HATTAND SENDS "SOAPPY" TO JAIL

Roscoe Ates, the stuttering comedy sidekick of the new EBC's action star Eddie Dean, lets a husband get him into a heap of trouble in "Wild Country," which opens today at the Empire Theatre.

Eddie has Roscoe wear the band, to attract the attention of a killer who uses the same syle as a trademark. Eddie's plan is so successful that Roscoe is mistaken for the outlaw and lands in jail.

SAGA OF FLYING ACE MAKES TENSE FILM

Columbia's "Pacific Adventure," the true story of one of the great heroes of our time, Sir Charles Kingsford Smith, is coming to the Capitol Theatre today. Ron Randell, the Australian star, plays the principal role, while Muriel Steinbeck heads a supporting cast that includes John Tate, Nan Taylor, Joy Nichols and Alec Kellaway.

"FIESTA" MIXES BULL RING EXCITEMENT WITH MELODY IN NOVEL MUSICAL DRAMA

"Fiesta," new M-G-M Technicolor musical, which was filmed largely in Mexico, and which opens today at the Prince Edward Theatre, is a brilliantly enacted, beautifully photographed production whose plot is as completely engrossing as are its melodic numbers and spectacular backgrounds — a rarity in film musicals.

Ether Williams, who in "Easy to Wed" revealed that her talents extend far beyond her famed swimming prowess, once again demonstrates an amazing versatility in "Fiesta," in which she plays a feminine matador who saves the honor of her family when her twin brother is labeled a coward in the bull ring. The brother is played by the Mexican film idol, Ricardo Montalban, whose looks, dancing ability and dramatic talent will undoubtedly keep him in U. S. films from now on.

The story centers on the conflict between Morales, once Mexico's most famous matador, and his son, Mario (Montalban), whom he has trained to follow in his spectacular career. Mario's first love, however, is music, and when, on the debut of his first bullfight, he learns that his father has sent away the great conductor who was to further his work as a composer, he refuses to face his first bull and leaves the ring in disgrace. In order to bring him back his twin sister, Maria (Miss Williams), takes his place in the ring. The ensuing happenings makes for a plot filled with suspense and powerful dramatic action. Woven into the dramatic episodes of "Fiesta" are colorful musical sequences against authentic Mexican fiesta backgrounds, in which the dancing and singing of Miss Williams, Montalban and Cyd Charisse are highlighted together with the principals, the cast features Fortunio Bonanova as proud Morales, Akin Tamiroff as his former banderillero, John Carroll as Maria's fiance, Mary Astor as her mother and Hugo Haas as Contreras, the conductor, and all of them are expertly cast.

The many friends are sorry to learn that Miss Ella Semple has been confined to her home with a severe cold. Miss Semple is much missed when she is not about, especially in the Sunday School, where she is a valued teacher.

Penny, the lovely pup of little Freddy Dickleson, "son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dickleson" disappeared from home a few days ago. In spite of inquiring and searching no trace of Penny can be found which is regretted by his little master.

Miss Ruth Dickleson has been attending the refresher course in music in Charlottetown. The young folk as well as old ones desire her instruction, and trust she may conduct a class in her native village, although distant fields may beckon her.

Among those attending the Presbytery of the United Church, were Mrs. J. S. McLeod who graciously responded to the address of welcome, Mrs. George E. Smith, Mrs. Emmet Bernard, Miss V. Gamster, Mrs. Cyril Smith, Mrs. Roy Woolner, Mrs. George Gough, Mrs. Warfield Orr and Mrs. Blair Andrew. They reported very interesting and inspiring meetings.

Mr. Cecil Thompson motored to the Capitol on Friday. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Houston, and little daughter Gloria, Mr. Harold Dickleson, Mrs. M. Larkin and Mrs. Edwin Stevenson. Due to the storm arising during the day, the roads were so filled in, that the automobile had to be abandoned a couple of miles from the village, while the occupants were conveyed to their respective homes by horse and sleigh.

The Mayfield Women's Institute held its regular meeting on January 26, at the home of the president, Mrs. Willard Nicholson. Meeting was opened as usual. Roll call was answered with the exchange of
