SCHMELING AND DEMPSEY TO TOUR CANADA

MANCHESTER, N. H., Feb. 8.—Jack Dempsey and Max Schmeling will tour the Dominion of Canada from Nova Scotia to Manitoba during the month of April. This became known Thursday night through Bill McCarney, who aids Joe Jacobs in the directing of the German heavyweight. Bill is at present arranging the booking for the pair's New England tour in March. The heavyweights will swing to Canada when the New England tour is ended in Maine about the last of March. The tentative Canadian itinerary calls for visits at Halifax and Sydney, N.S.; St. John, N.B.; Montreal, Quebec, Ottawa, Toronto, and possibly Hamilton, Ont., and Winnipeg, Man. It is possible bookings will be made at other Ontario points at a later date. Dempsey and Schmeling will box with each other at each point and will referee other arranged bouts in turn. It is stated that the Canadian trip has been planned at the suggestion of Schmeling who has often expressed a desire to visit the Dominion "from end to end." Contracts for the Canadian tour have already been signed and representatives will visit the proposed points to visit about the first of March.

McLean Cup League

The Victoria Union took a margin on the MacLean Cup, Monday evening when they gave their hosts the Kensington Granites, a 4-2 set. In the first of the final home and home games for the silverware, the home sextet were probably slightly out-played, and certainly out-kicked in the fixture, which was fast, replete with pretty combination, and clever stick manhandling. Two of the visitors' goals were somewhat lucky, but another was the result of a particularly brilliant piece of work on the part of Danny MacLeod, stick-handling wizard from the South Shore. Both granite goals were well earned, the first, one of these Wedlock to Jamieson affairs; the other, the climax of an end to end rush by Dan "Tornado" Darrach. The first period was unproductive of results, wild shooting frustrating many promising sallies by both teams. The defences were not keeping the invaders out, and thrills were served up to the spectators as a regular dish. At the opening of the second period, three goals were chalked up in many minutes. Danny MacLeod let one go from the blue line, and the puck hit Hickey on the arm, crawled up over his shoulder, slid down his back, and squeezed its way into the net like a homing pigeon going home. From the face-off, Wedlock and Jamieson, teaming together like calf liver and onions went through the Union defences, the latter back-handing the puck into the draperies. Another face-off, and Danny MacLeod carried the puck into Granite territory. E.P. Foley entered the corner he centred out, and Logan, from a scramble, hit the wafer over Hickey's prostrate body. The score remained 2-1 in favor of Victoria for about eight minutes, when I. Darrach evened it up with his brilliant shot. This ended the scoring for the period, though Stewart faced an open net with the puck on his stick on one occasion and Darrach looked through to the goal mouth. Another, inaccurate sniping ensued up both plays. Both teams set up a withering pace in the final frame. Shortly after it opened, Danny MacLeod took his way through the Granite rearguard and got away a header that was in there before the Granite goalie could move out of his tracks. The Union, apparently satisfied with their one goal advantage, resorted to shooting the puck up the ice. The Granites pressed hard, but many fine opportunities were thrown to the winds by over-anxiousness in front of the net. Lester MacLeod, on right wing

HOWIE MORENZ
A well known authority on big league hockey and a close follower of Howie Morenz, has this to say of "Stratford Flash." "What was the secret of how Howie Morenz scores so many goals? Everybody knows that the first factor in the success of 'Les Canadiens' great scoring star is his speed. Howie must skate miles in a game. The best possible way I know of to find out Morenz secret was to talk to the men who were trying to beat him night after night, the goalkeepers. The general answer was that Morenz could shoot on the net from almost any position without telegraphing it. There is no indication that he intends to shoot until the puck is on his way. Howie has the faculty of shooting with deadly accuracy while in the middle of a stride. Howie has been the bright light of the Flying Frenchmen since 1923. He was born in Mitchell, Ontario, on September 21, 1902. He got his first knowledge of the game while playing for Stratford before turning pro."

Summerside Curling Club

Interest in The Club Championship Series is now almost at fever heat and all games are followed with the closest interest as the battle for first place works along to the final stages. The following games were played on Tuesday night over splendid sheets of ice. Foley's Rink after a great fight had to accept its first defeat of the series with H. T. Holman's rink administering the medicine. Campbell broke into the winning column for the first time by beating the veteran Prichard. MacDonald and Horne battled away for twelve ends to finish up 8-5 in favor of MacDonald.

Levinsky And Risko Matched

CLEVELAND, Feb. 8.—Announcement that Johnny Risko, Cleveland heavyweight, will meet King Levinsky in a 12-round bout at Madison Square Garden, New York, on February 17, was made last night by Risko's manager, Danny Dunn.

Basketball

Last night in the men's basketball league of the Holy Name Club the Navy once more turned back the Falcons by a one point margin, the final score being 32-31. These two teams have met 6 times this season and five of the tilts have ended with the winning team having no more of a margin than 3 points. Lineups: Falcons: Guards, Grant, Power; centre, Harley; forwards, Doyle, Cox. Navy: Guards, Larter, Connolly; centre, Ayers; forwards, Ryan, McMahon.

Maple Leafs 22, Wildcats 20

In the girls' game the fans were treated to a nice exhibition of the hoop game between the Maple Leafs and the Wildcats, it being necessary to play a five minute overtime session to decide a winner as the two teams finished the regulation time deadlocked at 20 points apiece, the Leafs finally winning out 22-20. In the first half the Leafs lead all the way through and at the rest period had a lead of 6 points. Starting the second half the Wildcats gradually crept up on their opponents and with but half a minute to go were leading 20 to 18, but a field-goal for the Leafs just at the whistle tied things all up. In the overtime the Leafs scored after a minute of play and although the Wildcats tried mightily hard they just couldn't score, the ball simply refusing to go in.

Kane Outgenerals Graham

The final period was only five minutes old and Lavigne was in the penalty box when Kane got through the Halifax front-liners to side-step Graham and draw Sargent out for the last Abbie goal. Exactly 35 seconds later Chummie Lawlor skating fast down left wing picked up V. Ferguson's pass and drilled a low one past Bubar. That completed the scoring. Bubar thereafter was both lucky and unbeatable. "Daddy" Too Good Although there was no scoring in the first 20 minutes, the Wolverines really lost the game in the

BILLIARDS

Two matches were played in the tournament at the Sunnyside Billiard Parlors yesterday. In the afternoon game Johnny Garmun won from Percy McInnis, the scores being Garmun 300, McInnis 204. In the evening game Ambrose Doyle won from Carl McKenna the scores being Doyle 300 McKenna 233.

Abbies Defeated The Wolves 2-1

Unassisted Goals By Beaton And Kane Clinch Important Fixture For Red Shirts — Bubar Brilliant In Nets.

(Canadian Press) HALIFAX, Feb. 8.—Unassisted goals in the second and third periods, negotiated by Jack Kane and Joey Beaton gave the Charlottetown Abegweits a 2-1 verdict over Halifax tonight, the Abbies thus drawing up to within two points of the Wolverines, who hold second place to Moncton Hawks in the Maritime Big Three standing. Tonight's encounter was a game of missed opportunities. Charlottetown failed to capitalize on what looked like sure goals at times, and the Wolves tossed away more scoring chances than any other two teams have had in a single game this winter. opening session. Time after time speeding Wolverines stepped right on Bubar, but every time he either outguessed them, their shots were wide or they bounced the disc off the spreading pads. In the final period the Wolverines outplayed the Abegweits by such a margin that Bubar had twenty-eight shots, twenty-seven of which he stopped, while Sargent stopped three out of four. At times both teams were badly disorganized. The Wolverines floundered about badly in the second period, while the Abbies looked equally as bad in the closing session.

Bubar A Standout

Daddy Bubar, hero of many battles over a period of years with New Glasgow, Fredericton and Charlottetown, was a standout in the Abegweit victory. Not in recent years has a goalie turned aside as many shots as Bubar halted tonight. Swarming all over the Abbies, the locals outclassed the visitors in everything but the important item of scoring goals. They fired about 60 shots at Bubar, and he missed but one.

Beaton Splits Wolve Defense

Joey Beaton, the Maritime League's leading scorer, got through alone after four minutes of the second period. He shoved the rubber between the Halifax defence men, shouldered his way after it, picked it up in front of the cage and caromed the puck off Sargent's pads into the netting.

The Six Hour Day

OTTAWA, Feb. 8.—(C.P.)—The resolution of Hon. Pascal Poirier, urging the adoption of a six hour day in such industries to which such a regulation could be applied, and the more effective encouragement of the back to the land movement, was defeated in the Senate this afternoon. Senator Lacasse resumed the debate on the resolution and while he approved of the six-hour day he would not say it furnished a solution to unemployment. He placed more importance on the back to the land clause of the motion, and regretted that greater activity was not evidenced along this line. Senator Hughes opposed the resolution. He said the six hour day could not be applied to the farmer, and furthermore Canada could not adopt it until all other countries did the same. Farmers were not able to make a living even by working long hours, he said, and he could not see what improvement would result from putting more people on farms. "They would be able to earn their own living," Senator McMeans interjected. Senator Gideon Robertson recalled efforts to shorten the working day over a period of many years. The six hour day could not be adopted until the long sought eight hour day had been established, he said, and he would not support a resolution so hopeless of achievement.

Sino-Jap Situation

(Canadian Press) GENEVA, Feb. 8.—Attempts by Yosuke Matsuoka, Japanese delegate, to revive conciliation received recognition today when the committee of 19 of the League of Nations Assembly, which is attempting to settle the Sino-Japanese conflict, agreed to meet tomorrow to consider his new proposals. The Japanese delegation's move apparently was made in a spirit of concession and leaders of the assembly expressed the desire to leave no stone unturned in their search for a friendly settlement. News reports of continuing military activities in the far east, however, were the cause of much concern. The drafting sub-committee accomplished about half of its task of preparing a text of recommendations under the League covenant. There was considerable debate regarding what kind of organ should carry on efforts for settlement af-

LOOKING 'EM OVER

(By Tee.)
A Great Victory
The Abegweit clean-cut win over the highly touted Wolverines at Halifax last night not only stamp them as heavy threats in the "Big Three" playdowns, but dangerous contenders in the race for the hockey championship of the Maritime Provinces. P. E. Island sport lovers were never more proud of Abegweits than they were last night. When the final result flashed over the wires, there was much rejoicing throughout the City and Province. They arrive home tonight for a well-earned rest before tackling Moncton Hawks tomorrow night. A win over Hawks in this coming fixture will place them on even footing with the Wolverines, who are still in second place to the league leading Moncton crew.

VAIR TELLS 'EM IN TORONTO

Steve Vair, on his return to Toronto from what they style up there "The land of the Bluesons and wandering hockey players," was interviewed in the course of which, he told them: "It's quite a proposition running a senior league down there. Travelling expenses run away with plenty of cash. There is a jump of 185 miles from Moncton to Halifax." Asked as to salaries and as to just what these players do in their spare time, he said: "Leave these angles out of it altogether." Business conditions had not affected hockey attendance to any extent, he commented. All three rinks are thoroughly modern and compare with the most up-to-date in Canada. "How do you think the ultimate winner will fare with the other winners in the C. A. H. A. playoffs?" Vair was asked. "They will give them all a battle. Don't think for a moment that they don't play clever hockey," he replied. "That Truro team that played Hamilton," he added, "up here in the championship playoffs would have given the Tigers a real scare if all their players had been eligible." Vair says: "The only thing that might handicap which ever team manages to qualify is the fact that players in the Maritimes are allowed more leeway than I know C. A. H. A. referees will permit. Sticks are carried high and the heavier the going in the defense areas the better the fans like it."

CHALLENGE

We the "Tiny Six" do hereby challenge the Third Highfield Granites to a friendly game of hockey to be played in Highfield rink Saturday, Feb. 11th. An old man presented himself at a hospital for cats and dogs and asked to be taken in. "You can't come in her," he was told. "O yes I can," he protested. "But my good man, you can't. This is a veterinary hospital." "That's right," answered the old man serenely. "I'm a veteran."

MYMIE MCARTHUR STEPS UP

W. J. Foley, Halifax, official scorer of the "Big Three Loop" says: W. A. Smith, official scorer for the Charlottetown Abegweits, has proven to me that Mymie McArthur is entitled to six points, instead of five, with two goals and four assists. Owing to the fact that no official scorer was appointed until late in the schedule, and many official records were missing, this writer had to get a great amount of his information from newspaper reports of the various games. Scorer Smith has proven to my satisfaction that McArthur is entitled to four assists, instead of the three I have credited him with, so Mymie will get his extra point. After all, I want to give M. H. L. players an even break, as well as the fans.

INTERMEDIATES TASTE FIRST DEFEAT

S.D.U. Sextet Humble Second Abbies 2-1. A goal in the last minute of play clinched the game for St. Dunstan's in their game with the Abegweits last evening. Flashing a greatly improved brand of hockey as compared with their last appearance on Forum ice the Saints matched the town team play for play through the three periods, assisted greatly by the stellar work of Dunphy in the nets, who was beaten but once on a surprise shot from close in. The winners played a clean-cut game which showed a difference from the somewhat doubtful tactics of their opponents. The referees however, kept the game well in hand. The first period went scoreless but was fast throughout. Ten minutes of the second stanza had elapsed before Buote fooled McEwen with a wicked drive from right wing. Murnaghan, a few minutes later, picked up a loose puck in front of the Saint's net and snapped it past Dunphy. Throughout the third period the Abbies took the offensive, playing four men up the ice at times, but the Saints always kept their citadel clear. A few seconds before the final bell rang Beaudet made a desperate dash down the ice, eluded the Abbie defense and passed to DesJardins close to the net. McEwen did not have a chance on the close-in shot. The Abbies took the lion's share of the penalties, with "Duck" Acorn listed as "bad man."
