—The Guardian regrets to record the death of Mrs. Wm. McPherson, of Bellevue, which took place on Tuesday, the 29th day of March, 1910, after a few days' illness, at the age of sixty-four years. Mrs. McPherson was of a cheerful and kindly disposition and highly respected by the neighbors and all her acquaintances. Her sudden demise has cast a gloom upon the surrounding neighborhood. Mrs. McPherson was a consistent member of the Valleyfield Presbyterian congregation for over twenty years and though her name is now dropped from the communion roll here, all cherish the strongest hope that it is added to the ever-increasing roll of the church above. Mrs. McPherson leaves a sorrowing husband, three daughters and three sons to mourn their loss, Mrs. James Muirhead, of Waverly, Mass.; Mrs. Joseph A. Graham, of Somerville, Mass.; Mrs. Hollis T. Parsons, of Cambridge; Donald J., of Oakland, Cal.; Norman, of Nevada, and Roderick, at home. Notwithstanding the roads being broken up and rendered not fit for either sleigh or waggon, quite a large number of people attended the funeral, many of whom came a long distance to show their respect to the departed friend.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN McLELLAN

Many friends will be pained to hear of the death which occurred at Junction Road on March 28th of Mary McKenzie, wife of John McLennan, in the 70th year of her age. Deceased bore her illness with that calmness and patience only found in those whose life is hid within Christ, laying it down at the last in the full assurance of receiving at the hands of a forgiving Saviour the crown of life that fadeth not away. Being of a quiet and unassuming disposition, she naturally won the respect and esteem of all those with whom she came in contact. It could be truly said of her that she possessed the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit which is, in the sight of God, of great price. Mrs. McLennan was in her usual health till March 7th, when she took a cold, but was later improving, when she took paralysis, and from that day she showed signs that she was fast approaching the end till death came. She was a member of the Presbyterian congregation of Strathalbyn for a number of years. She leaves to mourn, besides her husband, three sons and three daughters—Mrs. H. Farrer, of Vermont; Mrs. C. McKenzie, Junction Road; Mrs. J. R. Elliott, Elliott's Mills; A. J. McLennan, Quincy, Mass., and Daniel and M. H. at home. The funeral took place on Tuesday and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Pierce. Her remains were laid to rest in Hartsville Cemetery, there to await the resurrection of the just.

MARRIAGE OF MISS W. H. WEEKS

On Tuesday evening the marriage of Miss Winnifred Helen Weeks, daughter of the late Robert T. Weeks, Charlottetown, P. E. I., to Dr William H. Pauli of Cincinnati, took place at the residence of Mrs Frank Beer, aunt of the bride, in Rosedale. The Ven. Archdeacon Cody, and the Rev R. H. A. Haslam, Lahore, India, cousin of the bride, were the officiating clergy. The decorations were all of Easter lilies and arch and tall stands forming an avenue for the bridal procession. The bride was given away by her uncle Mr. Beer, and wore a gown of ivory liberty satin, with tulle veil and orange blossom wreath, a diamond pendent was worn as the gift of the groom. Miss Edith Weeks was bridesmaid, in pale blue satin and chiffon with pink roses and pearl and turquoise pendant from the groom. Mr Frank Pauli was best man. After dejeuner, at which the health of bride and groom was proposed by Archdeacon Cody, Dr and Mrs Pauli left for Atlantic City, the going-away dress being of blue cloth, tuscan hat with roses and touch of blue.—(Toronto Globe.) The many friends of the bride in this city and province will join in extending heartiest congratulation on the happy event referred to.

TWO NOTABLE EVENTS.

Two items in last week's issue demand more than passing notice. The first was that the Bedeque, P. E. I., circuit had decided to assume the full support of a foreign missionary. This is a fine idea. The definite engagement adds to the interest and inspires to more earnest effort in the support of the great missionary cause. Quite a number of churches west of the Maritime Provinces support their own personal missionaries. Very few with us do. The example of Bedeque is worthy of imitation and that circuit is worthy of all praise.

The second notable event was that at the close of a sermon on "The Ministry," delivered in Wesley Church, St. John's, Newfoundland, by Rev. J. K. Curtis, the pastor, eleven young men met the pastor and formed a theological class preparatory to entering the ministry. That was a splendid result of an impassioned appeal. There is great need of many candidates for our ministry. Whilst we welcome many noble young men from across the water, it is a shame to us as a church that we do not more nearly secure a sufficient number of candidates from our own churches.

At the present crisis all our ministers should be on the lookout for likely young men for our ministry. The success attending the effort of Bro. Curtis should be an encouragement and an inspiration.—Wesleyan.

CORRESPONDENCE FROM DUNEDIN

A correspondent from Dunedin and vicinity writes that Hector Darrah, Dunedin, and Fulton Darrah, Clyde River, spent Friday evening at New Haven. The people of this section of the country are looking forward to the spring. The merchants, P. J. Berrigan and S. H. Cowell are doing a rushing business. Their friends are very sorry that Mrs. McQuarrie and family have moved to Long Creek but no doubt their loss will be another's gain. W. D. Shaw paid a flying visit to New Haven recently. Miss Jessie McLaughlin, of St. Catherines, spent Thursday at Dunedin. Miss Katie McLean spent Saturday in Clyde River. John McPhee spent Tuesday in New Haven. John Darrah, New Haven, has returned home from Churchill. Eclipse Division is still in a very flourishing and prosperous condition. At its last regular meeting the following officers for the ensuing quarter were elected:—W. P., Angus McKaige; W. A., Walter Shaw; R. S., Eufemia Cameron; A. R. S., Heber McLean; Treas., Gracie McKinnon; F. S., John Boyle; Chap., Ethel Livingston; Cond., Heber McPhail; A. Cond., Katie McKinnon; I. S., Gordon McKinnon; O. S., Lem. Lamonte; P. W. P., Artemas Pollord; Organist, Katie Darrah.

STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, April 1—The professional operators in stocks showed growing discouragement today over the apathy of the public interest in the market, upon which they are dependent for any substantial success in their transactions. The market had drifted into a mere exchange of contracts at noon today, sales for an hour falling to less than 18,000 shares.

The beginning of the gold outflow to London was an influence. The movement has been clearly foreseen and the sagging tendency of interest rates leaves no obstacle to it. The languid borrowing demand for money, it is feared, indicates an attitude for hesitation in general business similar to that in the stock market.

Weather news from the crop regions hold a large share of attention. Speculation is preparing itself for the forthcoming Government crop report. The suspension of soft coal mining and a strike of New York harbor pilots kept attention focused on the subject of labor disputes. The news of general curtailment in all districts by the cotton mills illustrates a phase of the problem of high prices and the resulting increase in demand. The slight decreases reported in the visible supply of copper from London was more than covered by the severe drop in the March exports of copper from this country.

Bonds were irregular; total sales, par value, $2,261,000. U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

WANT SPUR LINE

A large meeting of the representative farmers of Fredericton, Elliott's Mills, Hazel Grove and Junction Road was held in Fredericton Hall on the first of April to consider the advisability of sending delegates to a meeting to be held at Kinkora on the fifth of this month to memorize the powers to construct a spur line to Richmond Bay for the purpose of procuring mussel mud and for the benefit of the farmers in general. All were in perfect accord with the project and appointed two delegates to attend on that date at Kinkora. By the tone of the meeting a strong movement will be made in this direction.
