THE Richibucto Review says: Fishermen report that no dogfish have yet appeared in the straits this year. These fish were never found in these waters until two years ago. Last year and the year before, they appeared in large numbers, but for some reason they have kept away this year. Fishermen hope they have seen the last of them on this coast.

THE cheese market is just now exciting much interest. English buyers and Canadian sellers are some distance apart in their ideas. While as high of 14 cents has been paid for cheese laid down in Montreal, the cables offer only 10 1/2 to 10 cents. The price must go up in England, or down in Montreal, and the trade is uncertain which it will be. Meanwhile the makers are making a large profit.

MONCTON TRANSCRIPT: Since the retirement of Rev. Dr. Campbell from the chaplaincy of the penitentiary, Rev. B. H. Thomas has been acting chaplain. According to instructions from Ottawa the Protestant chaplaincy work will be conducted by the four resident Protestant pastors. Rev. B. H. Thomas will have charge until Sept. 1st. Through the good influence of Hon. H. R. Emerson, Ministers of Railways, the principle of equal rights has been recognized.

MAPLEWOOD lodge, Bangor, P. E. I., is in a very prosperous condition of late. A few days ago it held its annual picnic with Morning Star and Rising Star lodges on the beautiful grounds adjoining Morell River. A very enjoyable day was spent in all kinds of games, speeches, etc. In the evening the party broke up, some going to their homes satisfied with the day's pleasure and some seeking further pleasure by driving to St. Peter's Harbor.

EASTERN NOTES.—On Saturday the 27th ult the remains of the late George McDonald arrived from Montreal accompanied by a comrade McInnis. On Sunday the funeral, some hundred carriages, who met to pay the last sad tribute of respect, took place from the residence of his father Theophilus McDonald. Impressive services were held at the house and grave by Rev. Mr. Gardiner and Rev. Henry A. McDonald, an old neighbor and kinsman but now of Lexington, Kentucky. At the early age of twenty four he was mournfully, tenderly laid to rest amid his kindred at the beautiful South Lake cemetery, and the waves of the Gulf which sang his early lullaby shall beat his solemn requiem till time shall be no more. In the evening Rev. Mr. McDonald preached in the Baptist church.—Mrs. (Dr.) Allison was a visitor east recently.—Miss Vesta Stewart and Misses Minnie and Laura Mellick are among our latest arrivals from the South.—The Misses Campbell, formerly of Montague in this Island, now of Wellesly Mass., are spending a vacation with Alfred Rose.—B. D. Rice of New Glasgow N. S. made his welcome appearance amongst us after an absence of eight years.—Miss Hammond of Revere, Mass., is visiting her relatives at South Lake.—Our fishermen are meeting with varied success. Some hake are in our waters at present and the energetic fishermen land fair catches some days, but want of bait still prevails.—Nearly a week of wet weather postponed hay making, but now all hands are busy.

Shaving goods.—We have everything required to make shaving a pleasure—razors, strops, mugs, soap, Facial Creams, Talcum Powders etc etc. All these goods are new and of the best quality.—See our western show window. Prices right. Call and be convinced.—A. W. Reddin, Phenix, Sunnyside.

—Within the last week or two we have been receiving almost daily, reinforcements to our already magnificent line of bedroom furniture. These shipments include elegant suites and odd pieces in all the newest finishes and most artistic designs at extremely low prices. If you want a suite it means money saved for you if you buy here.—John Newson. 8-9 d 1w.

SHOUL WEIGHT—no matter how little at a time, amounts to a whole lot on a year's buying. Weight is a matter that we watch very carefully. We want to give you the exact weight every time. But if there is any error it has got to be in your favor.
OUR GROCERY reputation is too good to have it spoiled by short measure. Children—just as correct weight as grown people, too good for you.
