

NO MAN IS AVAILABLE FOR ENGLAND

But the Abegweits Will be Represented

ON ALL CANADIAN TEAM.

Prospects for the Hockey Season Discussed and a Managing Committee Appointed.

THE annual meeting of the Abegweit Hockey Club was held last night in the Y. M. C. A. parlour. The question of the games for the winter was discussed and the boys were determined to retain the laurels they have already won. A managing committee of the following were appointed: Jas. McMillan, H. L. Bethune, O. McEachern, D. Sullivan, Joseph Darke. The question of sending a representative to England on the All Canadian team was considered, but as none of these available saw their way clear to go, it was decided to write the manager to that effect. The Abegweit Club will however be ably represented in the Old Country. Wm. Flood, formerly of this city but now of Nanaimo, will play half back, and from the reputation he had here as well as in British Columbia he will be a good addition. Walter Jones, now in Chicago, has also been urged to go by the management, but he writes the Guardian that owing to studies and other work it is doubtful if he will be able to accept.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Eradicate it, positively and absolutely. This statement is based on the thousands of permanent cures these medicines have wrought. "The face of my little girl from the time she was three months old, broke out and was covered with scabs. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla and it cured her." T. M. CARLSON, Clinton, Ontario. Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

WOULD HAVE KILLED KING EDWARD ALSO.

The Brussell's Anarchist Who Shot at King Leopold of Belgium Says That Only the British Monarch's Popularity Prevented Him From So-Doing.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 18.—The news of the attempt on the life of the King of the Belgians spread rapidly throughout the city, and great excitement prevailed. The people thronged the streets, eagerly discussing the attempt on the life of the King, and large crowds gathered in front of various bulletin boards.

The newspapers issued frequent editions, and these were eagerly bought. General abhorrence was expressed by the people at the apparently deliberate attempt to assassinate the Sovereign.

King Leopold appeared to be quite unmoved by the attempt of Rubino to kill him. After luncheon at the Palace, His Majesty entered a motor car and proceeded to the railroad station, where he boarded a train bound for Groenendaal.

When Rubino reached the police station he showed ample signs of the rough handling which he received from the crowd. The prisoner, who appeared to be weak-minded and his only reason for shooting was exasperation at seeing "so many tired-looking personages occupying such grand coaches."

That the Anarchist Rubino intended to assassinate King Leopold seemed fully established this morning by the prisoner's confession to the police. The latter at first denied all the reports to the effect that the revolver contained ball cartridges or that Rubino was connected with Anarchism. But they finally admitted that the prisoner had confessed that he intended to shoot King Leopold, and that he held anarchist beliefs.

The self-confessed would be regicide is a small, bald-headed man with a heavy, black moustache. He maintained perfect calm during his interrogation by the police. He informed the police that he came from London, where he went on a fertile search for work. There he obtained assistance from the Italian Embassy,
