The date of St. Peter's tea is changed from the 16th to Monday the 21st.

The Railway Men's Convention will open in the city of St. John, N. B., on Friday, 25th inst.

The Campana arrived in port at five o'clock yesterday morning and left for Souris and Pictou at twelve o'clock.

SONG service at the Gospel meeting in Prowse's new block, tomorrow afternoon, at 3.45. Strangers always welcome.

GOSPEL MEETING.—Remember the Gospel meeting in Prowse's new block, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Strangers always welcome. Lesson, John 11. 25. "I am the resurrection and the life."

The Wesleyan of August 2nd says: Material has been received for an illustrated article on Charlottetown Methodism, and now awaits the return of the Editor, who shall likely be in time for taking charge of the next issue of the paper.

The Advance observes: B. Fay Mills has lost much since he entered the fold of Liberalism. He says: We have lost belief in the Bible as the ultimate and authoritative revelation of God. We have lost the individuality of God. We have lost the fact and doctrine of the Fall. The fact is, man is not a sinner in any sense. We have lost the old fictitious idea of salvation of man. A Methodist class-leader would put it in fewer words by saying, "Mr. Mills has lost his religion."

MR. DANIEL MCPHERSON, of Dorchester, Mass., who has been spending some weeks on the island with his parents, at Newton Cross, sailed per S.S. Halifax yesterday afternoon to attend the International Convention Royal Clan, O.S.C., which will meet at Boston, August 15th, and will be in session until 19th. Mr. McPherson will represent the town of Dorchester, Mass., as delegate for Clan Macdonald, O.S.C. He is well and favorably known in society and is also a prominent member of the Boston Caledonian Club. After the Convention Mr. McPherson will again resume his duties as collector of bills and stockholder in the "Elm Farm" Milk Co., Dorchester, Mass. Mr. McPherson left the island seven years ago, and entered the employment of the above-mentioned Company about six years ago as errand boy and by sobriety and strict attention to business has worked himself to the position which he now holds. Mr. McPherson was very much pleased with his visit to the island and the various improvements which have taken place throughout both city and country and hopes to soon again visit his native land.

THE Truro Daily News says: L. G. McNeil, of St. John, passed through Truro last night, to Dartmouth, to attend the funeral of the late Rev. Dr. Morrison.

MESSRS MILLER BROS. have on exhibition at their show rooms Queen St. an Angelus, a mechanical novelty, which enables a person without the knowledge of music to play any selection on the piano. In appearance it is a small cabinet of elegant design and finish, and is nicely paneled throughout, including back. This cabinet contains two full sets of reeds, of five octaves each, orchestra voiced; one of a violin or stringed quality, the other of a flute or pipe quality. This cabinet can be placed in any part of the house, and when away from piano is a powerful self-playing organ in itself. At side and rear of cabinet are panels which fold back, admitting it to be placed to the keyboard of any piano, upright, square or grand. When it is desired to play the piano the cabinet is rolled into position in front of the piano, the panels are folded back, and the openings in case allow the cabinet to slide under the key-board or front of the piano. The cabinet can be varied in height by means of two bolts in the case, in order to adjust to any height of key-board, and when once adjusted, in a few minutes time, it is always thereafter ready to roll to or from the piano in a few seconds' time, and needs no further adjustment. When in position a series of fingers or levers project over upon the tops of the keys. These fingers will operate the keys of the piano in precisely the same manner as the hands, and are operated by a stop. The pedals of the piano are also operated by levers placed conveniently for the hands. By a simple arrangement of stops, and at the will of the performer, it may be either a piano attachment executing any composition with brilliancy and finish; or as a full-toned organ playing some grand overture; or in combination with piano as a large orchestra, producing those soft, string effects so delightful to hear. Miller Bros. are Sole agents on Prince Edward Island for the Angelus.
