AMHERST, Dec. 21.—The well known speedy trotting horse Timothy V. T. 2191, recently owned by Amos S. Etter, of this town has been purchased by James W. Wry, of Buctouche. SUIT FOR HALF MILLION

WORCESTER, Mass., Dec. 21.—A sensation was created in baseball circles recently when it became known that a suit for half a million had been filed in the Cambridge court against Arthur H. Sidon, the famous baseball magnate, who lives in Newton. The suit is brought by Frederick Small. HAS TERRIFIC FIGHT WITH RATTLESNAKE

KISSIMMEE, Fla., Dec. 21.—While hunting thirty miles down the Kissimmee River, last week, L. C. Fountain, a prominent contractor, whose home is here, aroused a big rattlesnake and in a fight killed the reptile only after it had sunk its fangs in his flesh. With his hunting knife he cut out the poisoned flesh, and when he was found by the two men who were hunting with him, was able to hobble with their aid. He was able to reach this place out despite all efforts to save him. He could make no efforts at relief for more than 12 hours.

A CHRISTMAS THOUGHT

"Come aside, O soldier of the right, out of the conflict for an hour of respite.
"O, rest beside the weary road And hear the angels sing."
"The angels are singing. From overhead there is seen no danger of defeat. There is no worry in the heavenly places. God is in command. At the moment of crisis the reinforcement will be ample. A craven heart will be shamed, the courageous soul laureled, when the conflict is over. Be the soldier worthy of the laurel. Take cheer from the never baffled Captain. Believe the angels' song."
