The Markets At A Glance

TORONTO, Feb. 8 — (CP) — The mining groups moved forward to post sizable index gains and the Western Oils weakened narrowly today on the Toronto Stock Exchange.

The market was lacking in features apart from a lively market for some of the junior issues. However had a run-up of a few cents on the news of an accidental strike on the company's property at Red Lake. Golden Arrow, Central Fur-cupine, Joliet, McKenzie, Shawky and Stadacona were heavy traders at higher prices.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8 — (AP) — Stock Market leaders pulled slug-gishly in opposite directions today with scattered industrials making some headway while liquors again weakened and rails suffered a set-back.

The Associate Press 60-stock average was off 3 of a point at 79.5.

MONTREAL, Feb. 8 — (CP) — Liquors extended Thursday's losses in trading today on the Stock Market and other sections of the list boarded were narrowly irregular with gains winning in a day-long struggle for predominance.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 8 — (CP) — The full five-cent limit on modest buyins which found the market almost bare of offerings.

CHICAGO, Feb. 8 — (AP) — After comparatively timid trading in May in early dealings, buyers became confident as the session progressed today and bid prices substantially higher.

MONTREAL, Feb. 8 — (CP) — Produce prices quoted here today reported by the Dominion Department of Agriculture follow:

HULL, England — (CP) — A 2,000-pound unexploded bomb has been located after a three-year search in the market place here.

ST. HELIERS, Jersey — (CP) — One of the men of the North Road, which will skirt the whole of the north of Jersey when completed, has been officially opened recently. The road has been dedicated to all the men and women of Jersey who suffered during the war.

opportunities and work them out steadily," he said. "When fishermen refuse to go out after the crews consider they have made enough money for the season and when men work for a few months and then having made a few hundred dollars walk out and blow it for six weeks, the outlook for the future is rather discouraging.

"The herring industry has recently had a great increase and I hope will continue to maintain a most prosperous part of New-foundland are where the herring fishery is actively prosecuted.

"The war effort was magnificient and her contribution in manpower to the navy, army and air force, merchant navy, foresters and civil defence has often received generous and worthy tribute in England and elsewhere.

"The war brought a boom of prosperity to the land of the completely transformed the economic position of the country, and I hope this will continue for many years to come.

"It is a debatable point as to whether this country can be called 'self-supporting' at the present time, yes, but looking some years ahead, I doubt if it will be for practical purposes, even with our present surplus of nearly $5,000,000."
