The advertising manager of the Aecolian company, New York, says: "We put a Placina announcement in the New York morning newspapers, and eight hundred people visited Aecolia Hall that same day as the result of that announcement. Yet not a single one of the eight hundred had the remotest idea of coming before he ate his breakfast. The daily paper will accomplish such things, and I don't know of any other medium on earth that will."

As The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, established some months ago, has been so greatly appreciated, and has been the means of securing employment for so many people and help for so many business houses and housekeepers, it has been decided to establish in connection with this paper, an Advertising Agency. Thus any persons or firms desiring advertising in any newspaper outside of this city, can have same placed by The Guardian. They can thus secure the same rates as if they placed their order directly and have each advertisement checked to see that it gets the proper number of insertions and appears as desired.

THE regular monthly meeting of the Free Temperance society, of Glenwood, was held in Glenwood hall on Friday evening, Sept. 7th, 1906. The president Rev. D. McLean, occupied the chair, and opened the meeting with singing, Scripture reading and prayer. The program was as follows:—

Opening address—The President. Recitation—Bertha Boulter. Speech—Andrew W. Gay. Reading—Evelyn Boyle. Speech—Michael McDonald. Speech—A. W. Boyle. Recitation—Mary Boulter. Speech—Albert Gay. Organist—Evelyn Boyle.

Notwithstanding that the evening was dark and cloudy, the attendance was large, the hall being crowded to the door. The exercises were interspersed with singing of Gospel hymns.

SUDDENLY at Crapaud, on the 9th inst the spirit of George Nicholson passed away. Although advanced in years, being in his 76th year, the deceased had been in fairly good health with the exception of a paralytic stroke, some time ago. The death took place at 6 o'clock, just as he awoke, when it is thought he took another slight stroke as he could not speak and expired almost immediately. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing widow, one daughter Mrs Joseph MacDonald, Seattle Washington; and two sons George, Crapaud, and Edgar of Albany. One son, John died over a year ago. Mr Nicholson's familiar figure will be much missed in Crapaud as he was always an energetic man, carrying on his blacksmith trade for a long time past. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family. The funeral will take place today at 2 p.m. to the old Crapaud Cemetery.

NEW FALL
COATS THAT ARE DIFFERENT

A LACK of individuality is often noticed in women's ready-to-wear garments that tends toward a corresponding lack of interest on the part of the public.

You may visit store after store and find garments that are practically duplicates. We want to show you that this store is DIFFERENT and there's no better way to do it than by urging you to come and see these new coats—They have all the leading characteristics of a custom made coat—cleverly cut, simple, loose back, broad shoulders.

A handsome tight fitted coat of plaid cloth, with reseda green cloth trimmings, and collar and cuffs. Cloth straps on seams are piped with reseda green. Large steel and pearl buttons complete it and the lining is black Italian cloth. . . . $28.50

Another in box coat style is of gray and gray plaid, with patch pockets, large steel buttons and strapped seams. The trimming is of reseda green velvet set in. Price. . . . $19.50

A dark green and gray plaid is shown in a long coat with tight fitted back, a full pleat falling from belt at waist line, three pleats from shoulders forming a yoke. Patch pockets, dark green broad cloth collar and cuffs edged with black silk braid, handsome enamel buttons. . . . $22.75

A heavy frieze loose box coat in red is an elegant garment. It is trimmed with straps and black silk velvet. Lined throughout with Italian cloth. . . . $13.75

Black chiffon broadcloth is the material used in a beautiful coat in 7-8 length. The newest style sleeve, flat collar and black silk braid trimmings complete it. . . . $25.50

These are prices and styles chosen at random among the many. But the latest and best in every way are here for your inspection and choice.

We will be pleased to show them.

You will be pleased when you see them.

And we will take your order if you want anything we do not show.
