

The Paper That
Covers Prince Edward Island
Like The Dew

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

The People's Paper Read by Everybody

All The News
Worth While Printing
All The Ads
Worth Reading

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA SATURDAY, MARCH 4, 1922

By Mail, Canada, $3.00. U. S. A. $4.50
Annual Subscription, Delivered $5.00.

Much Green Timber for Ship of State

(Special to The Guardian)
OTTAWA, March 3.—Parliament will get started next week with little in the nature of private members' resolutions and questions on the order paper. Instead of a score or more, there are but two resolutions in the hands of House officials at this date.

Peculiar Mishap to Fish Laden Schooner

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., March 3.—As the schooner Harriet, owned by Earle Sons and Company, was leaving St. John's Nfld., last week for port with a cargo of fish a most unusual accident occurred. The vessel was being towed by the tug Here, and when passing halfway stage the tug was struck by a part of ice, and thrown over "Pancake Rock" and her rudder unshipped. The Harriet, towing behind, was also caught on the rock. The tugs Hutch D. and John Green rushed to her assistance and by breaking up the ice around succeeded after a couple of hours in getting her clear. The vessel was then towed to a safe place in Hay Cove where an examination was made. It was found that she had not suffered any damages and was able to proceed on her voyage.

Geddes' Report Gets The Pruning Knife

LONDON, March 3.—The Government could not insist upon a reduction of the personnel of the army, today, by Sir Robert Horne, Chancellor of the Exchequer, speaking with regard to the report of the Economy Committee, head by Sir Eric Geddes, which recently recommended the reduction of 50,000 officers and men in the army.

The Chancellor said the Government had recommended the cancellation of the army of 24 battalions of the line, equivalent to five cavalry regiments, and a reduction of the artillery by 40 per cent. The Government added Sir Robert had proposed a reduction in the education estimates of £2,500,000 out of the £1,800,000 reduction suggested by the Geddes report.

CHATHAM SHOWS APPRECIATION

The following telegram of hearty congratulations and appreciation has been received by His Worship Mayor Jenkins from J. Y. Mersereau, Mayor of Chatham, N. B., March 3, 1922.

CONDENSED SPECIALS

RATES.—10c per line per day, 2c per line per day for 3 days or over, 3c a line per day for 6 days or over. Count 5 words to a line. Groups of 5 figures, initial letters, count as one word. 10 per cent. discount for one word. Address forms part of address and must be paid for. Special Rates furnished on request. For seven words for one word. Situation wanted, for seven words, 50c per week.

WANTED TO BUY—A ROUBEN

drako, also a bronze goblet. Apply, stating price, to M. care of Guardian Office.

Harcourt Died Of an Overdose; Not a Suicide

LONDON, March 3.—"Death from misadventure" was the verdict rendered at the inquest today into the death of Viscount Harcourt. Evidence was given to show that death was due to syncope, while the viscount was suffering from pulmonary disease, and was accelerated by an overdose of bromide. The coroner added that it was grotesque to suggest that Viscount Harcourt had committed suicide.

Hoover Investigating Fielding's Proposal

(Special to The Guardian)
WASHINGTON, March 3.—Secretary of Commerce Hoover this morning directed the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce to investigate as to what products of the United States and Canada might be included in a possible reciprocity arrangement, and whether there is any practical basis for such an arrangement. The action of Secretary Hoover grew out of the visit of Hon. W. S. Fielding, Canadian Minister of Finance, and his conferences with officials here.

Wish of Newlyweds to Be Left in Seclusion

SHIPENGL, England, March 3.—The honeymoon of Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles, who were married in London yesterday, will be spent in seclusion at Weston Park. If their wishes are observed, they expressed great gratitude today for the tremendous display of good-will at their coming, but now they frankly wish to be left alone in their manor with it, 11,000 acres of playground.

Germans Sell Secrets of War To the Japanese

BERLIN, March 3.—German military and naval secrets of much importance have come into the hands of Japanese Government agents, according to information which has reached authoritative circles in Berlin. Among these are processes for the manufacture of gas shells, the formula for a contact fuse which the Germans used advantageously for range-finding when time-explosive fuses were unsatisfactory, and certain submarine plans and naval secrets, which have been betrayed to the detriment of the German Empire.

Convention of Royal Temperance Templars

TORONTO, March 3.—"So long as the prohibition law is being broken by blind pigs, bootleggers or rum-runners, or by any other province in the Dominion is not gone dry, our work is not completed," said Grand Conclavesman, of this city, in his report to the Grand Council of Ontario, Royal Temperance Templars, at the opening of its 35th annual convention here yesterday. The financial report was regarded as satisfactory, but there was a slight decrease in the membership of the Royal Templars.

Soviet Ready to Grant Demands if Loan Forthcoming

MOSCOW, March 3.—The soviet delegation to Genoa will carry instructions to grant all concessions, provided a big reconstruction loan can be obtained. If this loan cannot be obtained, then from the Russian point of view, the conference has only the moral value of recognition of the present Government.

Ministerial Crisis In Egypt Solved

CAIRO, Egypt, March 3.—Since the return here of Field Marshal Allenby, the Ministerial crisis has been solved. A new cabinet has been formed with Abdel Khalek Stearns, Premier and Minister of the Interior, and Sarwat Pasha as foreign minister. It is expected that negotiations now will begin looking for an agreement, abolishing the British protectorate.

Ten Millions Saved

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, March 3.—Sir Robert Horne, Chancellor of the Exchequer, today a questioner in the House of Commons this afternoon that approximately £10,000,000 sterling had been saved on estimates for the forthcoming financial year as a consequence of the decisions reached at the Washington Conference.

Gives Full Report Of Pope's Election

ROME, March 3.—The official report of the Holy See on the election of Pope Pius XI has been completed. It gives details of the events up to the closing of the conclave sessions. The report says: "The consultations and balloting of the Fathers lasted three days. Finally, on February 6, the Most Eminent and Most Reverend Cardinal Ratti was elected supreme Pontiff."

DYNAMITING INCREASING IN MINING DISTRICTS IN S. A.

LONDON, March 3.—Dynamiting is increasing in the disturbed mining districts of South Africa. Reuter's Johannesburg correspondent states. Eight heavy explosions occurred today, five on the power line. Little damage was done however. An attempt was made on the railway line near Appex Station while other attempts at doing damage were reported on the water line at Benoni. There has been an explosion near Bokburg, but the exact location has not yet been ascertained.

PROVES GUN SAFE DIES IN HOSPITAL

BOSTON, March 3.—To demonstrate to friends that his new automobile pistol was not dangerous, Paul T. Magrath held it against his head and pulled the trigger in the office of a West Roxbury garage, where he was employed, shortly after he died at a hospital here tonight.

O.E.S. Entertainment At Masonic Hall

New Organized Society Hold First Reception Very Successfully.

The members of Crystal Chapter No. 1 Order of the Eastern Star, an organization of women, members of St. John's Lodge No. 1, A. F. and A. M. and their wives, at the Chapter Hall, Masonic Temple, last night.

Stm. Sisto Escapes From the Ice Floes

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., March 3.—The escape of the Norwegian steamer Sisto from the ice floes that have held her fast since February 16, some distance off the New ice, was announced today in a radio message from her captain received here today. He reports that with a shift of the wind to the westward the floes have moved enough to enable the steamer to work her way clear and that she was proceeding toward Cape Race. If the Sisto, which had previously reported that her provisions were almost exhausted, does not get caught again, it is expected she will reach here tomorrow night.

No Coal Strike in Nova Scotia

MONTREAL, March 3.—In agreement in the matter of wages and working conditions was reached this afternoon by the executive of District 26 (Nova Scotia and New Brunswick) United Mine Workers of America, and officials of the British Empire Steel Corporation, who have been in conference here for the past two days.

Germany Opposes Allied Demand

BERLIN, March 3.—The request of General Deseoutre, commander of the allied troops on the Rhine, for a new drill ground in the Barbarian Palatinate and a small gauge railroad leading to the German government, in regard to the violation of the peace treaty and not in accord with the Rhineland agreement, which did not obligate Germany to establish more drill places.

Little Boy Saved

SYDNEY, March 2.—When Chalmers Mamilton, aged five, fell through a hole in the harbor levee and was in danger of drowning, his brother Hugh, aged seven, crept up to the edge of the hole, got Chalmers by the hand and kept his head above water for fifteen minutes until help arrived. The boys are sons of Rev. J. H. Hamilton, secretary of the Social Service Council.

EMBARGO PLACED ON GRAIN SHIPMENTS

CALGARY, March 3.—An embargo has been placed on all shipments of grain to the Pacific coast. This has been rendered necessary owing to the large accumulation of wheat that has been in transit now for a considerable time and which is causing a congestion at Vancouver.

New Leader For Ontario Liberals

(Special to The Guardian)
TORONTO, March 3.—The Liberal convention in Forester's Hall yesterday, chose F. Wellington Day for North Perth as the new leader for Ontario, the selection being determined by one ballot. Announcement as to the actual vote was not made but it was known unofficially that the proponent was in his favor.

Increases Shown In Employment In the Dominion

OTTAWA, March 2.—The first two weeks of January show marked increase in employment throughout the Dominion, in comparison with the similar period a year ago. Returns received by the Employment Service Branch of the Department of Labor from 5,800 firms with a total payroll of $41,146 per cent. show that increases in staff could take to his home for dinner.

Quebec Blackmailer Gets Three Years in The Penitentiary

QUEBEC, March 3.—Adelard Denis, aged 30 years, was sentenced to a term of three years in penitentiary by Magistrate Choquette yesterday after he had been found guilty of blackmailing Dr. L. Bercard.

London Pawn Shops Cater to Nobility

NEW YORK, March 3.—London pawnbrokers are competing keenly for the letting of court apparel to poor but proud people invited to Princess Mary's wedding. The personal columns of London newspapers arriving here today were filled with advertisements offering for rent everything from rhinestones slipper buckles to swords and cocked hats.

Germany Opposes Allied Demand

BERLIN, March 3.—The request of General Deseoutre, commander of the allied troops on the Rhine, for a new drill ground in the Barbarian Palatinate and a small gauge railroad leading to the German government, in regard to the violation of the peace treaty and not in accord with the Rhineland agreement, which did not obligate Germany to establish more drill places.

Germany Opposes Allied Demand

BERLIN, March 3.—The allied powers are expected to refer the whole question of German reparations back to the reparations commission for decision after a meeting of the finance ministers of their governments here on March 9.

Announcements, Coming Events, Meetings, Etc.

RATES.—10c per line per day, 2c per line per day for 3 days or over, 3c a line per day for 6 days or over. Count 5 words to a line. Groups of 5 figures, initial letters, count as one word. 10 per cent. discount for one word. Address forms part of ad and must be paid for.

Miners Strike Threatens in Western Canada

(Special to The Guardian)
CALGARY, March 3.—A strike of coal miners affecting approximately 9,000 men in the United Mine Workers of America, District number 18, comprising Southern Alberta and part of Eastern British Columbia, seems inevitable on the conclusion of the first day's negotiations regarding the new wage scale.

Increases Shown In Employment In the Dominion

OTTAWA, March 2.—The first two weeks of January show marked increase in employment throughout the Dominion, in comparison with the similar period a year ago. Returns received by the Employment Service Branch of the Department of Labor from 5,800 firms with a total payroll of $41,146 per cent. show that increases in staff could take to his home for dinner.

Quebec Blackmailer Gets Three Years in The Penitentiary

QUEBEC, March 3.—Adelard Denis, aged 30 years, was sentenced to a term of three years in penitentiary by Magistrate Choquette yesterday after he had been found guilty of blackmailing Dr. L. Bercard.

London Pawn Shops Cater to Nobility

NEW YORK, March 3.—London pawnbrokers are competing keenly for the letting of court apparel to poor but proud people invited to Princess Mary's wedding. The personal columns of London newspapers arriving here today were filled with advertisements offering for rent everything from rhinestones slipper buckles to swords and cocked hats.

Germany Opposes Allied Demand

BERLIN, March 3.—The request of General Deseoutre, commander of the allied troops on the Rhine, for a new drill ground in the Barbarian Palatinate and a small gauge railroad leading to the German government, in regard to the violation of the peace treaty and not in accord with the Rhineland agreement, which did not obligate Germany to establish more drill places.

Germany Opposes Allied Demand

BERLIN, March 3.—The allied powers are expected to refer the whole question of German reparations back to the reparations commission for decision after a meeting of the finance ministers of their governments here on March 9.

Announcements, Coming Events, Meetings, Etc.

RATES.—10c per line per day, 2c per line per day for 3 days or over, 3c a line per day for 6 days or over. Count 5 words to a line. Groups of 5 figures, initial letters, count as one word. 10 per cent. discount for one word. Address forms part of ad and must be paid for.

Prison Board Chairman Shot In Dublin

(Special to The Guardian)
BELFAST, March 3.—Mar. S. Green, Chairman of the Irish Prison Board, was shot and killed in Dublin this morning, a Dublin message announces. He was a son-in-law of the late John Redmond the Irish Nationalist Leader.

Unusual Pre- parations for Hunters' Dinner

(Special to The Guardian)
NEW YORK, March 3.—Chiefs of the Hotel Astoria busied themselves today with such unaccustomed vicissitudes as loins of Canadian buffalo, beaver tails, Yukon partridge, Hudson Bay ice fish, and the making of Labrador flapjacks in preparation for the annual dinner tonight of the Canadian Camp. Nearly 600 sportsmen and sportswomen on whom the lure of the Northland has fallen will be present, many of them journeying hundreds of miles to sink tooth in hunters' fare and revive memories of their days with gun and rod.

Unusual Pre- parations for Hunters' Dinner

(Special to The Guardian)
NEW YORK, March 3.—Chiefs of the Hotel Astoria busied themselves today with such unaccustomed vicissitudes as loins of Canadian buffalo, beaver tails, Yukon partridge, Hudson Bay ice fish, and the making of Labrador flapjacks in preparation for the annual dinner tonight of the Canadian Camp. Nearly 600 sportsmen and sportswomen on whom the lure of the Northland has fallen will be present, many of them journeying hundreds of miles to sink tooth in hunters' fare and revive memories of their days with gun and rod.

Unusual Pre- parations for Hunters' Dinner

(Special to The Guardian)
NEW YORK, March 3.—Chiefs of the Hotel Astoria busied themselves today with such unaccustomed vicissitudes as loins of Canadian buffalo, beaver tails, Yukon partridge, Hudson Bay ice fish, and the making of Labrador flapjacks in preparation for the annual dinner tonight of the Canadian Camp. Nearly 600 sportsmen and sportswomen on whom the lure of the Northland has fallen will be present, many of them journeying hundreds of miles to sink tooth in hunters' fare and revive memories of their days with gun and rod.

Unusual Pre- parations for Hunters' Dinner

(Special to The Guardian)
NEW YORK, March 3.—Chiefs of the Hotel Astoria busied themselves today with such unaccustomed vicissitudes as loins of Canadian buffalo, beaver tails, Yukon partridge, Hudson Bay ice fish, and the making of Labrador flapjacks in preparation for the annual dinner tonight of the Canadian Camp. Nearly 600 sportsmen and sportswomen on whom the lure of the Northland has fallen will be present, many of them journeying hundreds of miles to sink tooth in hunters' fare and revive memories of their days with gun and rod.

Unusual Pre- parations for Hunters' Dinner

(Special to The Guardian)
NEW YORK, March 3.—Chiefs of the Hotel Astoria busied themselves today with such unaccustomed vicissitudes as loins of Canadian buffalo, beaver tails, Yukon partridge, Hudson Bay ice fish, and the making of Labrador flapjacks in preparation for the annual dinner tonight of the Canadian Camp. Nearly 600 sportsmen and sportswomen on whom the lure of the Northland has fallen will be present, many of them journeying hundreds of miles to sink tooth in hunters' fare and revive memories of their days with gun and rod.

Unusual Pre- parations for Hunters' Dinner

(Special to The Guardian)
NEW YORK, March 3.—Chiefs of the Hotel Astoria busied themselves today with such unaccustomed vicissitudes as loins of Canadian buffalo, beaver tails, Yukon partridge, Hudson Bay ice fish, and the making of Labrador flapjacks in preparation for the annual dinner tonight of the Canadian Camp. Nearly 600 sportsmen and sportswomen on whom the lure of the Northland has fallen will be present, many of them journeying hundreds of miles to sink tooth in hunters' fare and revive memories of their days with gun and rod.

THE ST. JAMES CHURCH
Cake Sale at Moore & McCleod's, starts today at 2.30.

