

WEEK'S NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY
EXCHANGED PULPITS—Rev. Dr. Ryan of the United Church, Summerside, exchanged pulpits with Rev. Mr. Loring, of Kensington, on Sunday evening.

ON INSPECTION TOUR—Major General J. H. MacBrien, commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, arrived in Charlottetown by plane at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

BIRTHDAY PARTY—Master Billie, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Hampton MacLean, had a little party for his first birthday anniversary on the 14th, when a number of little friends came in for afternoon tea.

ROOF FIRE SATURDAY—About 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon the firemen were called to the residence of Mr. W. T. Parker, 24 Brighton Road, for a roof fire. It was necessary to lay a line of hose in addition to the use of chemicals in order to extinguish the blaze.

AT GYRO—James Strange, phrenologist, palmist and psychologist, was the speaker at the Gyro Club meeting last evening. The subject of his address was "Hidden Talent—The Study of Vocational Selection."

MADE COMPLETE RECOVERY—The many friends of Miss Stella Morrissey are pleased to learn that she has been completely restored to health. For eight years she was unable to speak, and was troubled with an oscillation of the right arm.

SADLY BEHAVED—Mr. J. C. Ansell of St. Christopher's has the sympathy of the congregation in the death of his wife (nee Lucy Caisie) who passed away in the Prince County Hospital on Saturday evening from pneumonia.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS—Mr. Alfred Reid, Frenchfort, received a cablegram from Mr. Dundee, Scotland, informing him of the sudden death of his father, Mr. William Reid on Friday, May 16th.

ON THE 6th instant the parish of St. Theresa, Morrell, lost one of its most distinguished citizens, through the death of Mr. John T. Harrington. The deceased was a son of the late Peter E. Harrington and a nephew of the late Chief Justice Sir William Sullivan.

MR. JAMES MAYHEW, an old man of 89 years, who had been living alone for some time, was found dead yesterday afternoon about 12.40 lying on his back across the table in the kitchen of his home on East St., Summerside.

JOHN HARKNESS, who lives on King Street, was returning to his work at Robinson's Mill and as he was passing the house some children told him they had not seen any smoke from the flue for two days. He went to the yard and looked in the window and saw Mayhew lying on his back over the table. He tried the door and found it was locked. He immediately notified Chief of Police Kinch, who on arriving upon the scene broke open the door.

GAELIC CLASS CLOSURE FOR SUMMER—After a very successful winter in studying the Gaelic language and literature under the direction of Rev. D. M. Sinclair, the Gaelic Society of Orwell Head has adjourned until the Fall. The closing session was held at the home of Mr. John A. Gillis, Kinross, on May 13th, with a large attendance. The President, Mr. R. O. MacLeod, presided. After the Gaelic lesson several old Gaelic tunes, including Kilmaronock, Martyrdom, and St. David's, were practised under the leadership of Mr. John S. Martin, in preparation for a Gaelic service to be held in the Orwell Head Church on May 29th at seven o'clock.

AN EVENING WITH MOZART—The Philathes class of the Charlottetown Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Leigh Dingwell on Friday, May 11th, for their regular meeting. During the evening Mrs. Dingwell read a delightful and most instructive paper on the famous composer Mozart. This was followed by an informal discussion on books and music in which the members joined and freely discussed their favorite authors. After a dainty lunch Mrs. Dingwell gave several piano solos from different composers and was heartily thanked for a most interesting evening.

PREMIER HON. W. J. P. MACMILLAN, Mr. D. and Mrs. MacMillan were present at the ordination service at Kinkon church yesterday when His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan raised three young men of the parish to the priesthood.

BRILLIANT STUDENT—Rodrick Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Ennis Smith, of Summerside, is to be congratulated for leading the class in the second year at Dalhousie University. Mr. Smith is only seventeen and went into second year University from the Summerside Academy twelfth grade. He came first in Physics, second in Economics, second in Mathematics, third in Chemistry, besides obtaining a first in Mathematics Distinction. It speaks well for the Summerside High School when the graduates do so well at the Universities.

These passed peacefully away at the Prince Edward Island Hospital Friday, May 10th 1935 in the 78th year of his age a well known and highly respected citizen of Victoria, P. E. I. in the person of William H. Collett, following an operation. He had gone to Charlottetown on Wednesday and while attending to business was suddenly taken ill and after consulting with a doctor was brought to the hospital where he was given temporary relief. On the following day (Thursday) an operation was found necessary but proved of no avail and he passed away on Friday morning, which was very tragic. He leaves to mourn his widow and step-son, Mr. Windsor McLean, Springhill, N. S., and by his first wife one daughter (Aggie) Mrs. Ernest Robertson now in Bishop, California, also one sister (Louise) Mrs. Crisp Moore and a nephew, Mr. Jas. Vermer Moore both of Westmoreland. His only son Arthur was killed in action in the Great War.

There was a short service at the home of his widow, Mrs. Collett, at Bridgewater officiated by Rev. D. Genge of the Presbyterian Church, Truro. This was followed by a very impressive service in St. John's Church, Crapaud, conducted by the Rector.

TUESDAY

ISLANDER DEAD—On Saturday morning 11th inst. telegram was received by Mrs. William Macdonald, Peters Road, conveying the sad news of the death of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Morrison of Edmonton, Alberta. The Guardian with the many friends here extend their sympathy to the bereaved family and relatives both in Edmonton and P. E. Island.

ATTEND E. F. BANQUET—Mr. J. O. Hyndman returned yesterday from a visit to Montreal and Toronto. In the latter city he attended the annual meeting of the Boy Scouts' Council of Canada and was at the chairman's table at the great banquet given in honor of the Chief Scout, Lord Baden Powell.

DOCTORS QUALIFY—The following physicians having fulfilled the necessary requirements have been recommended by the Board of Examiners of this Association, approved by the Council and today were elected by the Association as qualified Members of the American Psychiatric Association: Arthur Milisap Gee; Alexander J. Murphison.

TO CONSULT WITH COUNCIL—Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Macnab, Halifax, returned to the city yesterday. Mr. Macnab, who is the engineering member of the Nova Scotia Board of Commissioners, Public Utilities, has been invited by the City Council to consult with them in the matter of public utilities. He was accompanied by the late Hon. J. D. Stewart when he was Premier.

TAKING UP HOUSEHOLD NURSING—Miss Mary Jane MacLaughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James MacLaughlin of Mr. Stewart, has entered the Training School for Attendant Nurses conducted by the Household Nursing Association at Boston.

DEPARTURE REGRETTED—Citizens of Mt. Stewart and vicinity are regretting the departure of their youngest, Mr. Geo. Morrison, who after two years practice of his profession in that village has left to take over the drug business of the late R. A. McDonald, in Tignish. Before departing Mr. and Mrs. Morrison were entertained at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Martin and presented with an address and purse of money. They were also recipients of various individual and club gifts from the residents. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison took an active part in all that tended towards the welfare of the community and socially. However what is Mr. Stewart's loss will be Tignish's gain, and his friends feel that Mr. Morrison will have success, as besides his experience in the drug business in Mt. Stewart, Mr. Morrison formerly was filled to capacity with one of the large drug stores of Boston.

Six nurses received diplomas at the Charlottetown Hospital School of Nursing graduation exercises held at the Holy Name Hall last night. The hall was filled to capacity. The diplomas were presented by His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan. Each graduate nurse as she returned to her place after receiving her diploma was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses by Joan Murnaghan and Norma Bernard, little daughters of Mrs. John Murnaghan, Charlottetown, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Bernard, Tignish.

Sister St. Stanislaus, Superintendent of Nurses, was presented with a beautiful bouquet by the graduating class. The graduates were: Sister John Baptist, Elizabeth Inez Gorman, Kensington. RETURN VERDICT OF DEATH THROUGH NATURAL CAUSES—At the adjourned inquest on the body of James Mayhew, who was found dead on Monday at his home in Summerside, the jury returned a verdict of death from natural causes. Dr. MacPhee, who performed the autopsy gave evidence and Theodore C. Arsenault, who lived next door to the aged man, He stated that he last saw a light in the house on Saturday night, Chief of Police Kinch has received word from Mrs. MacPhee, North Cornwall, that she will arrive in Summerside on Wednesday evening to look after her father's affairs. The time of the funeral will be announced later. S.

PREMIER THE HON. W. J. P. MACMILLAN and Mr. W. A. Stewart, M.L.A., were unanimously renominated as Conservative candidates for the Fifth District of Queens (Charlottetown and Royals) at a largely attended convention held last evening in the board room of the City Building. There was a full representation from every poll at the meeting, at which enthusiastic indorsement of the policies both of the provincial and federal Conservative administrations was expressed. An ovation was tendered by the convention to the candidates on the announcement by the chairman, Mayor Kennedy, president of the Queen's County Conservative Association, declaring them to be duly renominated.

PREMIER MACMILLAN'S renomination as Councillor was moved by Mr. W. D. Gillis, seconded by Mr. J. Frank MacGuigan. Mr. Stewart's renomination as Assemblyman was moved by Mr. Patrick Curley, seconded by Mr. A. Currie.

Miss Muriel Cosier, a pupil of Grade VII, West Kent School, won first prize in the Daughters of the Empire Dominion-wide "Caboia" contest in the category in the prize just announced. Each year the I. O. D. E. promotes an essay contest which is open to boys and girls in the Public Schools of the capital city of each province. This year a playette portraying the trip of the "Mathew" on its voyage of discovery to the new world was set down as the requirement. Miss Cosier's play was selected from the large number submitted as the best for this city. Mr. J. P. Gordon, chairman of the judges, commenting on its particular excellence, it was therefore forwarded to Toronto as the Charlottetown entry to compete with the winning essays of the other Provinces.

In a letter received from the National Educational Secretary of the I. O. D. E. yesterday, the results were given as follows: 1st prize, Muriel Cosier, West Kent School, Charlottetown, P. E. Mrs. Dunn has been spending the winter months in Woodstock, Illinois. Mrs. Huestis will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Melkie.—S.

FOR SUMMERSIDE—It is expected that Rev. Walter McCleary of Fort Francis, Ontario, will arrive in Summerside about the middle of June to take charge of the pastorate of the Presbyterian Church, which has been without a resident pastor since the winter months when Rev. Mr. Jeans left for St. John. Rev. Mr. McCleary accepted the call of the congregation some time ago. The call has now been approved by the P. E. I. Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, S.

MR. W. H. DENNIS, O'Leary, was nominated as Councillor, and George H. Harbour, of Coleman, Assemblyman at the Second District of Prince Liberal Convention held at Kingsport last night. The three names submitted for Assemblyman were Charles I. Lidstone, Tyne Valley, Dr. J. B. Chalmers, and Mr. Barbour. Mr. Lidstone withdrew and Mr. Barbour secured the nomination on balloting. Mr. A. J. Matheson, President of the West Prince Liberal Association, was in the chair with Mr. Bennett Kelly acting as Secretary.

THE sudden death occurred in this city late Sunday night of Mrs. James Lee in her 68th year. The deceased was about on the previous day, apparently in the best of health, when she suddenly stricken Saturday evening at six o'clock, passing away without regaining consciousness. Of a pleasant and companionable disposition the deceased enjoyed a large circle of friends, who will mourn her passing. She was for many years an active member of the Charles Auxiliary and a devout member of the congregation of St. Dunstan's Basilica.

She leaves to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and kind and loving mother, her husband and the following family: Matthew, with F. H. Trainor; John, of the C. N. & J. and Joseph and Agnes at home. One sister, Mrs. Etta Lawrence of South Boston, and a brother, Edmund Toombs of the Letter Carriers Station, survive.

THE Guardian joins in extending sincere sympathy to the bereaved.

DEATH REGRETTED—Friends in Summerside learned with regret of the death in Charlottetown of a former Summerside resident, Mrs. (Dr.) Bearsto, nee Margaret Pope, Mrs. Bearsto resided for many years in Summerside. Her remains are to be taken there for interment in the People's Cemetery.

In the early morning hours of Wednesday, April 3rd, Mrs. Nell McLean, a very highly respected resident of Melville Station, passed peacefully away at the ripe old age of 81 years. For several months before the coming of the end the deceased had not been in a very good condition of health. From time to time she complained of feeling very tired and somehow could not seem to get rested.

On May 7th Barbara MacDonald, widow of the late Murdoch MacKenzie passed away, aged 71 years. Mrs. MacKenzie was the daughter of the late John MacDonald and an only child. She lived all her life in Charlottetown, and was greatly respected by all. The funeral service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. D. L. Griffiths in Belfast Church. She leaves to mourn one son, George Roy, to whom the sympathy of the entire community is extended. Interment took place at Belfast Cemetery.

AFTERNOON TEA—The spacious recreation room of the I. O. O. F. hall looked very lovely Tuesday afternoon when Alpha Rebekah Lodge No. 19 I.O.O.F. held a most enjoyable afternoon tea. The table was decorated with lights and the table with pink candles and anapagnons looked very lovely and was presided over by Mrs. J. Russell Peer and Mrs. Henry Laphorne. A large circle of relatives and friends are mourning today the passing of a lady of refinement, culture and distinguished family—a link with Confederation. We recall to the late Mrs. Margaret Louise Bearsto, widow of the late Dr. Peter MacNutt Bearsto, whose funeral takes place from St. Paul's Church this afternoon. Mrs. Bearsto was a daughter of the late Hon. W. H. Pope and inherited the ability and literary tastes of her distinguished father. She contributed from time to time interesting articles and poems to The Guardian, usually over a non-descriptive pen name. She was devotedly religious and took a keen interest in all good work, especially for the benefit of the young and rising generation. Her only surviving son, Mr. A. H. C. Bearsto, of Toronto, arrived last evening to attend the funeral. A younger son, Wendell Phillips Brooks Bearsto, made the supreme sacrifice during the Great War while serving as a gunner with the Canadian Artillery. Two sisters, Mrs. W. F. Mitchell and Miss Georgina Pope, R. C. Charlottetown, survive, also a stepdaughter, Mrs. H. W. B. Stavert, Victoria, B. C., and a stepson, Mr. Fred Bearsto, Sedawick, Alta. Mrs. Bearsto's death was somewhat unexpected, as she had been going about as usual until a week ago, when a cold developed, followed by pneumonia, which caused her to enter into rest on Thursday, before her son could reach her bedside.

The Guardian joins with a wide circle of friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of the late Mrs. Andrew Mooney took place from her home to St. Michael's Church, Iona Monday morning at 9 o'clock. The Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. C.
