BRITISH OFFENSIVE CONTINUES SUCCESSFUL. (Special to The Guardian.) BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, April 12—Under the most extraordinary weather conditions recorded in France in a score of years the British offensive about Arras continues successfully. This morning our cavalry went into action and contributed to the taking of Monchy le Proux and other important positions. The taking of Monchy le-Bruex was aided by tanks. British infantry reached the village late Tuesday but some German machine guns placed there needed special attention before they could be taken. The British turned their artillery on a suspected gun emplacement while a "tank" circled the town scattering terror and death.

ARGENTINA AND COSTA RICA SUPPORT UNITED STATES

(Special to The Guardian.) WASHINGTON, April 12—Without announcing abandonment of their neutrality two more Latin-American republics, Argentina and Costa Rica, have given assurances of their moral support for the United States in the war against Germany. Argentina, choosing the middle course between those of Brazil and Chile, her sister nations in the influential trio, has notified the State Department that she "recognizes the justice of this country's stand against German aggression." The communication contains no intimation, however, that the Argentine authorities contemplate an actual break with Berlin, and it is assumed here that for the present, at least, neutrality will be observed.

THE INVESTIGATION AT FALCONWOOD

Only Witness Examined, Besides the Supervisor, was an Inmate of the Infirmary, who was "Subject to Delusions." His Evidence was Taken Subject to Medical Testimony as to His Sanity.

The Committee appointed to enquire into, and report upon the charges preferred by Mr. George E. Hughes in the Legislature last week as contained in a petition from inmates of the infirmary at Falconwood, began its investigation at the Asylum yesterday afternoon. The Committee began work at 1.50 p. m., and Mr. Bonnell, the supervisor, having been examined, the first witness examined was the inmate, Mr. T. S. Hubbard. Mr. Hubbard was called and sworn and his examination occupied the whole afternoon until adjournment at 5.15 p. m. The following were present Messrs. A. P. Prowse, (Chairman); A. J. McNevin, R. T. McCallan, J. H. Bell and A. C. Saunders, members of Committee. Drs. Blanchard, McMillan and Conroy, and Messrs. R. McDonald and T. S. Hubbard. The Chairman having read the resolution which was passed in the House appointing the Committee, and defining the scope of its investigation, on the motion of Mr. A. J. McNevin, seconded by Mr. P. J. McCallan, Mr. T. S. Hubbard was appointed to take an official record of the evidence and was accordingly sworn. Mr. Bell then moved that the first signatory to the charges, William J. Murphy, be called. The question arose as to whether it was advisable to put the oath to a person who might be insane, and the Chairman thought it would be well to have a medical testimony touching the sanity of Mr. Bell before swearing him. Mr. Bell urged that the Committee proceed to take the evidence of Murphy. Mr. Saunders suggested that the evidence might be taken and if the doctors, after having an opportunity of observing the way in which conducted himself, came to the conclusion that he was insane, he (Mr. Saunders) would himself suggest that the evidence be discarded. After some further discussion of this question it was decided to hear Mr. Bonnell, who was present, concerning Murphy's actions, since Mr. Bonnell would be called on in any event and it would do no harm to take his evidence at once.

Mr. Bonnell, having been sworn, stated that William Murphy had been in the infirmary for about three years. Asked as to how he had conducted himself, the witness said that he had been giving trouble and had been "somewhat contrary at times," with the result that a "little rumpus" would start up among the inmates. This had been going on for some time since he had been removed from the dining room. Murphy, he said, used to have his meals in a dining room along with the other inmates, but he became objectionable. He was subject to delusions and if a cracked cup happened to be given him sometimes or a cracked plate he would become very cross over it, declaring that it was an insult meant particularly for him, and break the plate whichever it was, and throw the tea all over the table, hitting anyone who was next him. Witness was approached in the matter and he thought it advisable, in the interests of all, to remove Murphy from the dining room and give him his meals apart. Since his removal to another room he had been getting on somewhat better and witness had no complaint. As regards Murphy's behaviour outside of the building, Mr. Bonnell said it was a daily occurrence for him to go out into the woods in the morning where no one could see him and preach and pray in a very loud voice, so that he could be heard from the bush to the other end of the Institution. He would pray to the God of Montreal and the God of Quebec and, getting more and more excited, would raise his voice to a high pitch. This state of mind would continue for an hour or so until the excitement passed and then would become normal again. He was in the habit of making trouble and it was difficult for him to get along with the others. Mr. Bonnell said he believed the handwriting in the document was Murphy's and was asked by Mr. Saunders whether in his opinion a man who was insane could write a document such as that. Mr. Bonnell replied that he had seen things apparently equally sensibly written by inmates not of the Infirmary but of the Insane Asylum. It was considered at one time, when Dr. Goodwill was at the institution, advisable to place Murphy in restraint in the Asylum, and the only reason he was not removed from the infirmary was because the other building was overcrowded. Dr. Goodwill had asked over it was possible to get along with him, and Mr. Bonnell had done his best to keep him in good humour. If there had been sufficient room in the Asylum, however, Murphy would have been transferred, as it was thought not quite safe to have him in the infirmary. Mr. Bonnell added that Murphy was under a constant de-

RUSSIA EXPROPRIATES ALL HARVEST RESERVES

SAYS ALL IS QUIET IN SPAIN

(Special to The Guardian.) WASHINGTON, April 10—Ambassador Riano of Spain said today he is in a position to deny reports that the political upheaval was threatened in his country and that the monarchy was in peril. "All my despatches," he said, "show that what is actually the contrary is true. Labor troubles, as narrated by agitators, completely disappeared after the recent outbreak. The great body of the people of Spain are patriotic and loyal, and there is no probability or possibility of a revolution such as has been rumored and reports, some of which have been published in this country, seek to indicate. Complete tranquility reigns throughout all Spain."
