Peter's Bay. The bride's bouquet was carnations, roses and maiden hair fern and she certainly looked charming in a dress of dew-drop lace over cream silk. The bridesmaid carried a bouquet of cream roses and maiden hair fern and she looked perfection in a beautiful dress of alle-green silk with cream trimmings. The groom's present to the bride was a set of sable fur and to the bridesmaid a signet ring and a ring to the best man. Mr. Anderson. The wedding march was beautifully rendered on the organ by Miss Laura Anderson of St. Peter's Bay. After the ceremony tea was served in Mrs. Webster's well known style and shortly after all departed to meet at H. D. and Mrs. McEwen, parents of the groom. At 10 p. m. about seventy invited guests sat down to a sumptuous repast after which a most pleasant evening was spent in dancing, music and appropriate speeches by the older guests. The presents were most numerous and costly and bore evidence of the wide acquaintance and popularity of the young couple. In the "we sma hours" the company dispersed with best wishes for Mr. and Mrs. McEwen's successful voyage through life.

PARIS HAS A BIG SENSATION.
 PARIS, Dec. 26—An extraordinary sensation was caused in Paris today by the announcement that the tomb of Madame Lucie Lanterne in the cemetery of Pere Lachaise was broken into last night and valuable jewels were fished from her body and carried off. The gems included a pearl necklace which alone was valued at $80,000. One of the robbers was apparently wounded while forcing the metal casket in which the beautiful actress' body is laid, for a trail of blood was left in the vicinity of the tomb and along the pathway leading to the gates of the cemetery.
