Royal Couple Take Vows Amid Traditional Pageant In Commonwealth Capital

Today, the months of preparation for the wedding of Princess Elizabeth and Lieut. Philip Mountbatten culminate in a ceremony that adds one more page to the history of Britain's royal family. A royal wedding is of necessity a pageant to satisfy the demands of tradition and the desire of millions of Britons and thousands of visitors to witness the ceremony. The route of the wedding procession, starting at the Palace and ending at Westminster Abbey, will be thronged with people from all over the world as well as native Londoners. After the wedding, tradition allows that the royal couple may disappear from public gaze until the end of their honeymoon.

By Louis Nevin
PARIS, Nov. 19 (AP)—Premier Paul Ramadier, unable to stem a dangerously increasing national crisis of Communist-inspired strikes, resigned tonight as strikes involving nearly 500,000 Frenchmen kept the country in a turmoil.
A Socialist spokesman said Ramadier's Socialist colleague, Leon Blum, had received a mandate to form a new government.
President Vincent Auriol, who named the then little-known Ramadier to the premiership 10 months ago, received the resignation with regret and immediately set about the task of formally appointing a successor. The President thanked the 60-year-old economist and lawyer for the "courage and spirit of sacrifice" he displayed as premier.
The 75-year-old Blum, elder statesman of the Socialists, headed a temporary "caretaker" government when he stepped on Oct. 17 and was succeeded by OTTAWA, Nov. 19 (CP)—A senior official of the Transport Department said today he did not yet know how much money would be spent on improving the Department's airport at Moncton, N. B., terminal of Trans Canada Airlines' planes on trans-Atlantic flights.

He was commenting on a Moncton transcript newspaper story which quoted a Department of Transport spokesman as saying that a $1,000,000 expansion program was planned for the airport.
The spokesman said the estimates of Department expenditure for the 1948-49 fiscal year now were being drawn up and it was not yet known how much would be spent at Moncton.
Plans did call for the expansion of the airport, however, which was considered the Atlantic terminal. Some of the work had already been done but there still was more to do.

Daring Rescue Of 41 Shipwrecked Sailors

HALIFAX, Nov. 19 (CP)—Official island forecasts issued by the Dominion Public Weather Office at Halifax valid from 11 p.m. Wednesday until midnight Thursday.
Synopsis:
There was rain or drizzle in many regions of the Maritimes Wednesday and during the evening there was still a few snowflurries. This weather is caused by a current of moist cool air sweeping in from the North Atlantic. An area of high pressure covers Ontario and as this moves eastward Thursday the winds will decrease and clearing weather is forecast in the more westerly regions.
Regional forecasts:
Prince Edward Island:
Intermittent drizzle and scattered snowflurries tonight and Thursday morning. Cloudy in the afternoon and evening. Little change in temperature. North winds 15, decreasing Thursday afternoon to light northerly winds. High Thursday at Charlottetown 38.
High tide this afternoon at 4:28 and tonight at 3:10.
Sun sets this morning at 4:28 and rises tomorrow afternoon at 7:05.
First quarter moon November 20th, 4:44 P. M.
Summerside tide eighteen minutes later than Charlottetown.
