

To Buy or Sell without a Broker

Were there no brokerage houses, what confusion would result in the world's business! Governments, public utilities, industries striving to raise capital by private solicitation and sale of securities—individuals blindly seeking other individuals when they wanted to buy or sell securities—no protection for investors save by their individual efforts and personal investigations of enterprises—non-standardized prices for staple commodities and for securities—a slowing up of commerce

Brokerage houses have become an integral part of the commercial world, responsible for much national and industrial development, an aid and safeguard to business enterprises and individual investors.

This brokerage house offers unusually wide facilities—twelve offices—membership on five exchanges—private wire connections with leading financial centres—the advice of officers of long experience.

In Memoriam

MR. GEORGE BEARISTO

The news of the death of Mr. George T. Bearisto which occurred at his home in West Covehead, on Thursday 28th. inst., will be learned with sincere and widespread regret in both city and country.

He was sixty-five years of age and was a son of the late Mr. John Bearisto of that place, and on his father's death many years ago, he carried on the farm and lived in the old homestead. The Bearisto home was noted for its generous hospitality both in the time of George and his father. All were always assured of a hearty welcome there. He was a progressive farmer and he also took an active interest in christian matters.

All will unite in extending their sympathy to the bereaved widow (Annie Miller) and family of two sons and two daughters. The funeral took place Sunday at 2 o'clock.

Potash deposits have been discovered in Russia that are said to be as large as those now being operated in Germany.

The Honduran Congress has granted a concession of 5,000 acres of national land for the establishment of silk culture.

Mr. Van Iderstine who received his early education in the public schools of Charlottetown is an estimable young man of strong character and sound business sense. His many friends in the city and Province will wish him every success in his new field of endeavor.
- MR. L. H. D. FOSTER'S RESIGNATION—In connection with the resignation of Mr. L. H. D. Foster, Marshfield, of the representation here of the International Harvester Company of Canada, owing to ill health, it should be mentioned that Mr. Foster has been Provincial representative here of other large agricultural concerns since 1910 and has therefore the past eighteen years been in close touch with the farmers of the Province who will greatly regret his resignation. Mr. Foster appreciates very highly the support and cooperation he has always received from the Company's agents here.

AGRICULTURE in Canada...

CANADA'S greatest industry undoubtedly is farming. Man still finds one of his greatest rewards in planting seed and reaping grain. The farmer is now recognized by all classes of Canadians as the most important producer Canada possesses.

But, this recognition has come only after years of the most heart-breaking toil, and a personal and individual struggle with nature in her varying moods that has made the farmer the truly noble figure he is today.

For the farm has been rendered more agreeable since the introduction of electricity. This great force lights the house, the barn and the stables; runs the churns, thrashes the wheat, milks the cows and makes possible the telephone.

Electricity is the servant that never loses its temper, never resigns and never has to be discharged.

The Northern Electric Company manufactures and sells many of the adjuncts that lighten the work of farm life—cables, wires, telephones, electric ranges, electric washers, electric irons and many other units that make possible the application of electricity.

Information...

The area of occupied field crops in 1918 was 51,427,190 acres and in 1928 57,796,226 acres. Dominion Government estimates that there are approximately 2 1/2 times the present acreage still available for agricultural purposes. This includes grazing lands and all lands possible of devotion to similar purposes.
