—PROHIBITION COURT.—Magistrate George Tweedy held Court in the Court House at Summerside on Saturday afternoon when five cases came before him. The first case tried was against a party from Elmsdale who was charged with illegal consumption of liquor, convicted and fined $15 and costs. A similar charge was preferred against a man from Bedouque and His Honor also inflicted upon him a fine of $15 and costs; also a man from Tryon was fined $20 and costs for a similar offence. The cases against a party from Baltic and also a Summerside man, both charged with having liquor unlawfully in their possession, were adjourned until Saturday next for further evidence. All the cases were conducted by Chief Inspector Haywood, of Charlottetown.—S.

—PREACHED AT ST. MARY'S CHURCH—In the absence of the rector, Ven. Archdeacon White, Rev. Walter Cotton, who is home on furlough from Africa, took the services on Sunday at Summerland and St. Eleanors. At the evening service in St. Mary's Church, Summerside, Rev. Mr. Cotton preached a very beautiful sermon taking as his subject the supreme importance of prayer to religious life which was much appreciated by the congregation. The discourse was very appropriate to the occasion, it being the Feast of St. Michael and all Angels. S.

—PASTOR REMEMBERED—On Friday evening, Sept. 27th, the ladies of the Indian River Parish agreeably surprised their pastor, Rev. Reginald McDonald, who has recently been appointed Parish Priest, in the place of Right Rev. Mgr. D. J. Gillis, who has resigned. The gathering was in the nature of a shower, and the number of useful and valuable articles donated was testimony of the popularity of the young priest, who, though a comparative stranger on his arrival, has already made many warm friends. A number of short speeches and music, vocal and instrumental, followed by the hearty thanks and good wishes of the Reverend gentleman, brought a most enjoyable evening to a close.—Y.

—FUNERAL OF MR. ALEXANDER SINCLAIR—The funeral of Mr. Alexander Sinclair, who passed away very suddenly on Thursday last, was held on Sunday afternoon at his late residence in Hamilton. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Grant, assisted by Rev. Mr. Williams of Malpeque. A solo, "Shadows," was rendered by Mr. Roy Phillips, of Kensington. People from all parts of the Island were present at the funeral, which was very largely attended. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful. The Honorary Pallbearers were Hon. Sterling MacMillan of Halifax, Hon. John E. Sinclair, Mr. A. E. MacLean, M. P., Messrs. Robert Ramsay and Ephraim Phillips, of Tyne Valley and Mr. Nelson Ramsay of Conway. The acting pallbearers were Messrs. Lee Owen, George Crozier, Major Taylor, Sinclair MacGougan, John Simpson and Preston Ramsay. Interment was in the Malpeque Cemetery. S.

—I. O. D. E. LUNCHEON—The executive of the I. O. D. E. tendered an elaborate luncheon to the executive of the Royal Edward Chapter, Charlottetown, at 130 p. m. on Saturday in the Queen Hotel, Summerside. The guest of honor was Mr. Nathaniel White, son of Ven. Archdeacon White of Summerside, who was awarded the I. O. D. E. scholarship to Oxford University two years ago, which was renewed last year. Miss Hunt, the Regent of the Abegweit Chapter, presided over the gathering. After the luncheon Mr. White gave an interesting address on his work at Oxford and how he spent his vacations. In a simple, straightforward manner which impressed his hearers he told of his studies at Oxford and of the influence which that great University has over the students who study within its historical colleges. He described in detail the beautiful buildings and grounds and many other things of interest in the various famous colleges. The town of Oxford was also described by Mr. White as a place of vast historic interest and very beautiful surroundings, especially along the river. He gave an interesting account of his doings during his vacations, some of which were spent in London and some on the Continent. His six weeks' tour of Europe as a member of the hockey team which was composed of Canadian students, who visited Berlin, Budapest and Vienna, was most interesting. Mr. White said the hockey team was given a wonderful reception everywhere they went and the European athletes learned a great deal about the game of hockey, as played on this side of the water, from them. The kindness and hospitality of the English people and the many organizations to the students from abroad was very highly commented upon by the speaker. At the conclusion he sincerely thanked the Daughters of the Empire for their generosity and kindness. A vote of thanks to Mr. White was moved by Mrs. MacCreedy, of Charlottetown, seconded by Mrs. Mathieson, wife of Chief Justice Mathieson, and supported by Mrs. Neil MacLeod of Summerside and others. A very pleasant social hour was spent and some business matters were discussed, the programme closing with "God Save the King." S.
