—THE SUMMERSIDE MINIATURE GOLF COURSE is the new centre of attraction for old and young. The surroundings are delightful and the game just difficult enough to be interesting. Everybody welcome. 7663-10-17-2

—CONGRATULATIONS are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schurman on the arrival at their home on Fitzroy Street, Summerside on Tuesday of a little daughter. 5.

—NO EXPENSIVE EQUIPMENT or past experience needed to play miniature golf. Balls and clubs are supplied by the management. Only 15c per game in afternoon and 25c evenings. 7663-10-17-2

—ON MOTOR TRIP—Mr. and Mrs. Collin C. Conroy are visiting Mr. Conroy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Conroy, Tignish. The visitor who came all the way by motor from Pittsburgh, Pa., made the trip in about three days and a half. From Moncton they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conroy, who are also the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Conroy.—T.

—WHIST AND SOCIAL IN C. M. B. A. HALL.—The children of Mary of St. Mary's Convent, Summerside, held a whist party and social in St. Paul's Hall on Tuesday evening. A very enjoyable time was spent by all. The fortunate prize winners were Mrs. J. A. Arsenault and Mr. Joseph Richards. Refreshments were served and a large cake was auctioned off. The lucky winner of the piece containing a $2 1/2 dollar gold piece was Mr. James Arsenault. The proceeds amounted to a very handsome sum. 5.

—SAD BEREAVEMENT— Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. William Perry, of Miscouche, in the death last Saturday, of their second daughter, Ethel, at the very early age of nineteen years. Miss Perry was a very clever pupil and had obtained her license to teach at an early age. She had taught school at Egmont Bay before ill health had forced her to give up. The deceased had been in a Sanatorium at Moncton for some time before her death. She was a young lady with fine traits of character, and had a host of friends who sympathize with her parents in their sad loss. There are left to mourn, besides her sorrowing parents, two sisters and one brother, namely, Miss Beatrice, Miss Norma and Harold, to whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy. The funeral took place on Monday morning from her home to the R. C. Church at Miscouche, Rev. Dr. Monaghan officiating. The Children of Mary, of which the deceased was a member, marched in a body in front of the funeral procession from the home to the church, and thence to the grave. The funeral was very largely attended and there were many beautiful floral tributes. The pall bearers were Messrs. Henry Wedge, Jack Squarebriggs, Martin Gaudet, Reginald Laughlin, Thomas Gallant and Leo Steele.—S.

PHILCO TONE-CONTROL

Philco Tone-Control
Just turn the knob on the front of the set and bring in program YOUR way—with any one of these four tone qualities. Any owner of a new Philco can instantly adjust the station tone for speech, symphonic music or sets. It is impossible to be in a noisy location, be cut down by interference and enjoy programs in a way that is better possible.

With it Philco has extended control of tone out across the air. It has reached into space and made the tones sent out by the broadcasting station subject to your will. It enables you to mellow down those stations which come in harshly in your neighbourhood.

Yet more, Philco Tone-Control "steps-up" speech if you wish, making it crisp, clear, magically life-like. When a Prime Minister speaks you almost feel his presence in your home. It gives you a choice of dance music from the same band—bright and snappy if you like; round, full and mellow if your mood changes. Symphonic music, for which Philco is the outstanding sponsor today, can be brought in with the brilliance of full brass, or the singing sweetness of high violins. In short, this is a modern miracle you must hear, and operate for yourself in order to realize its full possibilities.

All the new Philco Screen Grid and Screen Grid Plus sets have balanced units for undistorted tone. New and exclusive circuits give extra-fine selectivity, close tuning, reduction of static and background noises. Distance ability is extraordinary, and in the Philco Screen Grid Plus, Automatic Volume Control counteracts fading so you can not only get but hold and enjoy out-of-town programs, near and far. A new Station Recording Dial enables you to permanently log favorite stations.

The Philco dealer now has the new Philco Consoles, Lowboys, Highboys and Radio-Phonographs, each with Philco Tone-Control. Ask him today for a free demonstration. It will give you an amazing vista of new radio possibilities. Prices $135.00 to $275.00 (Radio-Phonograph), less tubes. Easy terms.

Mt. Albion

The monthly meeting of the Mt. Albion Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Henry S. Jenkins, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 7th, with an attendance of sixteen members and seven visitors. Meeting opened with Institute ode and roll call was responded to with "Laundry hints and removal of stains." Reports of committees were received and adopted, and all bills presented and paid. Several members thanked the Institute for fruit and lunches sent during illness in their homes. Some discussion took place re concert and it was decided to hold same as soon as possible. An interesting feature of the meeting was a contest put on by the hostess for which she gave two beautiful prizes, first going to Mrs. Harry Jenkins and Miss Amy Myers, drawn by Mrs. Jenkins, second equally merited by Mrs. Jas. Monaghan and Miss Freda Ferguson, drawn by the former. Meeting closed with the National Anthem to meet the next month at the schoolhouse, when roll call will be answered with membership fee. A delightful lunch was served and a pleasant social hour enjoyed. The members warmly welcomed and enjoyed the fellowship and social intercourse of the members present from the Hazelbrook, W. I.

On Monday evening, Oct. 13th, a fire of unknown origin destroyed a barrack and stack of grain belonging to Mr. George Ballem, and it was with difficulty that the two remaining stacks which were within a few feet of the others were saved. Fortunately the light breeze blowing at the time was not on the house and outbuildings which were quite enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience. Following are the numbers: Solo, Mr. Malcolm MacKinnon, Charlottetown; two male quartettes by Messrs. Malcolm MacKinnon, Russell Jones, J. A. Moore, Charlottetown, and Mr. Ilett Richards, Cherry Valley. A solo beautifully rendered by Mrs. W. J. Mutch, Cherry Valley, and a duet by Miss Frances Wood and Mr. MacKinnon was sung with splendid effect. A short address on "Telling Jesus" was given by the pastor, Rev. E. J. Chisholm, who took his text from Matthew 14, 12. And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus. M.

Mr. J. C. Saint, Miss Ella Saint and Mr. Preston Fraser and Miss Jean Fraser, were recent visitors to Mt. Albion.

Mr. Ted Ellis, Souris, was a visitor to Mt. Albion on Monday.

Some of the ladies of the Mt. Albion Women's Institute were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. John E. Monaghan on Tuesday evening, Oct. 14th, the occasion being the monthly meeting of the Hazelbrook W. I. Dainty refreshments were served and a pleasant evening enjoyed.

Mr. Lorne Acorn, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthias Acorn, Village Green, has returned to his home in Calgary, Alta.

Mr. Robert Horton, who has been spending some week here at his summer residence, has left for his home in Cambridge, Mass.
