

3 MONTHS OFF WITH NEURITIS

"I suffered awful pain for two years with Neuritis and Sciatica, and was off work for three months' time. After trying everything I could think of, I got a bottle of Kruschen Salts. After taking a second bottle, I started working again, and I am very glad to tell you again, and I am still working, and I am quite free from any pain whatever."—S. B.

The pains of Neuritis and Sciatica are a symptom of deeper trouble—the trouble that causes rheumatism, gout and lumbago. They are a sign of an impure blood-stream. They show that poisons have crept into the blood. Kruschen's salts, which ensure internal cleanliness and keep the blood-stream pure. New and refreshed blood is sent coursing to every fibre of your being. Neuritis, Sciatica and kindred ills all pass you by. Depression and lassitude vanish like mist before the sun.

Y. BASKETBALL

Tonight in the "Y" gym a double header will be played, the first game will bring together Prince Street, the interscholastic champions, and their old rivals, West Kent, this game promises to be packed with thrills, spills and heart-throbs. The backers of the West Kent team still maintain they can beat the champs, both teams will be at full strength. In the second exhibition game the newly crowned champions of the city, namely the "Y" team take on the P. W. C. Hoopsters, the college boys have been practicing faithfully, and promise to put up a lively battle. The first game starts at 7 o'clock sharp.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

(BY "TEC") NOT THE ONLY ONE

SHADES OF MERRIWELL

Some years ago there was a fellow that went to Yale by the name of Frank Merriwell who could do everything right and nothing wrong. Like all other kids of those days we knew Frank well because between the ages nine and fourteen we made a close and intensive study of his flaming career. Frank was a bearcat when he was at Yale and for all we know may still be attending the institution.

Stroke in the eight, a star pitcher possessed of a double shot that he could throw with either hand, champion boxer, fencer, wrestler, track speedster, hockey player extraordinary, titleholder running up and down stairs, in short, king in every realm of athletics, Frank was a carb. Filled with pneumonia, bronchitis, and with a couple of broken legs he got out of more sick beds to save the honor of Yale than Babe Ruth ever crawled into.

A SUPER ATHLETE

One thing Frank never failed to do and that was to come through in the pines. When the ball team played Harvard for the intercollegiate championship, which they did about every other week, Frank would naturally take his place in the box.

Merriwell would pitch no-hit ball but in spite of that Harvard would be invariably three runs up at their end of the ninth because Jack Diamond, Bart Hodge or one or other of the boppers that he travelled around with would get a lapse of memory and start booting the ball around the infield.

Then Frank would show the stuff that a Yale hero is made of. Three men by some procession of accidents would get on the bases in front of him and then with the golden-haired Elsie or the dark-haired Inez sitting in the grandstand with about 10,000 students who were just loafing their way through college he would stride to the plate. Usually he would be dragging a bat that one of his enemies had tampered with. However that made no difference.

He'd waste two strikes and then as Bert L. Standish would tell it, "Another white sphere came hurtling through the air and Merriwell with the lithe stride of a leopard stepped forward to meet it.

Acting Pres. India Congress Awarded Year

NEW DELHI, India, April 24. (A.P.)—The government curbed the Indian Nationalists today by arresting 369 delegates and spectators who were attempting to hold the annual convention of the Nationalist Congress.

More than 300 others had been arrested Friday and Saturday, including Mme. Sarojini Naidu, acting President of the Congress. She later was sentenced to a year in jail.

Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya, next in line for the Presidency of the organization in its 36th session, which had been banned by the Government, was arrested yesterday when he defied an order forbidding him to enter the city.

These arrests brought the total since Mahatma Gandhi's most recent civil resistance campaign to well over 80,000, it was estimated, and puts the last of his council of 15 in jail, including himself.

"My husband is merely a manufacturer of wastebaskets," sighed the woman with aspirations. "It seems such a prosy occupation."

"On the contrary, there is really much poetry in wastebaskets," replied the unappreciated bard.

GEORGE H. MACNEILL

The death occurred at Oyen, Alta., on April 16th, of George H. MacNeill, aged 53. On the previous day relatives on the island received a telegram stating that he was seriously ill with pneumonia and the next despatch brought the sad news of his death.

The late Mr. MacNeill was the son of William MacNeill and the late Mrs. MacNeill of Milton. For several years he taught school in this province and then went to Western Canada. He was for a time at Winnipeg and several years in Regina before removing to Oyen. While in the west he carried on a real estate and insurance business.

Mr. MacNeill was a man of splendid character and held in the highest esteem. He was unmarried.

He leaves to mourn his father who is with his daughter in Charlottetown, four brothers, Torquill in Milton, Lemuel in Charlottetown, Ethelton in Brockton, Mass., and Bruce in Success, Sask., also three sisters, Mrs. William Enman, New Glasgow Road, Mrs. Daniel Ward, Kingston, and Mrs. Alfred Affleck, Charlottetown.

The body was brought to Charlottetown on Saturday evening and the funeral took place from the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Affleck, Sunday afternoon to the Presbyterian Cemetery at Highfield. Services at the home and at the grave were conducted by Rev. G. Carlyle Webster, pastor of Zion Church.

The pallbearers were Wallace MacNeill, Daniel Cummings and William Moore of Milton, and Charles E. MacDuff, Frederick Dollar and Brenton Dollar of Brookfield.
