I am Grateful to the Independent Order of Foresters especially to the members of Court Minnewawa, Bedeque, for their kindness in mediating the long illness of my husband the late Leslie Gould. While he was in the hospital for the insane the dues were paid by the members. At the funeral everything that a society could do for a member was done and soon after the amount for insurance was promptly paid, and I here tender my sincere thanks to the Foresters for their kindness.

Allan McKay a native of Grandview who left this Province forty-four years ago has returned for a visit to his native home. He left here in the year 1864, on the brig Garibaldi, as mate. His cruise ended in New Zealand. During his long residence there he has been engaged at the business of contracting for bridges, wharves, and similar structures, and became expert at concrete work attaining a gratifying measure of success. He is very glad to be home again and thinks no place so pleasant as this Province. His brothers and sisters here are John and Ronald at Grandview; Mrs. Arch. McDonald, Finlayson and Mrs. Arch. McDonald, Grandview, and Mrs. Allan of Fitzroy Street west this City. He has another brother also a successful contractor in N. Z. He is the father of Miss Bessie McKay a trained nurse who has been in this City for the past two years.

The Guardian has received a copy of the program of the 53rd annual session of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of the Maritime Provinces of Canada. The session is to be held in Charlottetown August 12th and 13th and there will be a notable and interesting gathering of Maritime Province Oddfellows. The program is included in an illustrated booklet, which besides describing in detail the arrangements for the occasion, contains much interesting information about the Grand Lodge of Prince Edward Island. The gentlemen comprising the committee of arrangements are: R. Battary, J. Martin, J. J. McKinnon, H. L. Bethune, W. C. Whitlock, J. E. Bell, A. J. Houle, J. Cornfoot, J. F. Whear, Chairman, D. The Evangelistic services at Central Christian Church continue to attract attention and last night Mr. Mitchell preached an eloquent sermon to a large audience. Mrs. Bilby sang one of her finest solos. At the close of the service the ordinance of baptism was administered. Tonight Mr. Mitchell's subject will be "Heaven what and where and shall we know each other there?" Mrs. Bilby will sing again tonight.

The closing of the City Schools took place yesterday. In Prince Street School the senior students assembled in Principal Seaman's room where the medals and diplomas were presented, the former by the Lieut. Governor and the latter by Judge Blanchard after which His Honor made a most complimentary speech which was followed by Rev. T. F. Fullerton and T. C. James. Judge Blanchard congratulated the pupils on the excellence of their singing which was so ably attended to by Prof. Watts during the past season. The Intermediate classes Misses Pasmore's and Miss Boyler held their closing in their hall while the three junior classes Miss Haslam's, Miss Lord's and Miss Irving's were assembled in Miss Haslam's department where a lengthy program was carried out after which Judge Blanchard presented the diplomas. The little tots in Miss McMurray's and Miss Taylor's rooms entertained their visitors in a most pleasing manner while Mr. Nash presented the diplomas. Many visitors were present including the members of the School Board all of whom were also present at the exceptionally fine exercises held in Queen Square and West Kent Street Schools. The pupils were all wished a pleasant holiday and dismissed to resume studies on Sept. 8th next.
