terror." She fought and quarrelled with her employers, and demanded her freedom, declaring that unless she got it, she would commit suicide. She had been brought up in an orphanage since she was three months old, and numerous situations had been obtained for her by the sisters, but she kept none of them. Her great failing was her admiration of men; she would not leave them alone, and they were never safe in her company. She boasted, said the missionary, that she was going to give as much trouble as she possibly could, and that no home would detain her longer than she cared to stay. And, curiously enough, she also expressed a wish that she might be shut up in a penitentiary for the rest of her days; but he told her that, much as he should wish it, it was impossible.
 The magistrate said that he should commit the girl for trial in order that she might be sent to a Borstal institution.

Bermuda's Coral Houses

Bermuda is the original home of the "White House." The simplest bungalow is built of the same material as the most pretentious villa, in almost precisely the same way. White coral blocks cut from the backbone of the islands are used for all building purposes. Many of the well-to-do negroes live in lovely little white coral bungalows and cottages, which for vivid, radiant whiteness would surpass the executive mansion at Washington. Paint can not rival the dazzling lustre of Bermuda's lime-washed coral buildings, shimmering as they do in the brilliant, sub-tropical sunshine like pillars of light.

Russians Use Wooden Spoons

The peasant class in Russia, which forms 77 per cent of the total population, still uses the wooden spoon. The people of this class can not afford plated ware. The middle classes use steel and plated ware, and the wealthy classes usually have sterling. Most of the steel and plated ware is manufactured in Warsaw. Probably 90 per cent of the people of Russia use the very cheapest grades of table ware and only 10 per cent of silver ware.

Wagner's Thirteen's

It is a comfort to know that thirteen is not invariably connected with bad luck. Richard Wagner revelled in the figure; he was born in '13, and the sum of the figures of the year also made 13; his name had 13 letters; he composed and published 13 great works, and his real career commenced on the 13th day of the month. "Tannhauser" was completed on April 13, and produced in Paris for the first time on March 13. Wagner left his death on September 13; he also happened to leave this world on the 13th day of the month.

Natural Blankets

Nature is kind in Ecuador. When a native wants a blanket he goes to a demajagua tree and cuts from it a strip of peculiarly soft, thick bark, five or six feet long. This is dampened and beaten until the flexibility of the sheet is much increased. The rough, gray exterior is next peeled off and the sheet dried in the sun. The result is a blanket, soft, light, and fairly warm, of an attractive cream color. It may be rolled into a compact bundle without hurt, and with ordinary usage will last for several years.

 MURDOCK ANDERSON, Esq. Mill Owner, Etc. Kinloch

The above Company is Capitalized at the actual value of the foxes and have secured four pairs of the very highest grade foxes of this year's litters from the Silver Fox Ranching Co. at Huntley near Alberton. No expense will be incurred for building a Ranch as a very favorable arrangement has been made with the said Company to care for the foxes bought from them for a time of 2 or 3 years where they will remain in their natural home, and have the benefit of the most expert care and attention by persons who will be directly interested in their success the charges for such care being the lowest of any one engaged in the regular business of ranching. Whilst no one can with certainty say what the returns will be a very conservative estimate leased on an increase of only two young to each pair per year, and a price of $10,000.00 per pair, which is far below present prices will give returns of over 40 p. p. for the year 1914, 50 p. c. year 1915; and 90 p. c. for year 1916. And adding as per contract of desired one pair from young stock each year to Breeding Stock, and at the end of the 3rd year would leave 6 pairs of Breeders—which should easily be worth double the original cost. There is no Watered Stock only a small amount over cost is added to defray organization expenses. $30,000.00 or 300 shares of $100.00 each are now offered for sale. Terms 10 per cent with application balance 15th August, 1913.
 Applications for stock can be made to any of the Directors named or sent direct to the acting Secretary.
