

MONDAY

ENJOYED HOLIDAY—Mr. and Mrs. James Dell and son of Quincy, Mass., returned Sunday by auto after a most delightful three weeks vacation with friends and relatives in Brighton and Milton, E. I. Accompanying them were Mr. George MacPherson of Frederick, P. E. I., and Miss Edna Munroe of Milton.

ABSENT FORTY-THREE YEARS

Mrs. Martin Doyle of St. Louis, Missouri, is spending the summer months visiting her sister Mrs. Patrick Carranagh of New Haven. It is forty-three years since Mrs. Doyle left her native province and she notes the many changes that have taken place in that time. Her many friends wish her a pleasant holiday renewing old acquaintances.

GASPEREAUX INSTITUTE

The monthly meeting of the Gasperaux Women's Institute took place on the evening of July 17th at the home of Mrs. Archibald Reynolds. Twenty member and six visitors were present. Arrangements were completed for holding a fund-raising party for the expenses of the delegates that are attending the convention. Committees gave their reports and new committees were appointed. Mrs. Wallace Graham invited the Institute to hold a party for the next month at her home for a daily lunch served by Mrs. Reynolds. The meeting came to a close. This Institute thank Mrs. Reynolds for her kindness and regrets being unable to attend on the regular date.

ST. JAMES CHURCH

The morning services in St. James Church yesterday were conducted by the Rev. James D. MacKay, B.D., of London, Ont., who is spending the month of August in this city. Mr. MacKay is a frequent and clear speaker and his sermon from the text taken from Isaiah: "I will hold thee by the right hand," was listened to with keenest attention and much enjoyed. An added feature of the service was broadcast from C. F. C. and heard clearly in the Province, was the selected duet given by Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Raymond who were heard to better advantage. As a loving tribute to the memory of the late Ernest Auld, who was killed in the Great War, a beautiful wreath of flowers was placed over his memorial plaque in the church by his family.

LARGE FUNERAL

The funeral of the late Edward Cecil Kelly was held yesterday afternoon from his home, 1701 St. Lawrence St., in St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery Services at the Church and graves were conducted by Monsignor Maurice McDonald. The funeral which was held under the direction of Mr. Frank L. Power, was the largest ever held in this city. The hearse was preceded by the Legion Band, members of the League of the Cross Band, without instruments, the Knights of Columbus and League of the Cross. The bearers were: George McQuaid, Fred Moore, E. Doucette, R. Hughes, James Duffy, Egbert Hughes, Active Pall Bearers—M. Campbell, A. Kelly, L. Doyle, W. Carmody, W. Henry, F. Priddy.

The many friends throughout the city and province regret to learn of the death of Mr. Frank L. Power who died in this city Saturday afternoon. The deceased who was in his 50th year left this province in thirty-two years ago and worked at his trade of barbering. He was a frequent visitor to his native province where he was well and favorably known.

Some years ago he developed heart trouble which gradually became more acute until late last May, thinking the change of climate and rest might be of benefit he came to Charlottetown where he resided at his brother's, Mr. Fred Power, Water St., and later entering the Charlottetown Hospital, where among relatives and friends where he peacefully passed away.

He leaves to mourn a sorrowing wife in Boston, four brothers and one sister, namely: Thomas and James in Boston, Mass.; John in Truro, P. E. I.; Mitchell, C. N. R., city, and Mitchell, C. N. R., P. E. I., to whom the Guardian extends sincere and respectful sympathy.

TOOMBS-SCARROW

Tuesday, July 24, Miss Fern Scarrow and Charles Preston Toombs, both of Drinkwater, son of Mr. Lorenzo B. Toombs, North Rustico, P. E. I., were married at Wahstao Cottage, Regina Beach, the summer home of Rev. H. W. Toombs, uncle of the groom. The ceremony was performed under the archway of wild flowers and green leaves arranged in the wide verandah, while in the background a white wedding bell. The wedding party took their places as a musical selection from the gown of blue silk and gold lace she carried a bouquet of wild roses, goldenrod and fern. The bridesmaid was Miss Erna Scarrow, sister of the bride. She wore a dimity rock and carried a bouquet of wild oollocks and fern. Miss Jean Toombs, in a pink frock, acted as flower girl. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. W. Toombs, assisted by Rev. Walter Ward, Mooseaw. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Arthur Morgan, Mooseaw, and Miss Irene Wilson, Wainwright. The wedding party left by motor for Regina. They will reside at Drinkwater, where the groom is engaged in farming—Drinkwater, Sask., Exch.

The death occurred last evening at the 5th inst. of Mrs. Mary Ellen MacMillan, relict of Jos. MacMillan of Charlottetown, this province. She had been in failing health for the past several months, although no serious illness was anticipated until about a week ago when it was known that she was approaching death.

The late Mrs. MacMillan was born in Hope River and removed to Charlottetown at the time of her marriage where she lived during the life of her husband. A few years afterwards she removed with her family to Saskatoon, Sask., where she resided until 1915. After that time she resided with her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Moulder, Wichita Falls, Texas and later with her son, Dr. J. P. MacMillan, Charlottetown. During her active years she was a faithful member of St. Mary's Church, Indian River and an indefatigable worker and helper in every cause calculated to benefit the community. She brought up a family of five sons and two daughters, all of whom she educated and brought up in a manner that led to their success and happiness.

One son, Michael Allen, died in action at Vimy Ridge; Stephen Leedion from the effects of wounds and exposure during the Great War. The surviving sons and daughters are: Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, Charlottetown; Alban J. of Colfax, Sask.; Charles T. Hynes, Saskatoon, Sask.; Mrs. J. D. Moulder, Wichita Falls, Texas and Henry L. Montreal.

A brother and sister, Mr. W. H. Hoag and Miss Margaret Hogan of Hope River, survive. Messrs. Alban and Henry arrived in the city last week in response to a telegram announcing the serious turn in their mother's health. The daughters, owing to distance and ill health were unable to come. To the bereaved family and relatives The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

TUESDAY

SUDDEN DEATH—At Indian River on Wednesday, August 1, Mr. Roderick McLellan. Deceased was enjoying excellent health up to the moment of death, which was most sudden. Her funeral was held on August 3, and was attended by the many estimable friends that the family had in Indian River and other parts of the Province.

CHARLOTTETOWN LADY HONORED

Mrs. J. J. MacKinnon of this City was one of the invited guests at the Garden party held at Buckingham Palace July 25th. Mrs. MacKinnon was accompanied by the Marquis of Annesley and Lady DuBois, wife of the Military Aide de Camp to the Viceroy of India and the Duchess of Devonshire, Mistress of the robes.

CLEANING OYSTER BEDS

The Ostrea, a government boat, is now at work cleaning some of the oyster beds in Richmond Bay with the view of demonstrating the feasibility of going into oyster culture when proper methods are adopted. It is too early to know what result will be achieved but the experiment looks promising. It is the intention of the Fishery Department to keep the boat in operation until the end of December.

Nine year old Alfred McLeod, son of Mr. Alex. McLeod, Spring Park Road, met with a very painful accident yesterday afternoon when he fell from a wagon load of shingles, the wheel of the wagon passing over the little boy's chest, causing, it is alleged, internal hemorrhages. Doctors Dewar and McKenzie were hurriedly summoned, and the child was conveyed to the City Hospital, where at a late hour last night he was reported as resting comfortably.

BRIDAL SHOWER

A merry group of young people assembled at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Mobbs, Middle St., in honor of the marriage of Miss Florence, to Edward Dinswell, Cambridge Mass. The object of the gathering was to show the esteem in which the young people are held by tendering them a miscellaneous shower. The groom removed the wrappers while the bride read the lines accompanying the presents which were both beautiful and valuable. A dainty lunch was then served by the young ladies. After having spent a very pleasant evening the guests departed, wishing Mr and Mrs. Dinswell many happy days of wedded life.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY—The funeral of the late Mrs. Annie Wilson Larter took place yesterday from her late residence to Saint Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to the Roman Catholic cemetery. Service at the church and grave was conducted by Rev. Father McCarthy. The funeral was largely attended. The pall-bearers were Messrs. William Lecker, Harold Alchorn, Willard Locke, William McTague, Edgar Vessey and Leo Weatherbie.

ISLANDER DEAD

The death occurred in Boston on Tuesday July 31 of Mrs. Howe formerly Prigella King daughter of Mr. John King of Georgetown, after a short illness. All the medical skill and tender nursing could do was done for her but she bore her sufferings with Christian patience and resignation to the divine will fortified by all the rites of the Holy Mother Church. Her soul passed peacefully away. Her grave is not a grave it is a shrine where innocence reposes bright over which God's stars must love to shine and where when winter closes fair spring shall come and in her garden twine just like the heart of mine the white roses of her memory. There are left to the young women who came out from Scotland in the ship "Hector" many years ago and settled at MacLellan's Brook in Pictou County. She was married to Mr. MacKinnon in New Glasgow and came to Charlottetown with her husband about fifty-five years ago.

For many years she was an active member of St. James Church being prominently identified with the various women's organizations. She was a woman of splendid character and beloved by all who knew her. THOSE SUMMER STREETS

Practically no work has been done any of the streets of Summerside this year with the result that they are in wretched shape particularly the streets leading to the end of Water Street, Central and Summer Street. It is understood the Working Men's Association on Monday last asked for the resignation of a member of the council, the demand being made on behalf of 180 members of the Association.

A WATER FRONT BOOM

The waterfront at Summerside is rapidly taking on the look of pre-war days with home owned crafts well scattered along the three main wharves. Added to the steam yard that was recently purchased by Messrs. Prowse, Hunter and Johnson, a schooner has been brought to the port by James Baster, another by John S. Wright and another not yet delivered has been acquired by Robert Palmer. With this vanguard the prospects for a classy looking fleet next year is very promising.

CHANGES IN STAFF OF CITY SCHOOLS

At a meeting of the Board of School Trustees held yesterday afternoon, a number of changes of one year was granted Miss Vickerson, Vice-Principal of Prince Street School on account of ill health. Her position will be occupied by Miss Marion Douglas, former principal of Georgetown School. Miss W. L. LePage and Mrs. LePage, 84 Upper Prince Street.

A NEW RESIDENT

Before her departure from Summerside for her home in Charlottetown the Ladies Guild of the Baptist Church held a farewell social evening in honor of Mrs. Ralph Dodds at the home of Mrs. E. W. Manson. Mrs. Dodds was presented with a pretty floor lamp, the President, Miss Cecilia Burrows making the presentation. Refreshments were served during the evening.

THE WORLD HAS A NEW AND FINER MOTOR CAR

Twin Ignition means Power, Speed, Economy

People who already have driven the new Twin-Ignition-motored Nash "400" have instantly realized its superiority in performance to cars with older types of motors. Or by building a high-compression motor that needs special, high-priced fuel? The answer to both questions is, "No". Nash has developed new principles of high-compression motor construction which create more power, more speed, with ordinary gasoline, and less of it! Today the Twin-Ignition, 12-spark-plug, high-compression motor powers all Nash "400" Advanced and Special Six models. We'll let you drive a Twin-Ignition-motored Nash "400", anytime.

BOATES Recommend Them

From Canada the fame of Baby's Own Tablets is spreading over the world. Mothers recommend them to other mothers and wherever they are tried nothing but words of praise are heard for these pleasant tasting little tablets that promptly relieve the minor ailments of young children. Baby's Own Tablets are one of the best remedies for children's ailments I have ever used. says Mrs. Arthur T. Allen, of Auburn, Me. "My little girl was nervous and could not sleep. I tried the Tablets and she was relieved at once. She was also troubled with constipation and nothing seemed to help her. I had used the Tablets but a short time before her bowels were regular. All mothers should keep Baby's Own Tablets in the house, for they are a valuable remedy." Baby's Own Tablets are sold by all druggists or will be mailed on receipt of price, 25 cents per box by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
