

S'IDE AND PRINCE CO.

At St. John's church, St. Eleanors, yesterday evening Mr. W. W. Baker of Summerside and Miss Ethel M. Cannon of St. Eleanors, were united in marriage by the rector, Rev. J. M. Withycombe. The church was handsomely decorated for the occasion and the ceremony was witnessed by a large number of friends of the happy couple, both of whom are among our most popular young people. Mr. Wesley Crosby and Miss Andrew performed the respective duties of groomsman and bridesmaid. After the ceremony a number of invited guests enjoyed a pleasant evening at the home of Mrs. R. H. Montgomery, sister of the bride after which Mr. and Mrs. Baker drove to their future home on Church Street, Summerside. With their host of other friends THE GUARDIAN wishes them a continuous Happy Xmas

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Henry Gordon crossed to Picton yesterday morning.

Rev. G. F. Dawson, Methodist minister at Tryon and Mrs. Dawson are in the city.

A USEFUL, sensible and durable Christmas present for your gentleman friend would be one of those American office sets which Rogers & Rogers are offering. They consist of one quart bottle of black ink, one half pint bottle of best red ink, one half pint bottle best mucilage and two patent glass ink stands. Each set packed in a neat wooden box and the price is only $1.00. If brought separately the same goods would cost about double the money. Call and see them. 20 till Xmas.

ONE MORE TICKET!
is what everybody is looking for now, and that's a RINK TICKET,
Coal is up, light is up, music is up, rent is up, about the only thing that stays at the old price is a Rink Ticket, get them at Hughes', Reddin's, Johnson's, or of the managers.
Rink opens Xmas afternoon.
