ACT TO INCORPORATE P. E. I. FOX BREEDER'S ASSN

that may be considered necessary regarding the breeding and pedigree of foxes, capitalization, cost of equipping and maintaining ranch, of any incorporated company, voluntary association, partnership or individual member of the Association, owning and breeding foxes and all such information when not given voluntarily or to the satisfaction of the Executive of the Association, may be obtained by the Executive summoning such persons as may be desired, to appear before them, at a place and date to be named in the summons, to give evidence under oath touching such matters under consideration. Failure to answer such summons or to give evidence may be punished by fines, suspensions or expulsions.

22. From and after the date of passing of this Act, membership will not be granted in the Association to any company, voluntary association, partnership or individual, unless, before offering their capital stock for public subscription, a copy of the Prospectus is submitted to the Executive of the Association. The Executive, before giving a Certificate of Approval of the Prospectus, must satisfy itself that all representations regarding the finances of the company, ownership of property, number and kind of foxes on hand, or to be purchased, are correct, that the company is not over capitalized and that the promoters or provisional directors are men of acceptable reputation and character. After the Certificate of Approval is obtained and incorporation granted no changes may be made in the Prospectus or in the carrying out of its provisions without the approval of the Executive of the Association to whom application shall be made in which are fully set forth the proposed changes, and any parties making such changes and neglecting to conform with those provisions shall, on proof of such, forfeit their right of becoming members of the Association. All members making future stock subscriptions must also conform to the conditions of this Section.

23. The Association or any of its officers shall not be liable for any action in any Court of Law or Equity for any loss or damage they may have sustained by virtue of any bona fide act done in pursuance of this Act, its by-laws or regulations; and for any action so brought, the defendant or defendants may plead the general issue and give this Act and the special matter in evidence.

24. The Association shall have the right of declining to register or enroll pedigrees or to register transfers of membership when in the opinion of the Executive the application for Registration or Enrollment or Transfer is not in accordance with facts and where there is just cause or reason it may cancel the Registration or Enrollment of any fox already accepted and registered.

25. Any member of the Association who shall be found guilty of any misrepresentation, deception or fraud in relation to the registry of animals in the Herd of Enrollment Books of the Association shall forfeit all his privileges in the Association and shall be debarred from further registry or transfer of any foxes.

26. The Directors may from time to time, make, alter, vary or repeal By-laws to regulate, prescribe and establish:

(a) The appointment, duties, functions, and removal of all Officers, Agents and Servants of the Association, the security to be given by them and their remuneration, the manner of making records and all forms and certificates required for use by the Secretary or other Officers of the Association.

(b) The time at which, and place where the meetings of the Association shall be held, the callings of the meetings as to Officers and the procedure in all things at all meetings.

(c) The mode or manner of admission of members and the fees chargeable, if any.

(d) A system whereby all foxes in captivity in the Province of the Province may be registered or enrolled.

(e) And generally all such By-laws as may be deemed necessary to the more effectually carrying out the objects and purposes of this Act and the management of the business of the Association provided always that all By-laws or any alteration or repeal thereof shall have no force or effect until the same are ratified by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council when so ratified shall only continue in force until the first annual meeting of the Association unless the same are approved by a majority vote at such meeting.

27. Notwithstanding anything contained in the "County Courts" Amendment Act, 1878, limiting its jurisdiction either as to the subject matter to be litigated or as to the amount of the claim any one or more shareholders of any incorporated fox company representing in the aggregate ten per cent of the total paid up capital of such company, if dissatisfied with the sum charged or submitted by the Directors or voted for at meeting of shareholders for the keep of the ranch and the management and running expenses of such company including any compensation voted for the Directors, may within sixty days after meeting of shareholders at which such charges were submitted, apply by written petition to the Judge of the County Court, of the County wherein such company has its ranch or chief place of business, which petition shall contain the names and addresses of the Directors of the Company, the date of such meeting, the amount of the paid up capital of such company and the proportion of such capital owned by the applicant, the amount of the charges for keep and management submitted or voted, and the grounds of objection thereto, and shall be signed by the applicants and verified by the affidavit of one of them.

28. On such petition being presented the Judge of such County may make an order requiring the Directors of such company, or such of them as may reside within the Province, to appear before him at a time and place to be named in such order and give full and detailed particulars of the keep of such ranch and the cost thereof and of the management and running expenses of such company and show cause why the amount of such charges should not be settled or fixed by such Judge.

29. Such order may be served on the Directors in the same manner as summonses issued out of the County Court are served on defendants and ten clear days shall elapse between the service of such order and the return thereof.

30. The Judge, on return of such order, shall inquire into, ascertain, examine and investigate the charges and expenses connected with the management of such company and the maintenance of the ranch and, for such purpose, shall hear and examine under oath all such witnesses and evidence bearing on the petition as may be produced before him either by the Petitioners or the Directors; and the Directors are required to produce before the Judge on such return all the books of the company and all the papers and vouchers referring to the business of the Company which are in their possession or custody or under their control.

31. The Judge, having heard such parties, their witnesses and evidence, shall fix and determine in a summary manner the sum or amount which he may consider right and just to allow for the management and running expenses of such company and the keep and maintenance of its ranch for the period complained of and the sum or amount fixed and determined shall be the proper charge for such management and the Directors will render themselves personally liable to the Company for paying out of its funds any greater or larger sum, notwithstanding such greater or larger amount may have been voted at a meeting of such company's shareholders and a suit for the recovery of such larger amount may be commenced and prosecuted by any shareholder in the name of the Company in any Court in this Province having jurisdiction.

32. If the Directors do not attend upon the return of such summons the Judge may, if he sees fit on proof of service proceed ex parte and on the evidence submitted before him by the Petitioners hear and determine the matter of the petition and fix and settle on such evidence the sum which he may consider right and just to allow for the management and running expenses of such company and the keep and maintenance of its ranch for the period complained of and the sum or amount so fixed and determined shall be the proper charge for such management and the provisions contained in the preceding Section for the recovery from the Directors of any greater or larger sum shall be considered as applicable to this Section.

33. The proceedings before the Judge of such court shall be carried on as nearly as may be in the same manner as an ordinary suit within the jurisdiction of the Court and subpoenas ad testificandum and duces tecum commanding the attendance as a witness of any person who is within the Province, may be issued in the usual manner out of Court.

34. The powers of amendment conferred by the County Court Act, 1904, in proceeding in the County Court shall apply to all proceedings under this Act.

35. The Judge may from time to time adjourn the hearing of such petition or make any interim or other order that he deems just.

36. The fees for witnesses shall be the same as in the County Court.

37. The Judge may, if he sees fit, award costs to either party according to the scale of the County Court and every order for the payment of costs shall be deemed a judgment of the County Court and may be enforced against the goods and chattels of the party ordered to pay in the manner in which judgments of the County Court obtained in any suit may be enforced.

38. Every witness appearing before the Judge on the return of such summons, who refuses without lawful excuse to answer any question put to him, shall be guilty of contempt of Court and shall be subject to all process and punishments of such County Court for contempt.

39. Any party to a proceeding before a Judge of the County Court dissatisfied with the judgment of such Judge, shall have the right to appeal to the Supreme Court.

CLASSIFICATION

The rules for Classification, Registration and Enrolments of all foxes owned or in future to be owned by members of this Association:

This Association shall open a register for the registration of native bred Prince Edward Island Silver, Black Foxes and for these that meet the requirements laid down in the following rule as necessary for admission to registration in this Register. The Register shall be known as "The Prince Edward Island Standard Bred Silver Black Fox Register." By the term "Native Bred Prince Edward Island Silver Black Fox" is meant a Silver Black Fox that is exclusively the descendant of those native to the Province or of those that were owned and bred in captivity in the Province, prior to June 1st, 1910.

Rule 1. For the purpose of establishing a standard of breeding for Prince Edward Island Silver Black Foxes all Silver Black Foxes held in captivity in the Province prior to June 1, 1910, will be considered foundation stock, and are eligible to registration in the Standard Bred Register of the Prince Edward Island Fox Breeders Association, provided always that each parent was a true Silver Black, and that no red or rust was shown in any members of the litters to which these said foxes belong.

Rule 2. Any Silver Black Fox whose parents are registered in the Standard Bred Register shall be eligible for registration in the Standard Class.

Rule 3. Any native ranch-bred Prince Edward Island Silver Black Fox shall be eligible to registration in the Standard Class provided that for three generations all members in the direct line are true Silver Black, and that there is no rust in any of the litters to which these three generations belong.

Rule 4. Any Silver Black Fox shall be eligible for registration in the Standard Class whose lineage for three generations are true Silver Blacks, free from rust and whose sire or dam is a Standard bred registered fox, provided also that either the sire or dam in each mating in the second and third generation each is a standard bred registered fox.

This Association shall also open a register for the registration of ranch bred Silver Black Foxes that meet the requirements set down in the following rule: This register shall be known as "The Imported Ranch Bred Silver Black Fox Register."

QUALIFICATION FOR REGISTRATION

Rule 1. Any Silver Black ranch bred fox wholly or in part of imported strains, not eligible to registration in the Standard Class, shall be eligible to registration in his Class, provided that the parents and grandparents are Silver Blacks, free from rust, and were bred in captivity.

ENROLMENT

An Enrolment Book shall be kept in which shall be recorded the age, sex, present and previous ownership, identification mark, place of birth, ascension and breeding if known, of all foxes owned by members in the ranches in Prince Edward Island, other than those registered in either of the two registers of this Association. The description of the fox shall state to what variety of fox the animal belongs, and shall note any abnormalities. No fox shall be described as Silver Black whose coat shows red or rusty hair.

Application forms for admission of foxes to either register or to the Enrolment Book will be furnished by the Secretary of the Association on request. A copy of the application describing each fox shall be furnished to the Inspector by the owner at the time of the official visit of the Inspector to the ranch. The Inspector shall have the right to suggest to the owner any changes that he sees proper to make in the application form for the better description of the animals. In case of disagreement between the owner and the Inspector, the report of the Inspector shall be taken, the owner always having the right to appeal from the decision of the Inspector to the Executive, who, if they deem the cause of dispute of sufficient consequence, may appoint other representatives, or may in person hold an investigation into the merits of the appeal. The cost of such investigation shall be borne by the owner if the Inspector's report is upheld.

It shall be the duty of the Inspector to view each fox and to place his identification mark on each and at the same time satisfy himself that the animals so marked corresponds with the description contained in the application form, which shall be filed by the Secretary.
