At a recent meeting of Harvest Division, S. O. T., Canoe Cove the following letter of condolence was forwarded to Bro. Duncan and Miss Darrach on the death of their father, the late Duncan Darrach, and was signed on behalf of the lodge by Murdoch C. McKinnon, W. P., Laura MacLean, W. A. and Mark Inman, Treas.

"With feelings of deepest sorrow, we the members of Harvest Division, S. O. T., Canoe Cove, desire to convey to you our heartfelt sympathy in the death of your beloved father, the late Duncan Darrach. In his removal from this life we know there is made vacant in your home a chair that never can be filled, and that an irreparable loss has fallen upon you, yet your loss is his gain and that has gone to fill a station in that great life beyond, where sorrow and where happiness and peace reign forever. Of him it can truly be said that he lived the life of the righteous and so died to receive a Christian's reward. Sincerely do we condole with you in your bereavement and pray that the Divine Healer may comfort you and all mourning ones, giving you for good, to them that love Him, that you may say in the fullness of your hearts 'Thy will, O Lord be done.'
