ENJOYED HOLIDAY—Mr. Allan W. Dickson and Mrs. Dickson of Virginia and Washington, D.C., who arrived home by motor last week on a visit to his parents Mr. and Mrs. William Dickson, 105 Gerald St. City left yesterday on return. It is fifteen years since Mr. Dickson visited his home here and he saw many improvements especially the Modern highway, and met a great many old friends. Mrs. Dickson who is a southern lady was making her first visit and was charmed with the lovely scenery and genial hospitality extended. Mr. Dickson holds a prominent position in the government at Washington and returns to his work much refreshed after his holiday. En route he will spend a few days with his brother Benjamin in Prescott, Maine and his grandmother, Mrs. John Dickson, Milo, Maine.

exchange of flower seeds. The members were then favored with a solo by Mrs. W. A. Paterson. Mrs. James Houston invited the next meeting to her home for the October meeting. Meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

Belfast

Service in St. John's Presbyterian Church, Belfast, on Sunday morning, September 20th, was conducted by Rev. J. R. Skinner, pastor of the United Church. There was a very large attendance and a very able sermon was preached. During the offering the choir sang "All hail the power of Jesus Name". The evening service was conducted by the Young People's Society with Mrs. Mabel MacEachern, President, presiding and Mrs. Monty MacEachern leader for the evening. The scripture lesson was read by Mr. Reginald MacLean. The topic was relative to church influence and every day life and many interesting readings were given by different members.

A plane flying along Pinette River above the North Bridge attracted attention on Sunday morning, Sept. 20th. At several points it seemed to dip and touch the water but the trees prevented a clear view and supposition is the result.

Sympathy is extended to Dr. Annie Macrae and her brother Mr. Alex Macrae of Pinette on the death of their sister Mrs. Rose Gay that took place at her home in Fall River Mass.

Belfast friends have read with regret that the resignation of Dr. John Howie as Bhil Missionary in India has been accepted by the Board. Intimate friends of Dr. Howie who know how his heart is in this great work will feel that this is a great loss in missionary work and particularly to the Bhils and will hope that he will be greatly blessed in whatever work he will take up whether in Medicine or Theology.

The most outstanding event of the past week was the semi-social visit of Hon. C. E. Dunning and his daughter Miss Katherine Dunning when they attended the meeting in the Belfast Hall on September 22nd. Mr. William Shea, President of the Liberal Association for the Fourth district of Queens presided. Brief preliminary addresses were given by Messrs. Douglas MacKinnon, M.L.A., Walter Jones, M.L.A. and Peter Sinclair, M.P. Others on the platform were Miss Katherine Dunning, daughter of the Minister of Finance, Mrs. Peter Sinclair, Major Russel C. Chandler, President and G. F. Tweedy, Secretary of the Queens Co., Liberal Association.

There was a large attendance as is always the case when anything of a non-political or non-sectarian nature is held in Belfast. Mr. Dunning has a very pleasing personality and his non-political speech was delivered with his usual eloquence and charm.

The teen-age girls were particularly interested in Miss Dunning's visit as she is slated to be presented at His Majesty's Court in May and are pleased to think that at least one of these debutantes has been a visitor to Belfast.

An unusually large congregation was present on Sunday Sept. 13th in St. John's Presbyterian Church Belfast when the morning service was taken by Rev. Dr. Malcolm James MacLeod of New York. A full choir was present with Miss Annie MacRae at the organ. A beautiful solo "Does Jesus Care" by Mr. William Williamson of New York was very beautifully sung and added greatly to the wonderful service of the day. Mr. MacLeod took his text from Second Timothy 4-7 "I have fought a good fight."

He explained Paul's life as being of a warlike strain and of the many

Hollis—Nesbit Nuptials

A wedding of much interest took place on Friday evening, September 25th, at 6:30 o'clock, when Miss Cora May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Nesbit, New Glasgow, was united in marriage to Mr. Lester Hollis, son of Mr. Daniel and the late Mrs. Hollis, Mansfield, N. S., the bride who was given in marriage by her father, entering the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. W. G. Quigley, looked winsome in a gown of white satin and bridal veil of silk meline caught up with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas and baby's breath. The couple were unattended. They stood under an arch which was beautifully decorated with sweet peas, asters, maple leaves and green foliage. The color scheme in the dining room was carried out in pink and white. The large wedding cake, tall brass candle holders and tapers graced the table from which the wedding supper was served. Only the near relatives of the

Autumn Feeding for Ranch Foxes

The seven chief faults in feeding we find among fox breeders are easily avoided by feeding Ross-Miller Fox Foods, according to the Ross-Miller Schedule.

Avoid These Seven Pitfalls

1. Improper or irregular feeding.
2. Feeding foods that are too laxative.
3. Feeding foods that are too constipating.
4. Feeding tainted or putrid meat.
5. Feeding meat from cattle or other animals which have died of disease.
6. Feeding from dirty dishes.
7. Feeding foods containing irritating substances (such as disinfectants.)

Watch your Ross-Miller Feeding Schedule. Make a point of regularity. Feed the right food and feed it at the right times.

If you haven't got one, write us for the Ross-Miller Feeding Chart, and free samples of Ross-Miller Fox Foods—if you have not been already using them. Try them out. The majority of the most successful fox ranches in Canada use Ross-Miller Fox Foods regularly. Write us.
