

W. C. T. U. NOTES

FRANCES WILLARD
Fearless she stood in the cause of right.
Ready to do her Lord's command:
Anxious to help the poor and weak.

MISS WILLARD'S STATUE
On February 17th, 1942, the regular business of the National Congress for the United States was suspended for the function of erecting and dedicating a statue in honor of Miss Willard.

MISS WILLARD'S STATUE
The world is better because Frances W. Willard lived. She devoted her life unselfishly to the cause of humanity and she brought sobriety into the homes of thousands.

MISS WILLARD'S FUNERAL
Miss Willard passed away on the 25th of September, 1898. Her funeral was held on the 27th of September at the Central Baptist Church.

MISS WILLARD'S FUNERAL
I had six good serving men, who brought me all I know.
Their names are What and Why and How, and Where and Who.

MISS WILLARD'S FUNERAL
What is Women's Christian Temperance Union? The Pledge in the answer, it is a Unity Effort on the part of Christian Women to suppress the liquor traffic and all evils arising from it.

MISS WILLARD'S FUNERAL
Where do we work? Ever since the time of Noah after the flood, the men have been on, and is becoming more so in the present.

MISS WILLARD'S FUNERAL
Why do we work? Beginning in our Communities and spreading to the whole wide earth, recognizing no barriers of race, creed, color or religious boundary.

Health and betterment of the people
A short time ago we had begun to speak of the slavery of the spirit. Men like Pharaoh and his army, the trade realizing what it would mean to them, if the slaves were free, got after us with haste, by money, political power and the press.
