The home of David and Mrs. McEauland, Bloomfield, was the scene of a pleasant social event recently when their eldest daughter, Sara Elizabeth was united in marriage to Chas. F. McDougald of the same place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ewen McDonald in the presence of about fifty invited guests. The bride, dressed in a suit of green silk with white trimmings looked neat and stylish as she entered the room to the strains of "The Royal Wedding March," rendered by Miss Eva Smallman cousin of the bride. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Laura White and Jessie Taylor while the groom was supported by R.H. McLaughlin. Immediately after the ceremony tea was served and then an enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. and Mrs. McDougald left on the following evening for their home where a reception was held and a happy time spent in music and games. Luncheon was served in Mrs. Taylor's pleasing form. All left for their homes wishing the young couple a long and happy married life. Com.

The death of James Wallace, Alberton, which occurred on Saturday night at 12 o'clock, will be heard with universal sorrow in the community. It was only two months ago that Mr. Wallace became ill but only at intervals, was he confined to his home. On Saturday he was about his work as usual and in the afternoon he enjoyed a drive. Late in the evening he suffered with severe pains in the head and shortly after a doctor was called in, he passed away. Deceased was the youngest son of the late Edmund Wallace, and was a most successful farmer and owned one of the best farms in West Prince, with all modern improvements. Besides a widow, he leaves an aged mother, three sons and three daughters, six sisters and one brother to mourn, who have the sympathy of the community in this sudden bereavement.

The Newcastle, N. B. Leader says of recent races held there: "1500 people witnessed the races on the harbor. Excitement ran high in the free-for-all, some" waging on Teddy R., and others on Speculation Jr. Baby L. owned by Jerome Landry, won the first heat, coming in first in the second heat, but in the third Baby L. stumbled, casting her shoe, and she was taken out of the race. There were four heats in all. Speculation Jr. formerly owned by W. G. Fenwick, Bathurst, and recently bought by Ald. D. D. McMurdo, (formerly of Alberton) won first place in the second heat while Teddy R., owned by Ald. Morrissy, came in first in the two last heats and took second place in the first two heats, winning first money. In the three miscellaneous heats, King Blair, owned by W. G. Fenwick, Bathurst, won in three straight heats. King Blair, owned by Ald. McMurdo, took second money; Maud Parkside, owned by Robt. McCoombs, third and Jennie Willett, owned by Wm. Bryenton, Derby, fourth.
