Writes Gratefully From Poland To Ch'town Woman

Mrs. Chester Aoom, 153 Great George Street, has received the following appreciative letter from a resident of Poland who was the recipient of a used fur coat which she contributed to the clothing campaign. The letter is quoted as received. Though the writer was unversed in English, she succeeded in expressing very clearly her sincerity and gratitude. "Dear Madam: I have received the fur and am very enjoyed about it. I think you very much. I had at me my family of Poland's east confines, and it is with the fur a well-com. I have found your address in the 'packet'. Please kindly write to me, and I shall write a large letter to you, Madam. The fur received is in a good state and I am glad to have it. With sincerely greets, "Helene Dubiel "Rzeszow-ul. Grunwaldska 25 "Poland."

MR. HARRY D. CANTWELL

Word has been received by Mr. H. E. Cantwell of the unexpected death, under sad circumstances of his younger brother, Harry D. Cantwell, 50, whose body was found in the hills at Ford du Lac, north of Edmonton.

TONGUE-EATING WHALE

The "killer" or "sea tiger" whale has the sorry habit of eating the tongues out of other living whales. It uses its nose to wedge open other whales' mouths.

"This year there's beauty in our budget"

"Look at the difference in Gladys already," said the mother proudly. "She's just brimming with health." "Yes, this year there's beauty in our budget," said Hugh. "Another six weeks of this will do wonders for you and the youngsters... and long week-ends here for me... it's swell!" "But it's not really in the budget, Hugh." "No. It's over and above the budget, certainly; but it's the budget that enables us to take this cottage without worrying. Once we've set aside our year-round expenses and our life insurance premiums, the rest is surplus. We can be extravagant with it. Until I had enough insurance to take care of the future I always felt a bit guilty about spending in the present. But now my mind is at ease. You and Tom and Gladys are protected. So long as we don't dip into what's needed for that, we don't need to worry any more."

When life insurance is properly taken care of in the family budget, present expenditures can be planned with a carefree mind. Future protection is of first importance. Once that is insured, the greatest source of worry is banished from every home.

Now you, wherever you are, in a neighbour in the life insurance business. Ask him for advice in planning your future. It is good citizenship to own life insurance. A message from the Life Insurance Companies in Canada and their agents.
