CITY & COUNTRY NEWS

O. F. Taylor, Charlottetown, is at the Victoria.—St. John Telegraph.

THERE will be a meeting of the Ministerial Association in the study of Rev. G. M. Young, on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

THE regular monthly meeting of the Local Council of women will be held at Prince of Wales College on Saturday 27th inst. at 3.30 o'clock. A full attendance is requested as the reports from the National Council at Vancouver, and the International at Paris will be given. Presidents of affiliated societies will please urge their delegates to attend.

OFTEN of late the I. C. R. yards Moncton have been found insufficient to accommodate the freight cars. From one hundred to three hundred of these cars have had to be placed on sidings up the line. The management of the railroad is arranging for additional sidings to accommodate about two hundred cars for the coming winter business. The same difficulty is experienced in the yard at Charlottetown P. E. Island.

MISSION BAND CONCERT AT MONTROSE.—The entertainment held in the Presbyterian Church, Montrose, on Thanks giving evening, 11th inst., was quite an interesting and pleasant affair. The attendance, considering the night was fair, and a snug little sum in aid of the Korean Mission was realized. The following program was most efficiently carried out, reflecting credit upon all who took part:—

- Opening Hymn, "Send the Light"—Children and Choir.
- Scripture reading and prayer by the Pastor.
- Singing, "Helping all the While"—Children.
- Address—Rev. A. D. McDonald.
- Vocal Solo, "The Pilgrim Fathers"—Mr. B. Riley.
- Recitation, "The Ladies' Dream"—Miss Minnie Ramsay.
- Singing, "Winning Souls for Jesus"—Children.
- Reading, "The Minister's Experience"—Miss Minnie Gordon.
- Instrumental solo, "The Sweet bye and bye"—Miss Daisy Bowness.
- Recitation, "Go spread the Gospel"—Miss Barbara Hardy.
- Singing, "Here am I Send Me"—Children.
- Recitation, "Don't You Care"—Mary E. McDonald.
- Recitation, "After the Forth"—May Marchbanks.
- Singing, "Little Corners."
- Reading, "Missionary Life"—Miss Laura Hardy.
- Instrumental Solo, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus"—Miss Edith McDonald.
- Recitation, "Our Heroes"—Sophia Barbour.
- Singing, "Little hands are useful too."
- Recitation, "Your Thanksgiving"—Miss Edith McDonald.
- Vocal Duett, "Try to be like Jesus"—May McDonald and May Marchbanks.
- Collection for Missions—Edward Hardy and Jack McDonald.
- Singing "Little Soldiers."
- Closing Address.
- Doxology.

THE following will be of interest to those who were present in the Opera House a few years ago when the "little people" gave an entertainment. The Countess Magri, formerly Mrs. Tom Thumb, in a paper to the October Woman's Home Companion entitled "The Recollections of a Midget," gives the following account of how the famous dwarf came by his name: "In speaking of Mr. Stratton I have used the name General Tom Thumb, for by that name the public best knew him. Perhaps a statement of how he received his title will be of interest—a story which even Mr. Barnum has neglected to make known, but which Mr. Stratton himself told me. When Mr. Barnum first made his acquaintance and persuaded his parents to allow their child to travel, it was thought a good scheme to introduce him to the public as "Tom Thumb." So as Tom Thumb he was heralded by all the skill which made Barnum so famous, and by that name he was introduced to Queen Victoria and many of the royal and titled frequenters of St. James'. "On his first visit he had amused the Queen by asking particularly after the Prince of Wales and when he was the second time to appear at the palace he was presented both to the Prince of Wales and to the Princess Royal, who afterwards became Empress of Germany. As he stood beside the children his smallness was more noticeable. The Duke of Wellington was present, and noticed this fact, evidently with much interest, as he said to some one standing near, "Their Royal Highnesses are head and shoulders taller than Tom Thumb." This remark, the General told me, "was overheard by the Queen, and turning to the Duke said, "General Tom Thumb." Bowing low to Her Majesty the Duke gave me the military salute, repeating the title, "General Tom Thumb," everybody bowed, and although I did not fully comprehend then that Her Majesty's simple say so could make it unchangeable, I found that ever after that I was always addressed as General." "Mr. Stratton also said that he knew enough of the history of the Duke of Wellington to be greatly interested in him and to feel that an introduction to this 'great fighter,' as he called him, was worth more than a chat with this royal boy and girl."

A SUNDAY School Convention will be held in the Baptist Church at Knutsford near O'Leary Station on Monday afternoon and evening, Oct. 29th. It is expected that the Superintendent of the Home Department, D. Schurman, and the Field Secretary, Rev. G. P. Raymond will be present to assist in the success of the gathering.

SANKEY, the evangelistic singer who visited Charlottetown a few years ago is meeting a warm welcome in Great Britain. He is much older than when he made his famous tour three years ago with Mr. Moody, and stirred thousands with his songs, but though its voice was lost considerable of his sweetness and compass, it moves and touches people by the warmth and tenderness of his singing. It is said myriads traveled far and near to see and hear him. Exeter Hall was recently packed at a reception extended him.
