THRILLING STORY TOLD IN HIT FILM

Telling its story with hard-hitting, frank realism that is underscored by a vein of rich humor, "Jungle Patrol," the new Twentieth Century-Fox release now showing at the Capitol Theatre, unfolds the dramatic story of eight fighter pilots and a USO entertained in New Guinea in the fall of 1942.

Lovely Kristine Miller is the only girl in a fine cast of talented players that includes Arthur Franz, recruited from Broadway's stage success "Command Decision," Ross Ford, Richard Jaackel, Gene Reynolds, Tom Noonan, Harry Lauter, Bill Murphy and G. Pat Collins.

Joe Newman directed the Frank Seltzer Production.

The screen play for "Jungle Patrol" was written by Francis Swann.

"3 GODFATHERS," BANDIT TALE WITH FRESH SLANT, ACTION-LOADED OFFERING

Death Valley, California, forms the spectacular background for M-G-M's thrill-packed Technicolor outdoor drama, "3 Godfathers," starring John Wayne, Pedro Armendariz and Harry Carey, Jr., at the Prince Edward Theatre.

Based on Peter B. Kyne's memorable tale of three western badmen who make a desperate attempt to escape over the desert, fighting storms, a harrowing thirst and the ominous shadow of their pursuers, this Argosy production carries a dramatic wallop in every reel.

Wayne is the amiable, two-faced leader of the desperados, Armendariz is the sentimental Mexican, Carey the youthful member of the trio who is wounded after their attempt to hold up a bank. Together they match their wits against the pursuing posse led by Sheriff Ward Bond. Complications arise when they come upon a dying mother and are persuaded to adopt her infant child, a situation which gives way to both tender and humorous moments. In the end, Wayne is the lone survivor and, although he is apprehended, a twist of the tale turns him from villain into hero.

Wayne, who has become a model for the screen's prototype of virile western heroes, his most recent success having been "Fort Apache," is in top form in his latest portrayal. Armendariz, as his excitable lieutenant, contributes to the comedy overtones, and Harry Carey, Jr. makes an auspicious debut in the dramatic part of the wounded boy, a performance which the late Harry Carey would undoubtedly commend.

John Ford, director and co-producer with Merian C. Cooper, has given "3 Godfathers" the meticulous touches and keen insight that made "Fort Apache" and "The Fugitive" outstanding motion pictures. This new offering stacks up with the best.

Mrs. Muriel MacKenzie, Cardigan, spent a few days in Montague last week, guest of her brother-in-law, Mr. Malcolm MacKenzie and Mrs. MacKenzie. Mrs. MacKenzie's young daughter, Eileen, is a patient in the King's County Hospital where she is receiving treatment.

"AKETA C. G. I. T. HOLD MEETING — The Aketa C.G.I.T. of the Montague United Church held its regular meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Murdoch Beaton on Thursday evening. Roll call was answered by eight members. The meeting opened with the C.G.I.T. Purpose and prayer, followed by the devotional period led by Miss Helen Hamilton, with scripture reading from Acts 3, verses 17-23 by Miss Violet Hutchison. The story read was "The Mysterious Miss Emerson." The hymns sung were "Lead Kindly Light," and "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah." The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved. During the business period plans were made for the social night. Plans were also made to make a square for the P. E. I. Friendship Quilt. This quilt when completed will be sent to "Hwa Yin Girls High School, or the "Kongmoon Hospital" in China. The square will contain the name of the group, the leader, and each girl's name embroidered with blue thread on a white background. The business meeting was then adjourned, and a social half-hour enjoyed in repairing torn hymn books. The meeting next week will be held at the home of Mrs. Pearson Hamilton on Thursday evening.

"ENJOYABLE SHOWER — Miss Doris MacLaren, Montague, was honored on Thursday evening, when about sixty of her friends met at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas MacLaren, and showered her with many beautiful and costly gifts in honor of her approaching marriage. Miss MacLaren was seated in the centre of the room, and following a jolly sing-song, an hilarious three-part pantomime was presented. The first scene was the proposal, featuring Mrs. LeRoy White and Mr. Neil Hooley. The second scene showed the groom-to-be asking the father for permission to marry his daughter. The scene was very capably depicted by Mr. Atwood MacDonald and Mr. Athol Dewar. The third scene was the wedding. The actors were in costume, and the laughter rocked the room as the mock wedding was performed. Mr. Ivan MacDonald acted as the officiating minister, Mrs. Leonard Campbell as the groom, and Mr. Ellery Shaw as the bride. Mr. Don MacQuarrie as best man, and Miss Shirley MacGregor as bridesmaid. When the gifts, which were hidden about the house, had been found by the honoree, they were opened by Mrs. Stewart Nelson, and the good wishes read by Mrs. Wilfred MacDonald. In a few well chosen words, Doris expressed her appreciation for the many lovely gifts and remarks by her friends. Everyone joined in the singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." A delicious lunch was served by a number of the ladies, with Miss Peggy Beck as piano accompanist. The delightful social event was brought to a close with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

There are quite a lot of potatoes in the country yet. It is not known for sure if the starch factory will open this spring for grinding or not, but it is understood that there is a large schooner coming in the spring to be loaded by one of our local shippers.

Everett Robertson has finished building a boat and has started the second one. Carl Richards and Eber MacLeod have also one in building. They are all nice boats, streamlined and good workmanship. One would wonder how they could improve on their former models, but like the car builders they do, and each model is nicer than the one before.

March will be remembered as a month of snow, but it looks now as if Spring has turned the corner, and some of the fishermen are making preparations for spring fishing.

Beach Point was a busy place this winter. The large two-roomed schoolhouse was hauled to a more central location, and three dwelling houses were hauled to the already thickly settled place which now almost could be called a village.

town, Cornwall and Summerside all played there, and all spoke well of the rink, the management, and the good sportsmanship of the Murray Harbor Bruins hockey team. The Bruins were the intermediate champions of King's and Queen's Counties, but had to bow to the All Stars of Summerside in Prince. The Bruins were also champions of the Southern King's Hockey League and won the Taylor trophy, emblematic of that championship. A banquet is to be held in the Legion Hall Wednesday night in their honor. Four other cups came to the village this winter. The junior team won a cup. The girls' team won a cup. The Pee Wees won a cup, and the Paperweights won a cup. All competing Murray Harbor teams were victorious which is a very good winter's work.
