nected by telephone.

MISS CARRIE WELDON, who has been spending some months in Prince Edward Island, has returned, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Davies, jr., of Charlottetown, who will remain here a few days.—Moncton Transcript.

TOMORROW afternoon will be a half holiday in the city. Nearly all the stores close at one o'clock and a great day's sport is expected on the C.A. A.
A. grounds. Every event is well filled by riders from N. B. N. S. P. E. I. and Boston.

FALL OF MILK.—Yesterday morning as Cathel Kier, of Granyille was approaching Stanley Cheese Factory with a load of milk, his wagon broke down emptying his milk cans and contents into the gutter. Out of 1600 lbs he only saved about 300 lbs.

REV. J. W. MCCONNELL officiated at the morning service in the First Methodist Church Sunday and delivered an extremely able sermon.
Rev. Mr. Teasdale preached in the evening from the 8th Psalm 4th verse, "Lord what is man that Thou art mindful of him" eloquently setting forth the care of God to his creature man. A large number took Sacrament at the close of the evening service. Rev. G.
O. Heustis of the Nova Scotia Conference, and Rev. R. A. Temple assisted Mr. Teasdale. Professor Eville Organist of Christ Church (Episcopal), Windsor, N. S., ably assisted Prof.
Watts. At both services in the First Methodist Church Sunday, the thrilling trains of the "Gloria" filled the auditorium while the collection was being taken. At the evening service the congregation was very large.

visiting Moncton the past few weeks.— Moncton Times.

DR. A. H. GORDON, a talented young north end resident, who has recently graduated from McGill, has returned to Moncton to accept a position as hospital physician. Last Sunday he was near at hand when Elva Carpenter was injured and his prompt attention and careful treatment of the little girl was much thought of not only by the parents but by the street railway management.— St. John Progress.—Dr. Gordon is a son of Rev. J. A. Gordon, formerly pastor of the Baptist Church of this city and a brother of Mr. J. P. Gordon of the firm of Moore & McLeod.

WHEN the S. S. St. Olaf was leaving the wharf on Saturday evening a disgraceful scene occurred. A young city blood undertook to tease and finally strike, a lad who is known to many of our citizens as an innocent harmless person. Some of the excursionists interfered and would not allow such actions. A row ensued which ended in a number of roughs throwing bricks at the steamer as she left the wharf.

THE regular monthly meeting of the School Board was held last night. The subject of Prof. Robertson's address today at three o'clock in the Y. M. C. A.
Hall was considered. All teachers and parents are invited to attend. Miss Snaddon has tendered her resignation.
The resignation has been accepted to take effect from 1st October. Miss B.
McIntyre was appointed to fill the vacancy. Mr. Thorp submitted plans and specifications for Queen Sq. School and the School Board resolved to call for tenders for same. School opens today at

DRUGGISTS

Colored Shirts for Boys

Not a little wee chap—nor a young man—just for a boy. These are just in fresh from the factory.
They're made in the same way as the shirts the boy's particular big brother wears.
They're soft, buttoned fronts. They have cuff attached to sleeves. They have a starched neck band. They're of a fine grade of washing cotton, in very pretty plaids not loud, just stylish and correct. They're 80c And they're worth it.
