—ORDAINED TO PRIESTHOOD — Congratulations are being extended to Rev. Leslie A. Dignan on his ordination to the Priesthood on July 10th in All Saints Cathedral, Halifax, by Most Rev. G. F. Kingston, Archbishop of Nova Scotia and Primate of all Canada. Rev. Mr. Dignan is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Dignan of Woodstock about three miles from O'Leary. He is the Rector of the Port Hill Anglican Church and his many friends wish him God's richest blessing in his chosen work. —O.

—TRANSFERRED TO DARTMOUTH—Mr. Arthur Belyea, teller at the Bank of Nova Scotia, Kensington, has been transferred to Dartmouth, N. S., and left on Wednesday of this week to take up his duties there. He had become very popular at Kensington, and will be greatly missed. On Wednesday evening of last week, about 24 of his young friends gave Arthur a farewell party at Brookins' Lodge, New London. As a token of their affection and esteem, they gave him as a parting gift, a revised version of the Bible, a billfold, complete with a sum of money, and a gold watch bracelet. Music for dancing was furnished by Norman Mill and Johnny Inglis, the young ladies served refreshments, and another pleasant memory goes with Arthur to his new post.—Bur.

—MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER — Miss Doris Johnstone was tendered a pre-nuptial shower at the home of her parents, Lt.-Col. and Mrs. W. E. Johnstone, Burlington, on Wednesday evening, July 13th, when she was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. The rooms were gay with cut flowers, potted plants, pink and white streamers and wedding bells. A profusion of flowers made a lovely background for the daintily decorated bridal chair, to which the bride-to-be, lovely, in pale pink with a white corsage, was escorted by Mrs. Arthur Johnstone, while Mrs. Murdock MacLeod played marital music. The well filled baskets were placed before the guest-of-honor, by Misses Betty Johnstone and Evelyn MacEwen. As the parcels were opened by Miss Jean Adams and Miss Louise MacLeod, the donor's names were read by Mrs. Archie Johnstone and Mrs. Archie Paynter. After being admired by the bride-to-be, the gifts were arranged by Miss Jean MacLeod and Miss Nettie MacEwen. In her usual pleasing manner, Doris expressed her thanks and invited her friends to visit her in her future home. The remainder of the evening passed pleasantly with social intercourse, and music, with Mrs. James Campbell of Park Corner at the piano. A delicious lunch was served by several of the ladies.—Bur.

—ANNUAL MEETING — The annual meeting of the Knutsford Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist Church was held at the home of Mrs. Albert Smallman. A familiar hymn was sung. Mrs. Earl Jelly read the Scripture. A reading, "The Great Adventure" was given by Mrs. C. O. Howlett. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Alex MacDonald. The secretary read the minutes. Election of officees resulted as follows: President: Mrs. Dan Smallman. Vice President, Mrs. (Dr.) George Dewar. Secretary, Mrs. Murray Sweet. Treasurer, Mrs. Avard Harris. Asst. Treasurer, Mrs. Albert Smallman. Organist, Mrs. (Rev.) C. O. Howlett. Asst. Organist, Mrs. Avard Harris. Baby Band Supt., Mrs. Arthur Harris and Mrs Ralph Adams. Mission Band Leader, Mrs. C. O. Howlett and Mrs. Nelson Dennis. The Guild, Mrs. Dan Smallman, Mrs. Dewar, Mrs. Avard Harris. The Tidings, Mrs. Alex MacDonald, Mrs. Arthur Harris. Mite Box Secretary, Mrs. Dennis. The Social and Membership Committee were re-elected: Mrs. Howlett, Mrs. Ed Smallman, Mrs. Earl Jelly. The "Sick" Committee: Mrs. Ralph Adams, Mrs. Percy Sweet, Mrs. Alex MacDonald and Mrs. Murray Sweet. Condolence: Mrs. Arthur Harris. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the officers for their excellent service. The meeting closed by all joining hands and by singing "Blest be the tie that binds." Delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. —O.

Palmer-Picketts Wedding

A pretty summer wedding was solemnized on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Kelvin Grove at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Picketts, when their daughter, Marion Alice, was united in marriage to Lorne James Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Palmer, Summerside. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. L. M. Murray in the presence of fifty assembled guests. The home was beautifully decorated with a profusion of flowers, and the birdal party stood under a wedding bell.

To the strains of the Bridal Chorus, played by Mr. Davis Murray, the bride entered the room on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She was lovely in her floor-length wedding gown of white moire, with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a circlet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Gwennyth Davison, who wore a floor-length frock of pale green taffeta, long lace mitts and her headdress was a circlet of flowers. She carried a bouquet of red carnations. Little Judy Picketts, the bride's sister, was winsome in pink organdie with blue ribbon trim and carried a basket of mixed summer flowers. Mr. Willard Hogg attended the groom.

During the signing of the register Mr. Murray played "O Perfect Love."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held. Receiving with the bridal party were the bride's mother, who wore a dress of apple green silk jersey and a corsage of yellow roses, and the groom's mother, who was dressed in a gown of forget-me-not blue silk jersey, with black accessories and a corsage of Pink Delight roses.

The bride's table, with its artistic arrangement of flowers, was centred with a beautifuly decorated three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Darrell Picketts presided over the tea urn while the Misses Kathleen Picketts, Greta Palmer, Irene Smallman, Barbara Smallman assisted in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer left by motor on a honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia, the bride travelling in a suit of cocoa brown gabardine with beige accessories. On return they will reside in Summerside, where the groom is on the staff of R. T. Holman, Ltd. S
