ATTENTION is directed to the fine livery stable conducted by D. A. Smith on Queen Street. This stable is one of the best equipped in the province. All of its turnouts are modern and of the latest design. Those desiring to hire a horse should inspect Mr. Smith's beautiful carriages. Mr. Smith's aim is to thoroughly equip his stable and thus increase its efficiency. It is safe to say that no country in the world is so universally beautiful as P. E. Island. During the season of full leaf, the meadows viewed from one of the beautiful rigs of Smith's livery stable will add a brilliancy difficult to surpass.

THE Guardian has received the Prize List of the St. John Exhibition of which W. W. Hubbard is the Manager and Secretary. The list contains many useful suggestions to exhibitors with the general rules and regulations which should be read by those who purpose making an exhibit. Those who have met Mr. Hubbard on the Island while he addressed institute meetings will feel a greater interest in the show and will doubtless make an effort to be present. The exhibition will be open to the public on Saturday, the 30th August, at 6 o'clock p. m., and will continue open each day from September 1st to September 6th, from 9.00 a. m. to 10.00 p. m., except the Live Stock Department, which will close at 6 p. m. The exhibition will be closed at 10.00 p. m., on Saturday, the 6th day of September, after which exhibitors must remove all their property from the Grounds and Buildings. Among the principal advertisers in the booklet are Schofield Brothers the well known selling agents for manufactures of paper, paper bags, woodenware, fibre-ware, matches, washboards, sheathing paper, roofing paper, and felt.

THERE was not a large gathering at the tea at Coleman yesterday. The special train which went from Summerside took few from here.

THERE will be a prayer meeting in the First Methodist Church to-night at 8 o'clock. Address by George Irving of McGill University.

UNION NEWS.—A Halifax despatch of July 17th says: The machine operators and the foreman of the Chronicle Office, walked out last evening, because a man was employed who was objectionable to them. The paper came out this morning on time. Printers are likely to be brought from other places. Chas. J. Mitchell, secretary of the Charlottetown Typographical Union received the following telegram:

HALIFAX, June 17th, C. J. Mitchell, Box 671. Lockout on Chronicle. Tell printers to keep away. F. W. SMITH, Recorder Office. July 18, 1902.

A VERY small audience came out last night to hear Mr. McLellan and his associate pupils in the Kindergarten Hall. Those who were present however must have enjoyed the selections given by the different performers. Mr. McLellan's subject was, "A comparison between the two generals, Wellington and Napoleon." His discourse showed a thorough knowledge of history and a wonderful memory for facts, dates, etc. Others from among the pupils displayed great proficiency at the piano, flute, and other musical instruments. Mr. Frank McDonald and Mr. Vernon Jones each gave a solo and then gave an instrumental duet, all of which were rendered in a manner which testifies loudly to the efficiency of the work done in the School for the Blind at Halifax. A vote of thanks was presented by Mr. J. T. Mellish.

No Purchase, No Letters.

In an Irish village the local postmaster, in addition to the postal business, conducts a grocery and general drapery establishment. He is anxious to push business and seldom condescends to be gracious with inquirers for letters who forget to purchase any goods. Not long since a native as soon as the mail car arrived inquired, "O my letters for me, Hughie?" No notice was taken until the inquiry was repeated four times, when Hughie, without looking up from his work, gruffly said, "No." "Shure, ye hev'n't looked yit." "I sed no, and that's enuff. Ye shud get yer letters where ye buy yer goods!"
