

Summerside "Gimme Club," Win Many Prizes

The newly organized "Gimme Club" at Summerside went down to the Track Meet at Kensington on the spur of the moment, without any previous practice, and carried away most of the open sports prizes.

The boys are a smart aggregation and one of them, the redoubtable "Ken", is quite nifty at step dancing. He also made a hit as a banjo player and singer.

The prizes the representatives of the Gimme Club carried away with them must have been an eye opener to the other competitors. Ten hours among four boys with five firsts is not a bad record for the club.

Jack Schurman, Frank MacInnis, Vaughan Groom and Kenneth Mut sar were the boys and their honor list reads something like this:

Frank MacInnis, first, 100 yards dash; first, 220 yard dash; first running broad jump; third running high jump.

Jack Schurman, first pole vault, height 9 feet, 1 1/2 inches; first, running high jump, five feet.

Vaughan Groom, second in pole vault; second in running broad jump and third in 100 yards dash.

Ken Mut sar second in running high jump.

Such high liners should try for laurels at some of the Maritime Track Meets.

The seniors of Summerside were beaten in the Tug-of-War, which went to Freetown after a bout with Kensington when she had defeated Summerside's crack team.

The school boys upheld the traditions of Summerside High with 45 points. On the whole Summerside did well.—S alogue early in October, was still undetermined tonight. Possibly the veteran skipper, who swept the north sea for mines during the war, and has figured in the news a score of times, was swept overboard with the Halifax yacht which was making his first trip to sea. Possibly the vessel seized since she was towed into Cheticamp, with fifteen kegs of rum aboard, was hijacked. That is the opinion Smeon Spencer holds.

Captain Spencer arrived here today aboard his schooner, the Gladia, from Burgeo. Recognition of the men's clothing made unnecessary a trip to Cheticamp, where he planned to ask for a second examination of the bodies. They had already been viewed by Halifax men who recognized neither as Kirk or Partridge.

"I think the Catalogue was hijacked for her cargo of rum and whiskey and that my brother was murdered by the boarders," Spencer said. After leaving Port Aux Basques, he added, the vessel had picked up a cargo of 200 cases of rum

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 29.—University of New Brunswick's football squad took a three to nothing lead over Mount Allison this afternoon in the first of a two game series for the Provincial Intercollegiate championship and the right to play off with Nova Scotia section winners for the Maritime title.

Halfway through the second period of a game played in the pouring rain, Adams kicked, the U. N. B. forwards followed up fast, Oldham dribbling over the line to follow on the ball. McLenahan missed the kick.

Rain ruined the chances of smart backfield work and the game developed into a battle of forwards, with the Fredericton squad holding a slight edge in this department.

Passing movements among the backs were few and far between. Mount A., expected to disclose a fast passing and running back division, were unable to produce much behind the line. On the other hand, they covered the U. N. B. backs closely. Peebles tackling particularly hard. Boyd played a plucky game despite cracked ribs.

U. N. B.'s heavy and aggressive scrum largely controlled the ball, and the backfields were about evenly matched. Mac Watson, U. N. B., three-quarter was jarred by heavy tackling in the latter part of the game, and the home team finished with fourteen men. Referee Rae Smith of Halifax handed out numerous penalties for scrum infractions.

As unofficial representative for the Province, Mr. John Compton, of Bangor, P. E. I., had the privilege attending, with Mr. J. A. McIsaac, Charlottetown the last race for the International Fishermen's Trophy. Accommodation was secured for them on the Lady Laurier, and later they were invited by four Lunenburg captains for a trip to Lunenburg on board the famous Bluenose.

At Lunenburg, where the Bluenose and crew received a royal welcome, they participated in the festivities and were treated with the utmost courtesy by the Mayor and citizens. In conversation with Mr. Elmer Ryan, of the sporting fraternity of Toronto, it was suggested to Mr. Compton that Prince Edward Island might raise a small contribution and have an official representative on board the Bluenose when she goes to Toronto next year as a feature of the Canadian National Exhibition. Mr. Compton was much struck by the suggestion, and in conversation with a Guardian reporter said he would be pleased to head the fund with a small contribution. The subscriptions could be acknowledged through The Guardian and if a sufficient fund were collected some member of the Government or prominent citizen might be invited to make the trip.

Mr. Compton has many happy recollections of his trip, and would not have missed it for a great deal.

Great Britain's position in the world will be strengthened immeasurably by the election, Mr. MacDonald told his Seaman constituents.

The Prime Minister's first task, but by no means his easiest, will be the rebuilding of his cabinet. Conferences with this end in view will start today with Stanley Baldwin, Sir Herbert Samuel and the other chief lieutenants.

YARMOUTH, N. S., Oct. 28.—Witnesses who appeared before the Chignecto Canal Commission at its hearing here tonight took the stand that while the project would not directly affect this particular district it would reflect indirect benefits by promoting trade and prosperity in other sections.

L. C. Gardner, M. L. A., declared the proposed waterway should be viewed from a broader aspect. "I think," he said, "we should be speaking more for the good of the Maritimes than in our own interests. I can't see that the Canal would benefit Yarmouth directly, but I can understand that it may indirectly."

This was the viewpoint of all mariners questioned by the commission, except one who appeared at Halifax.

Dr. Arthur Surveyer, the chairman, and other members of the commission with their staff, left here today in their private car for Pictou and New Glasgow, where hearings will be held Friday.

They will go from there to Prince Edward Island, thence back to New Brunswick, where sittings at Moncton, Newcastle, Bathurst and Campbellton will complete their Maritime itinerary.

Some dissatisfaction as to the type of evidence presented to the commission was expressed tonight by Dr. Surveyer. Mr. Gardner asked whether all meetings had been on a par with the Yarmouth session and whether general statements rather than definite figures had been given.

"The various meetings we have had," said Dr. Surveyer, "rather indicate that we shall have to search ourselves."

In reply to another question by Mr. Gardner as to the possible cost of the canal, Dr. Surveyer said, "we have estimates and in making our report we will have to weigh the fixed charge against probable benefits to be derived from the proposed canal."

After the sitting, he told a reporter, in response to a query, that nothing would be given out as to the estimated cost until the commission brought in its report.

First Task

happy, had flown from Seaham Harbor to London to save precious time in getting to work.

The Prime Minister himself achieved a sensational personal triumph among the coal miners of Seaham. It was comparable to the National Government's triumph throughout the country. Beating William Coxon, Seaham schoolmaster and a former co-worker in the cause of labor, Mr. MacDonald received his mandate from the working classes of the coal mining area.

In a spectacular campaign, the Prime Minister, waving millions in worthless German marks before the miners' wives, reduced the problem of national finance to the level of a cottage budget. He said Great Britain must make both ends meet. And he warned the workers that their shillings and pounds would go the way of the mark during the German inflation period unless Britain made its money secure. Then, convincing them by poignant appeals that he remained heart and soul a Labor man, he secured their votes.

"This is not the end of the Labor party," the Prime Minister said in a message to the Seaham voters who gave him their confidence. "It will rise again but only with new leaders who have vision and courage. But it must be based on a citizen's and not a class outlook. This defeat of the Labor party will be for its ultimate good, if its lessons are learned."

Charles Edison said shortly after the will was fixed that the Thomas A. Edison Industries Inc. has a surplus of $7,000,000. Unofficially, however, it was stated that the corporation in its entirety is valued at approximately $12,000,000.

Although not stipulated in the will itself, the Edison estate at Llewellyn Park, on the outskirts of West Orange, N. J. was left by the inventor to his wife. It comprises 13 acres of beautiful countryside and is valued at upwards of $200,000.

There were no bequests to charitable or religious organizations.

LOOKING "EM OVER

M. P. B. MEETS TODAY

It looks as if some fireworks will be exploded at the annual meeting of the Maritime Province Branch, Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, which is being held at Amherst today. Several contentious baseball matters are to be brought up for consideration, as well as the question of just what teams certain hockey players who have moved since last season, belong to. If things turn out as expected, the meeting may be something like the sessions held in days gone by when there were all kinds of verbal battles staged. Nevertheless, the action by the branch may serve to clear the air of several threatening clouds in Maritime sport circles.

RECORD JUMP

The Japs, in addition to breaking into Chinese territory, are breaking world's records. One of their athletes, Chuhel Namhu by name, jumped 26 feet, 2 1/2 inches yesterday to better the former world mark by two inches. At the same meet, Mikio Oda chalked up a new universal standard of 50 feet, 11 3/4 inches for the running hop, step and jump.

UNDER HAMMER

Winnipeg, 1.57%, world's champion pacing gelding, that was bred in Western Canada, will go under the hammer at the Indianapolis sale on November 9. Star Etawah, 1.59%, will also be offered. He is one of the two pacers that stepped into the 2.00 list this year.

"DEPRESSION PRICES"

Never has there been such a demand for reserved seats for hockey games in New York as at present. The last three rows of the messan-line will be $2, and the last nine rows of the end arena, $1.50.

PASSING OF NOBLE

The passing of Reg Noble if it follows as the result of waivers being asked, will terminate a big league career that reaches back to 1917 when he was a member of Canadiens championship team of that year. Noble came from Collingwood, and broke in with the Toronto team, and was loaned to Canadiens. With St. Pats he was one of the greatest left wings in the game, then he became a centre for a while, and with Maroons a standout defence man, and has been a stalwart rearguard performer ever since. Noble a happy go lucky player like some great athletes has an aversion to strict training, and this dislike for discipline is the rock on which he and Manager Adams are splitting.

Noble was a great factor in winning Maroons' only title yet his acquisition was looked on with disfavor in some quarters, and it was one of the reasons for the disagreement between Manager Cecil Hart, and the directors which eventually resulted in a sundering of relations between them. Hart saw his judgment vindicated, and Maroons benefited for two years from the deal and then sold Noble with advantage to Detroit. He may go back to the minors where he would be a great star for a few years, but it is probable that he will agree to a "training clause," such as even some managers have accepted with willing grace.

FOOTBALL

Inclement weather of the past two weeks has held up many important local football fixtures, but with a promise of clear, cool weather next week, it looks as if a number of issues will be decided.

The intercollegiate and inter-scholastic league schedule series have been arranged, but to date no games have been played. One fixture of the senior league has been played, and was won by Saints. Should the collegians repeat tomorrow, this League will then have finished. However, the Abergweits are confident they can come through, and if they succeed, then a third game will be necessary to decide the Island title.

THE CABINET

retary of State for Foreign Affairs, who arrived in an automobile. Mr. Baldwin, in honor of the National Government's victory at the polls, smoked a brand new cherrywood pipe.

Cabinet Revision Likely

The strenuous activities of the past month seems likely to be followed by a brief lull. The Cabinet is to be reorganized, and the present membership of ten will probably be doubled. In the present Cabinet the membership comprises four Conservatives, four National-Liberals and two Liberals. In view of the overwhelming preponderance of Conservatives elected to the new Parliament a revision of the party representation in the Cabinet seems probable.

There are rumors that Mr. Snowden, while relinquishing the post of Chancellor of the Exchequer, may remain in the Cabinet with a seat in the House of Lords. Sir John Simon, leader of the National-Liberals, is regarded as a certain member of the new cabinet.

Walter Runciman, prominent National-Liberal; Sir Henry Betterton, who was Minister of Labor, but not a member of the Cabinet during the early days of the National Government; Lord Londonderry, first Commissioner of Works; Sir John Gilmour, Minister of Agriculture; Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, former Conservative Chancellor of the Exchequer; Rt. Hon. Ian MacPherson, National-Liberal who was Minister of Pensions from 1920-22, and Sir Robert Hutchison, National-Liberal who was chief Liberal whip, are all mentioned as possible Cabinet members.

In any case no immediate changes are contemplated and no action will be taken until the election returns are complete.

Among those still outstanding are the English combined universities, where Sir William Jowitt is standing, and Orkney and Shetland, the seat of Sir Robert Hamilton, National-Liberal Under Secretary for Colonies.

These returns will not be known till Saturday.

Indian Conference

The position in regard to the Indian Round Table Conference is among matters the Government will have to tackle at an early date. Four Labor members of the Round Table Conference, Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, Labor Foreign Secretary; Rt. Hon. B. Lee-Smith, Labor President of the Board of Education; Rt. Hon. F. W. Pethick-

Lawrence, Financial Secretary of the Treasury, and Rt. Hon. Wedgwood Benn, Secretary for India, were defeated at the polls. It is not essential that members of the conference be members of parliament, but the situation has to be cleared up.

Trade Movements Indicated

When the National Government gets down to business, trade development will be one of its major concerns. Till the Government is reconstituted there is a disinclination in official circles to indicate the probable lines of its policy. But campaign declarations by its members coupled with the warm welcome with which business circles received today's invitation by Prime Minister R. B. Bennett of Canada for an imperial economic conference at Ottawa—an invitation which echoed in both New Zealand and Australia—indicate forward movements for the development of empire trade.

Lord Beaverbrook's Evening Standard, in line with Prime Minister Bennett's suggestion, urges that an Imperial Conference should be convened at once.

"People want work," the Evening Standard says, "and prosperity which will follow it, and these things can be provided them in only one way. That way is the reorganization of the economic system of the Empire. The times are ripe. As Prime Minister Bennett says, the needs were never more urgent and the benefits never more apparent. The Dominions are ready. The delusion that they are reluctant to cooperate is surely now finally exploded. The Government stands between the Dominions and the people of this country and is appealed to from either side. The right and only possible answer to both appeals lies ready to its hand."

Rt. Hon. George Lansbury, first Commissioner of Works in the Labor Government, is booked to act as leader of the Labor forces in Parliament, and as it is doubted if the defeated Mr. Henderson could find a "safe" Labor seat from which the holding member would resign at the moment. The session will start on November 10.

Mr. Henderson probably will offer himself at the first normal by-election, meanwhile directing the Labor party from his home instead of from the Opposition front bench.
