(From yesterday's Evening Guardian) -CORRECTED LIGHT.-The range light at the east end of Summerside has been moved about fifty feet to the south of its former location and in its present position corrects the ranges leading into the harbor. The work was done under the Superintendency of Mr. John Matheson, Summerside, and was accomplished in a very short time.-J.

-COUNTY COURT.-The December term of the 5th circuit County Court, Judge McLeod presiding was in session on Friday and Saturday and will likely conclude its work today. The docket this term is unusually heavy. In addition to a large number of appeals from income tax from different parts of the country in several cases of which some reduction was made, but the majority of appeals were dismissed.-J.

-DIED SATURDAY.-The death occurred at her home in Muddy Creek on Saturday afternoon of Selma Corrier, wife of Mr. Joseph J. Gaulat of that place, after a short illness of internal trouble. The deceased was well known as a popular and charitable lady and will be much missed in the community in which she resided. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon to Miscouche R. C. Church; interment being made in the cemetery adjoining.-J.

-PORT HILL.-The half yearly examination of Port Hill School took place on the afternoon of Friday, Dec. 19th. There was a large attendance of rate-payers and visitors and the result of the examination is a credit to the teacher, Miss Loretta Leonard, who though only being in the school a few months has brought the school up to a high degree of efficiency. The pupils were examined in all the different grades and branches by the teacher, assisted by Mrs. Henry Newcombe and their readiness to answer the questions put to them was in evidence of the good training they had received. A prize given to grade IV, was won by Kathaleen Brown and one given to Grade III, was won by Jess Montgomery. At the close of the examination a short program consisting of readings, recitations and singing, was given by several of the pupils. All of which were well spoken of by those present. Short addresses appreciative of the good work done by Miss Leonard and Messrs W. J. Montgomery, Bernard, D. Brown and others.-P.
